ICEL2016-Proceedings of the 11th International Conference on e- Learning Prof. Dr. Rozhan M. Idrus and Dr Nurkhamimi Zainuddin, 2016 Transforming Universities in South Africa , 2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage Performance-Based Seismic Design of Concrete Structures and Infrastructures Plevris, Vagelis, Kremmyda, Georgia, Fahjan, Yasin, 2017-02-14 Solid design and craftsmanship are a necessity for structures and infrastructures that must stand up to natural disasters on a regular basis Continuous research developments in the engineering field are imperative for sustaining buildings against the threat of earthquakes and other natural disasters Performance Based Seismic Design of Concrete Structures and Infrastructures is an informative reference source on all the latest trends and emerging data associated with structural design Highlighting key topics such as seismic assessments shear wall structures and infrastructure resilience this is an ideal resource for all academicians students professionals and researchers that are seeking new knowledge on the best methods and techniques for designing solid structural designs The Plague Years Michael Titlestad, Karl van Wyk, Grace A. Musila, 2022-08-15 The Plague Years collects scholarly and essayistic reflections on literary visual and sonic representations of the COVID 19 and other pandemics These are placed alongside poetry and short fiction written in the first two years of quarantine or isolation This range expresses the intellectual and imaginative struggle and ingenuity entailed in coming to terms with the rampant spread of disease and its emotional cultural and political consequences The contributions are from diverse contexts Africa from Egypt to South Africa China Japan the US and Scandinavia They consider some of the array of contemporary engagements poems translated from Mandarin about the traumas of the frontline Chinese calligraphic poetry printed on cartons of PPE comments on the literary history of representing epidemics and pandemics political analyses of the post truth present and the role of life writing and gaming in an interrupted world Given the generative and creative obliquity of many of its parts this collection shifts how one thinks about the diseased present and the archival pasts on which it draws The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of English Studies in Africa Socioeconomics, Philosophy, and Deneocoloniality Abdul Karim Bangura, 2025-08-21 Existing paradigms such as decoloniality simplify the complex dynamics between former colonies and colonial powers. Such frameworks overlook the role of local elites in maintaining and even enhancing oppressive systems. They also imply that external forces are responsible for ongoing exploitation. This book tackles this concept head on by introducing a new methodology called deneocoloniality. Deneocoloniality expands on decoloniality and neocolonialism. It argues that while decoloniality focuses on the residual impacts of colonialism by external forces, it neglects the internal dynamics where former colonized elites play a significant role in perpetuating oppression for personal gain. The book presents socioeconomic and philosophical case studies to support deneocoloniality as a more comprehensive framework for understanding current realities in African countries. Readers will gain a nuanced understanding of the intricate power structures affecting developing nations. The book provides a structured methodology for analyzing problems, emphasizing the importance of logical reasoning and collaborative efforts. It offers practical solutions based on deep analysis, moving beyond mere diagnosis to actionable recommendations. This approach aims to equip readers with the tools needed to develop policies and strategies that address both external and internal sources of oppression.

Building Collaborative Learning Communities to Drive Student Success Dhakal, Robin, Davis, William G., Heske, Kira, 2025-09-16 Building collaborative learning communities has emerged as a powerful strategy to help enhance students' engagement, achievement, and success. By fostering environments where students and educators can work together, these communities create a culture of shared responsibility and respect to support a deeper understanding and long-term academic development. As education continues to evolve, especially in the wake of digital transformation and diverse learning needs, cultivating strong, inclusive learning communities is key to driving meaningful and sustained student outcomes. Building Collaborative Learning Communities to Drive Student Success explores the dynamics between leadership theory and practice and addresses the pressing challenges faced by today's educational institutions. It provides a valuable resource for those seeking to cultivate a culture of collaboration and continuous improvement, enhancing student success in higher education. Covering topics such as artificial intelligence, mentorship, and talent development, this book is an excellent resource for educational leaders, administrators, faculty, researchers, and more.

Higher Education ICT Integration in Africa Ke Yu, Reuben Dlamini, 2024-08-21 This multidisciplinary edited volume examines higher education's ICT integration in Africa, contributing a new and inclusive change readiness framework to better understand how to manage ICT or other technological disruptions in resource-restrained contexts. Tackling ICT incorporation in HEIs from different levels, chapters document case studies from countries such as Uganda, South Africa, Rwanda, Eswatini, and Zimbabwe to demonstrate both the complexity of integration but also the successes it has enabled and under which conditions. The cases included in this book also exhibit better incorporation of both change content and process, while some cases also make explicit reference to other technology adoption models. Ultimately, the book highlights conceptual and empirical research to inform practices and policy.

development in Africa improving multi level success or change readiness in ICT incorporation in HEIs in Africa Addressing various gaps in existing literature and proposing innovative solutions like the multilevel change readiness model this book will therefore be of interest to scholars researchers and academics in the fields of higher education ICT integration and educational technology more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
