Rule of Law Barbara Faedda, 2021-08-25 Edited by Barbara Faedda Based on a division of powers and the supremacy of a constitution the rule of law is not invulnerable as was demonstrated in the violent attack against the U S Capitol on January 6 2021 It can be used but also abused it can be respected or exploited exalted or undermined It can even arouse skepticism because it is not always effective against the realities of political life In a world facing social division polarization poverty climate change and pandemics it is crucial to understand the roles of those who manage control or are touched by the rule of law This book's primary goal is to showcase the variety of perspectives cases and methodologies of the people and institutions that bring a range of expertise to bear in many fields The essays here which encompass various geographic areas and social groups as well as several historical periods address racism misinformation human rights the status of women the treatment of indigenous peoples the environment and more The rule of law is not merely a set of principles that guarantee a just society It must be more than a tool in the hands of legal experts it cannot be a concept out of the reach of ordinary people It is essential that every citizen feel a clear responsibility to protect and promote the rule of law to denounce inequalities and oppose imbalances of power if the common goal is to enjoy freedom democracy and justice for all Barbara Faedda is the executive director of the Italian Academy for Advanced Studies at Columbia University and adjunct associate professor in Columbia's Department of Italian where she teaches courses on contemporary Italy Among her publications are the books Elite Cultura italiana e statunitense tra Settecento e Novecento Ronzani 2020 From Da Ponte to the Casa Italiana A Brief History of Italian Studies at Columbia Columbia University Press 2017 Present and Future Memory Holocaust Studies at the Italian Academy editor Italian Academy Publications 2016 and essays including An Italian Perspective on the U S Italy Relationship The White House Historical Association 2016 Neurolaw come le neuroscienze potrebbero cambiare l'antropologia giuridica and We are not racists but we do not want immigrants In 2016 Dr Faedda conceived the International Observatory for Cultural Heritage IOCH dedicated to all issues relating to the survival protection and conservation of cultural heritage In 2019 she was appointed ambassador permanent observer for the European Public Law Organization to the United Nations

Rule of Law through Human Rights and International Criminal Justice Charles Riziki Majinge,2015-10-05 This project was undertaken not so much as a farewell to the contribution Adama Dieng has selflessly offered to humanity but mainly as a token of appreciation to his dedication and contribution to the rule of law and human rights especially in his native continent Africa As a high ranking international civil servant diplomat teacher activist and accomplished jurist Adama Dieng has inspired and indeed continues to inspire a generation of men and women both in Africa and beyond with his unqualified commitment to the advancement of the ideals reflected in the United Nations Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights Through his work and commitment to the cause of international justice and conflict prevention he has consistently placed the interests of his fellow men and women and indeed those of his continent before his own interests It is therefore in recognition of his efforts that his fellow jurists friends and colleagues decided to honour his contribution through a collection of essays on a life dedicated to the advancement of international peace and justice through the rule of law The contributions gathered here represent in good measure the values and beliefs in rule of law and human rights that have characterized Adama s commitment to work towards a better Africa and a better world

Critical Issues in Nigerian Property Law Utuama, Amos Agbe,2016-07-25 Critical Issues in Nigerian Property Law a collection of writings in honour of Professor Jelili Adebisi Omotola SAN a former Vice Chancellor of the University of Lagos who died on the 29th of March 2006 has ten chapters that closely examine not only the current state of Property Law in Nigeria but also recent developments and other challenges that have surfaced since the infamous Land Use Act of 1999 The book is clearly a useful contribution to a growing body of knowledge on property law and practice in Nigeria

Human Rights and the Environment under African Union Law Michael Addaney,Ademola Oluborode Jegede,2020-08-21 This book brings together original and novel perspectives on major developments in human rights law and the environment in Africa Focusing on African Union law the book explores the core concepts and principles theory and practice accountability mechanisms and key issues challenging human rights law in the era of global environmental change It thus extend the frontier of understanding in this fundamental area by building on existing scholarship on African human rights law and the protection of the environment divulging concerns on redressing environmental and human rights protection issues in the context of economic growth and sustainable development It further offers unique insight into the development domestication and implementation challenges relating to human rights law and environmental governance in Africa This long overdue interdisciplinary exploration of human rights law and the environment from an African perspective will be an indispensable reference point for academics policymakers practitioners and advocates of international human rights and environmental law in particular and international law environmental politics and philosophy and African studies in general It is clear that there is much to do study and share on this timely subject in the African context

Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender, 2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country

Anderson, 2006 Spatializing Law Franz von Benda-Beckmann, Keebet von Benda-Beckmann, 2016-04-01 Spatializing Law An Anthropological Geography of Law in Society focuses on law and its location exploring how spaces are constructed on the terrestrial and marine surface of the earth with legal means in a rich variety of socio political legal and ecological settings The contributors explore the interrelations between social spaces and physical space highlighting the ways in which legal rules may localise people's rights and obligations in social space that may be mapped onto physical space This volume also demonstrates how different notions of space and place become resources that can be mobilised in social political and economic interaction paying specific attention to the contradictory ways in which space may be configured and involved in social interaction under conditions of plural legal orders Spatializing Law makes a significant contribution to the anthropological geography of law and will be useful to scholars across a broad array of disciplines International Handbook of Universities, 2010

Commercial Law Reports 2012, 2012-12-31 Making Open Development Inclusive Matthew L. Smith, Ruhiya Kristine Seward, 2020-08-25 Drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyses of how open development has played out in practice A decade ago a significant trend toward openness emerged in international development Open development can describe initiatives as disparate as open government open health data open science open education and open innovation The theory was that open systems related to data science and innovation would enable more inclusive processes of human development This volume drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyzes how open development has played out in practice Focusing on development practices in the Global South the contributors explore the crucial questions of who is allowed to participate when an initiative is open and who benefits or not from them finding that processes characterized as open can sometimes be exclusionary in their implementation Examining a wide range of cases they consider the governance of open development ecosystems and the implementation of a variety of applications including open educational resources collaborative science and the uses of crowdsourcing Contributors Denisse Albornoz Chris Armstrong Savita Bailur Roxana Barrantes Carla Bonina Michael Ca ares Leslie Chan Laura Czerniewicz Jeremy de Beer Stefano De Sabbata Shirin Elahi Alison Gillwald Mark Graham Rebecca Hillyer Cheryl Hodgkinson Williams Dick Kawooya Erika Kramer Mbula Paulo Matos Caroline Ncube Chidi Oguamanam Angela Okune Alejandro Posada Nagla Rizk Isaac Rutenberg Tobias Schonwetter Fabrizio Scrollini Ruhiya Kristine Seward Raed Sharif Matthew Smith William Randall Spence Henry Trotter Francois van Schalkwyk Sonal Zavaeri Popular Participation in the Integration of the East African

Community Korwa Gombe Adar, Kasaija Phillip Apuuli, Agnes Lucy Lando, PLO-Lumumba,, Juliana Masabo, 2020-03-09 The post independence integration endeavor of the East African Community has been punctuated with challenges culminating into the collapse of the 1967 1977 regional organization The renaissance of the integration agenda since the re establishment of the regional organization in 1999 has rekindled epistemological debate among scholars and practitioners on the East African Community raison d etre and integration process This volume is the first of its kind in this ongoing debate that puts into proper context the nexus between the East African citizens and the integration agenda Focusing on the Partner States case studies the authors of the chapters operationalize the concepts of popular participation eastafricanness eastafricanization democratization and integration Using political national constitutions and EAC treaty communication and awareness dimensions the authors of the chapters have analyzed the nexus between the EAC citizens and the integration process The study generally proceeds from the premise that the exclusion of the EAC citizens from exercising their sovereign rights through popular participation undermines the prospects for the institutionalization and consolidation of the EAC identity eastafricanness eastafricanization democratization and integration Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law Charles J. Russo, 2013-07-11 The Handbook of Comparative Higher Education Law addresses legal issues from institutions of higher learning in seventeen countries on all six inhabited continents in a reader friendly manner All chapters follow the same outline on institutional issues faculty rights student rights and emerging issues so that similarities and differences can be compared An introductory chapter provides an overview on the legal status of higher education as selected in various international covenants In addition a concluding chapter draws the themes addressed throughout the book together and centers on the concept of best practice management This book serves as valuable resource for educational practitioners in higher education insofar as it provides them with an enhanced awareness of strategies that are being used to manage problems commonly faced in multiple educational settings International Environmental Law Elli Louka, 2006-10-02 This book analyzes the law and policy for the management of global common resources As competing demands on the global commons are increasing the protection of environment and the pursuit of growth give rise to all sorts of conflicts It also analyzes issues in the protection of the global commons from a fairness effectiveness and world order perspective The author examines whether policymaking and trends point to a fair allocation of global common resources that is effective in protecting the environment and the pursuit of sustainable development The author looks at the cost effectiveness of international environmental law and applies theories of national environmental law to international environmental problems Chapters include analysis on areas such as marine pollution air pollution fisheries management transboundary water resources biodiversity hazardous and radioactive waste management state responsibility and liability FinTech, Artificial Intelligence and the Law Alison Lui, Nicholas Ryder, 2021-07-29 This collection critically explores the use of financial technology FinTech and artificial intelligence AI in the financial sector and discusses effective regulation and the prevention
