Biology of Composts Mukesh K. Meghvansi, Ajit Varma, 2020-04-09 This book highlights the latest findings on fundamental aspects of composting the interaction of various microorganisms and the underlying mechanisms In addition to addressing modern tools and techniques used for composting research it provides an overview of potential composting applications in both agriculture and environmental reclamation Composting is the process of organic waste decomposition mediated by microorganisms The end product is called compost and can be used as a supplement to improve soil fertility As the municipal waste generated in most developing countries contains a substantial amount of organic matter suitable for composting this technology offers a win win opportunity for stakeholders in terms of disposing of organic waste and providing organic fertilizers for agriculture In addition using compost reduces the dependency on harmful chemical fertilizers and represents a sustainable and environmentally friendly alternative

Information, Knowledge, and Technology for Teaching and Research in Africa Dennis Ocholla, Omwoyo Bosire Onyancha, Aderonke Olaitan Adesina, 2024-08-27 This book focuses on information seeking and the knowledge economy for teaching and research in Africa The book first explores the evolution and current state of information seeking behavior research demonstrating its importance in informing practice policy and design of information systems Despite the informal sector's substantial contributions to the national economy in Uganda there is a lack of studies delving into its information needs as well as an information gap in government NGOs and other stakeholders The book proposes that an appropriate information behavior model for information poor communities such as informal entrepreneurs must be grounded on oral traditions and indigenous knowledge and should be sensitive to poverty infrastructure and illiteracy The negative impact of the lack of financial literacy skills for women entrepreneurs is investigated and solutions for this problem are suggested including regular assessments of women entrepreneurs financial literacy skills and the introduction of training courses The role of academic libraries in universities library services for students with disabilities and accessibility of library services to students with disabilities is discussed and theoretical models for enhancing service in academic libraries are presented The book highlights the specific challenges and opportunities related to information literacy for secondary schools and concludes by examining the rapid changes in library and information science research in South Africa Culture, philosophies and reforms in public administration for the globalizing world Edwin O.C. Ijeoma,Ogochukwu I. Nzewi,2018-12-31 The aim of this scholarly collected work is to contribute to the scientific discourse on public administration in a globalised environment The book reflects on governance challenges in South Africa and in Africa with its point of departure being the master narratives the so called grand debates such as New Public Management and specifically the role of technology It also reflects on the so called middle range discourses concerning organisational level issues in government e g leadership and work procedures and explores new solutions to old governance challenges like corruption and service delivery The uniqueness of this collected work lies in its ability to reflect on existing philosophies and practices in an innovative way Through its multidisciplinary lens the book opens up a new vision for the future of public administration in the South African context and on the African continent not neglecting the current local regional and global environment Until recently globalisation was considered an entrenched world order but international political events during the course of the past few years have resulted in one of the biggest challenges to its endurance in recent history This includes developments such as the successful referendum in Britain to exit the European Union highlighting the growth of a severe nationalist and protectionist agenda that may be a signal of the unravelling of the current globalism world order These developments inspire deeper interrogation of the challenges to effective public administration globally and the ripple effects in South Africa and Africa as a whole Pointedly it is evident that ensuring the voice of citizens in policy decision making remains a critical governance challenge On the policy front there are perennial challenges of land reform service delivery and poverty while on the governance front corruption has metastasised with a growing culture of impunity and lack of accountability in leadership In the midst of growing corruption and more than 20 years into democracy South Africa s income inequality remains one of the highest in the world This setting constitutes the context of the research outcome published in this scholarly work Annual Report National Research Foundation (South Africa),2016 The 4IR and the Humanities in South Africa Bhaso Ndzendze ,Asheel Singh ,Suzall Timm ,2024-05-28 The world is at a crossroads because of industrial change compounded by a global pandemic Humanities and social science education is grappling with the meaning of this change to the effect that there have been some anxieties and misguided perceptions about the irrelevance of the humanities in this emerging new world With the emergence of new technologies this book highlights the indispensable centrality of humanity and the humanities going forward The book will provide a reference point for new and innovative approaches to the humanities in the 4IR in South Africa and Africa Its diverse content means that it will be useful across the humanities and social science spectrum Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandebussche, 2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges Enhancing Food Production System Resilience for Food Security

Facing a Changing Environment Liming Ye, Ping Zhu, 2023-11-28 As the dominant source of the human food supply the global land system underlies the foundation of the livelihood and wellbeing of humanity on Earth On the one hand the growth rate in the land system's productive capacity of food has played a key role in global food provision Technological breakthroughs in wheat and rice production during the past few decades for instance have greatly contributed to the maintenance of this growth rate in many parts of the world On the other hand however the terrestrial food production system is facing increasing challenges from environmental stressors ranging from climate change air pollution to land degradation Whether and how the global land system will support the food security of more than 10 billion people in the 21st century while minimizing its environmental footprint remains an open question to debate It is inevitable that the global food production system has to be shifted from focusing on production expansion to land system resilience so that the dual goals of sustainable production and environmental friendliness can be simultaneously achieved Beneficial Microbes for Sustainable Agriculture and Environmental Management Jeyabalan Sangeetha, Devarajan Thangadurai, Saher Islam, 2020-03-27 Microbes are the most abundant organisms in the biosphere and regulate many critical elemental and biogeochemical phenomena Because microbes are the key players in the carbon cycle and in related biological reactions microbial ecology is a vital research area for understanding the contribution of the biosphere in global warming and the response of the natural environment to climate variations The beneficial uses of microbes have enabled constructive and cost effective responses that have not been possible through physical or chemical methods This new volume reviews the multifaceted interactions among microbes ecosystems and their pivotal role in maintaining a more balanced environment in order to help facilitate living organisms coexisting with the natural environment With extensive references tables and illustrations this book provides valuable information on microbial utilization for environmental sustainability and provides fascinating insights into microbial diversity Key features include Looks at enhancing plant production through growth promoting arbuscular mycorrhizae endophytic bacteria and microbiome networks Considers microbial degradation and environmental management of e wastes and azo dyes Explores soil plant microbe interactions in metal contaminated soils Examines radiation resistant thermophiles for engineered bioremediation Describes potential indigenous effective microbes for wastewater treatment processes Presents research on earthworms and microbes for organic farming The Politics of Knowledge in the Biomedical Sciences Jonathan Jansen, Jess Auerbach, 2023-11-06 In the wake of the decolonization movement in South Africa and around the world this edited work presents fresh evidence and advances new arguments on the politics and economics of colonial biomedical knowledge in South Africa and other parts of the African continent Covering a richly diverse set of fields including human genetics obstetrics occupational therapy medical photography and the vaccine sciences the book demonstrates the troubled histories and the enduring effects of imperial knowledge decades since the end of colonial rule and apartheid This is a valuable text on the politics of the biomedical sciences written from the perspective of the African continent and at the same time it revisits knowledge power relationships between the majority global South and minority global north words in a historical perspective and in their contemporary expression in the disciplines The immediate benefit is a reference resource for medical science researchers and a teaching text for senior undergraduate and postgraduate students The book is further composed as an accessible readable and interesting text on politics and medicine in Africa for the discerning lay reader Rethinking Securities in an Emergent Technoscientific New World Order Mawere, Munyaradzi, Nhemachena, Artwell, 2018-03-13 The emergent technoscientific New World Order is being legitimised through discourses on openness and inclusivity The paradox is that openness implies vulnerability and insecurities particularly where closure would offer shelter While some actors including NGOs preach openness of African societies Africans clamour for protection restitution and restoration Africans struggle for ownership and access to housing for national cultural religious economic and social belonging that would offer them the necessary security and protection including protection from the global vicissitudes and matrices of power In the presence of these struggles to presuppose openness would be to celebrate vulnerability and insecurities This book examines ways in which emergent technologies expose Africans and more generally peoples of the global south to political economic social cultural and religious shocks occasioned by the colonality of the global matrices of power It notes that there is the use by global elites of technologies to incite postmodern revolutions designed to compound the vicissitudes and imponderables in the already unsettled lives of people north and south Particularly targeted by these technologies are African and other governments that do not cooperate in the fulfilment of the interests of the hegemonic global elites The book is handy to students and practitioners in security studies African studies development studies global studies policy studies and political science Contemporary High Performance Computing Jeffrey S. Vetter, 2019-05-08 Contemporary High Performance Computing From Petascale toward Exascale Volume 3 focuses on the ecosystems surrounding the world's leading centers for high performance computing HPC

It covers many of the important factors involved in each ecosystem computer architectures software applications facilities and sponsors This third volume will be a continuation of the two previous volumes and will include other HPC ecosystems using the same chapter outline description of a flagship system major application workloads facilities and sponsors Features Describes many prominent international systems in HPC from 2015 through 2017 including each system s hardware and software architecture Covers facilities for each system including power and cooling Presents application workloads for each site Discusses historic and projected trends in technology and applications Includes contributions from leading experts Designed for researchers and students in high performance computing computational science and related areas this book provides a valuable guide to the state of the art research trends and resources in the world of HPC Higher education for public good Noluthando S. Matsiliza,2023-03-01 This book focuses on the knowledge area of higher education governance organisational dynamics leadership and decolonisation We have observed that governance discourse has been excluded in debates that concern the public good The construct of public good seeks to support higher education that does not support a capitalist view of profit making arguably to respond to societal demands and needs such as developmental efforts through academic functions Higher Education focuses on interconnected multi disciplinary constructs intending to provide services for the public good The issue of public good is an interesting construct that puts universities on the spot since they are expected to be responsive to environmental changes and stakeholder needs through the functioning of accountable governance structures These governance structures are compelled to comply with policy demands within external and internal environmental factors This experience has exposed universities to systematic challenges that are local regional and global and which forces them to adapt while serving stakeholders and society This book will also interrogate the governance of South African public universities in the post decolonisation era and new demands from stakeholders

Education for Decoloniality and Decolonisation in Africa Chikumbutso Herbert Manthalu,Yusef Waghid,2019-04-26 This book focuses on understandings of higher education in relation to notions of decoloniality and decolonization in southern Africa The volume draws on a range of case studies in multiple politico cultural contexts on the African continent and examines some of the challenges to be overcome in order to achieve education for decolonization and decoloniality Acknowledging that patterns of exclusion inequality and injustice are still prevalent in the African higher education landscape the editors and contributors proffer bold attempts at democratizing education and examine how to cultivate just equal and diverse pedagogical relations Featuring case studies from South Africa Zambia Malawi and Zimbabwe the authors and editors examine how higher education can be further democratized and transformed along the lines of equality liberty and recognition of diversity This hopeful and bold collection will be of interest to scholars of decoloniality and decolonization in higher education as well as higher education in southern Africa more specifically Perspectives on Multigrade

Teaching Linley Cornish,Matshidiso Joyce Taole,2021-10-25 This book contains the results of research projects carried out in relation to multigrade teaching in Australia and South Africa Research in multigrade contexts is not commonly reported and rarely in book form The research results have implications for multigrade teachers government education personnel and university teacher educators The book also contains chapters with practical advice for multigrade teachers including examples of multigrade teaching used in an Australian seven grade class kindergarten to grade 6 Other chapters contain suggestions for practical strategies a multigrade teacher can use to reduce the workload involved in planning for multiple grades Very little is published in the area of multigrade teaching yet the number of multigrade schools worldwide is huge Developed countries still have a significant proportion of multigrade schools commonly one fifth to one third of all primary schools or classes Despite decades of centralisation of schools and expansion of transport networks the number of these schools remains high mostly in rural areas Developing countries established multigrade schools in rural areas in order to achieve the UN Millennium Development Goal of Universal Primary Education Yet specific training to teach a multigrade class remains virtually non existent in initial teacher education programs worldwide The value of this book is thus to report specific research carried out in multigrade contexts but also to provide practical help for multigrade teachers This help is needed as the teachers strive to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goal of a quality education through helping their students develop the skills and behaviours required for 21st century learning

Perspectives on the Legislature and the Prospects of Accountability in Nigeria and South Africa Omololu Fagbadebo, Fayth Ruffin, 2018-08-03 This book examines the problem of accountability in two African political systems South Africa and Nigeria Despite the principle of separation of powers and the doctrine of checks and balances among the institutions of governance a burgeoning governance crisis stifles the potential of accountability and good governance Legislative oversight in the two countries remains largely ineffective while citizens are left to face the consequences of the mismanagement of public resources by political elites This book critically assesses how the legislative institutions in South Africa and Nigeria have been unable to harness the requisite constitutional powers to ensure accountability in government and explores the feasibility of their effectiveness The book begins with a comparative analysis of the principles tradition and powers associated with legislative capability in South Africa and Nigeria The chapters explore constitutional provisions and analyze the capacity of each legislature to function within its respective political environment The book also examines the process and challenges associated with the various measures and mechanisms available for legislatures to ensure accountability in the two countries Researchers scholars and students of African politics will find this book useful in their understanding of the problems associated with the simmering governance crisis in South Africa and Nigeria
