Tenreiro Machado,2018-10-09 Printed Edition of the Special Issue Published in Entropy The Urban Ecologies of Divided Cities Amira Osman,John Nagle,Sabyasachi Tripathi,2023-06-12 The book discusses how division affect the fabric of cities and people s sense of identity and agency and are reflected in physical features architecture and urban planning The question of divided cities represents a complex and multistranded urban Ecology at once both social and spatial it cannot be limited to a single science or discipline such as social or spatial fields This suggests integrated and cross disciplinary understandings as well as integrated or parallel approaches and solutions Urban ecologies of division manifest in multiple forms One of their most palpable expressions is conflict with parallels around the world and often with correlations in the spatial fabric Violence in such contexts is often a surface expression of deeper socio economic or ideological differences Whether as a result of intervention by authority or by dissent between groups a divided city inevitably becomes a place of conflict in various forms and intensity eroding the joy of living and sense of collective belonging to the detriment of all In effect it erodes the collective advantage of being part of a more unified society A city exists in collections of social structures which mutually form a society A divided city implies divided social structures and in consequence a divided society The papers compiled in this book present many case studies of divided cities discussing the different causes of divisions and their effects on societies Some of the causes can be linked to conflicts wars colonialism or legislative political systems In response to the serious challenges resulting from these divisions the book aims to provide opportunities for new approaches and possibilities for new interventions and solutions making it significant to urban planners architects and policymakers

Evolving Public Space in South Africa Karina Landman,2018-11-09 Evolving Public Space in South Africa discusses the transformation of public space highlighted in the country Drawing on examples from major cities the author demonstrates that these spaces are not only becoming wasted space but are also adapting and evolving to accommodate new users and uses in various parts of the city This process of evolution tends to challenge the more traditional visions and general global views of declining public space in cities and argues that it rather resembles the resilience of these spaces and the potential for regeneration through continuously emerging and mutating forms functions and meanings Including over 20 black and white images this book would be beneficial to academics and students of urban planning and design and those interested in the regeneration of cities

Creating Systems of Innovation in Africa Mammo Muchie, Angathevar Baskaran, 2013-01-29 The most popularised concept in the economics of innovation literature has been the national system of innovation NSI It was in the late 1980s that the concept that Frederik List coined as the National Political Economy of Production took off again with different thinkers writing about the peculiarities and distinctions of the Japanese American British German East Asian Tigers and other varieties of system construction Freeman defines National System of Innovation as the network of institutions in the public and private sectors whose activities and interactions initiate import modify and diff use new technologies Richard Nelson defines it as a set of institutions whose interactions determine the innovative performance of national firms Lundvall defines the system of innovation as the elements and relationships which interact in the production diffusion and use of new and economically useful knowledge and are either located within or rooted inside the borders of a nation state The normative assumption is that those nations that succeeded in building economic strength relied on the science engineering technology and innovation capability that made them to achieve an innovation advantage to put them ahead in the world acquiring national or regional economic leadership as the case may be depending on what level of analyses is selected to look at particular failure success or progress they made In this volume we have a glimpse of how in different African economies from Ghana Uganda Kenya South Africa and Nigeria specific cases have been taken to explore how systems of innovation is evolving
