A Startup Ecosystem Analysis of Hungary, Germany and the US Christoph Kotsch, 2017-07-25 As more and more startup companies are founded every year worldwide building up one's own business does not get easier Since 9 out of 10 startups fail future entrepreneurs are well advised to take a look at potential reasons for failure and success Learning from others' mistakes and studying success stories can improve their own performance and help to avoid critical errors The academic paper at hand will provide valuable insights for entrepreneurs It not only states the most important terms concerning startups but also lists the most important factors for a startup company's success according to literature review. Delineating both internal and external factors, this thesis not only delivers a synoptic view of potential challenges inside a startup as well as in its ecosystem but also juxtaposes these influences in opposition. The second part of this paper analyzes a series of interviews with twelve startup founders from three different regions: the province of North Rhine Westphalia in Germany, Budapest in Hungary, and the state of California in the US. Their views and experiences will be summarized and put into the context of their respective startup ecosystem.

Accelerators Mike Wright, 2018 Accelerators are a rapidly growing new form of organization that aim to stimulate entrepreneurship through intensive limited period educational programs including mentoring and networking for the cohort of start-up participants selected for each program to improve their ability to attract investment at the end of the program. Drawing on novel evidence from across the world, this is the first book to provide rigorous analysis of the nature and effectiveness of accelerators that will be invaluable for researchers, policymakers, and entrepreneurs.

Regulation A+ Paul Getty, Dinesh Gupta, Robert R. Kaplan, 2015-11-27 Discover how to raise money under new provisions in the recently enacted JOBS Act. Regulation A: How the JOBS Act Creates Opportunities for Entrepreneurs and Investors will guide and advise executives of emerging growth companies, entrepreneurs, financial advisers, venture capitalists, investment bankers, securities lawyers, finance, and MBA students and others on how to raise up to 50 million a year through streamlined regulations. Signed by President Obama on April 5, 2012, Title IV of the JOBS Act amends the 1930s era Regulation A, making it far easier for businesses to raise growth capital through public offerings. It is in effect a new type of IPO but with much less regulation and cost. Regulation A: How the JOBS Act Creates Opportunities for Entrepreneurs and Investors spells out new processes that can and will have a dramatic impact on how companies obtain growth capital to create new jobs and bolster returns for investors. Some financial gurus believe that the new law, dubbed Regulation A, due to the enhancements will usher in a revolutionary period of growth and innovation comparable to our largest past economic expansions. To date, much of the commentary on the JOBS Act has focused on Title III, which allows broader use of crowdfunding to raise up to 1 million per year. However, many entrepreneurs and economists believe that new changes to Regulation A will have a much greater impact on innovation and job creation. The best part: Regulation A lifts many constraints on soliciting funds and trading new stock issues. Among other things, readers of this book will learn how to take advantage of these provisions. Regulation A permits companies to raise up to 50 million, a tenfold increase over the old limit of 5 million, and much more than the crowdfunding provisions of the JOBS Act. 1 million. Regulation A allows companies to market IPOs to more people than just accredited investors and makes it easier to get the word out on offerings. Regulation A allows certain companies to avoid the SEC periodic reporting regimen: Form 10-K, Form 10-Q, Form 8-K, and proxy statements, provided that the number of shareholders is kept below revised thresholds. Regulation A exempts certain companies from many onerous and costly compliance requirements, including Sarbanes Oxley. In short, Regulation A greatly simplifies the capital raising process making it easier to grow companies create jobs and reward investors Start-Up Creation F. Pacheco-Torgal, Erik Stavnsager Rasmussen, Claes G. Open Innovation Dynamics Jinhyo Joseph Yun, 2022-11-04 This book expands the concept of open innovation from a static strategic idea to a dynamic principle. It details various underexplored aspects of this concept including the culture for necessary open innovation dynamics, the difference between James Watt and Steve Jobs, and collective intelligence as a new category of open innovation. It specifically considers open innovation within the context of micro and macro dynamics of economics.

Data Quality in Southeast Asia Manuel Stagars, 2016-06-16 This book explores the reliability of official statistical data in the ASEAN, the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, and the benefits of a better vocabulary to discuss the quality of publicly available data to address the needs of all users. It introduces a rigorous method to disaggregate and rate data quality into principal factors containing a total of ten dimensions which serves as the basis for a discussion on the opportunities and challenges for data quality capacity building programs and data policy in Southeast Asia. Tools to standardize and monitor statistical capacity and data quality are presented as well as methods and data sources to analyse data quality. The book analyses data quality in Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, the Philippines, Thailand, Vietnam, Brunei, Laos, Cambodia, and Myanmar before concluding with thoughts on Open Data and the ASEAN Economic Community (AEC).

Open Data in Southeast Asia Manuel Stagars, 2016-06-27 This book explores the power of greater openness, accountability, and transparency in digital information and government data for the nations of Southeast Asia. The author demonstrates that although the term open data seems to be self-explanatory, it involves an evolving ecosystem of complex domains. Through empirical case studies, this book explains how governments in the ASEAN may harvest the benefits of open data to maximize their productivity, efficiency, and innovation. The book also investigates how increasing digital divides in the population, boundaries to civil society, and shortfalls in civil and political rights threaten to arrest open data in early development, which may hamper post-2015 development agendas in the region. With robust open data policies and clear roadmaps, member states of the ASEAN can harvest the promising opportunities of open data in their particular developmental, institutional, and legal settings. Governments, policy makers, entrepreneurs, and academics will gain a clearer understanding of the factors that enable open data from this timely research.
