Environmental Science and Information Application Technology David Chan, 2015-06-29 Environmental Science and Information Application Technology contains selected papers from the 2014 5th International Conference on Environmental Science and Information Application Technology ESIAT 2014 Hong Kong 7 8 November 2014 The book covers a wide variety of topics Global Environmental Change and Ecosystems Management Graphic and I Research Methods: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2015-01-31 Across a variety of disciplines data and statistics form the backbone of knowledge To ensure the reliability and validity of data appropriate measures must be taken in conducting studies and reporting findings Research Methods Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications compiles chapters on key considerations in the management development and distribution of data With its focus on both fundamental concepts and advanced topics this multi volume reference work will be a valuable addition to researchers scholars and students of science mathematics and engineering Theoretical Orientations and Practical Applications of Psychological Ownership Chantal Olckers, Llewellyn van Zyl, Leoni van der Vaart, 2017-11-27 This book shares the theoretical advancements that have been made regarding psychological ownership since the development of the construct and specifically the practical applications within multi cultural and cross cultural environments Enriched by empirical data and case studies by subject specialists in the field this book serves as a cutting edge benchmark for human resource management specialists industrial psychologists as well as students in positive organizational psychology and professionals in other fields This book follows an in depth view of the most recent research trends in psychological ownership Offering practical tools of how the psychological ownership of employees could be developed in the workplace to not only enhance the performance of organisations but to increase the commitment of employees and influence the intentions of skilled employees to remain with their organisations Governing in the Shadows Paula Cristina Roque, 2021-12-01 Reveals the Angolan state s intrusion into citizens lives in the name of security in stark contrast with governmental neglect in addressing poverty and marginalization Organise or Die? Raphaël Botiveau, 2017-12-01 The story of one of the leading trade unions in South Africa the National Union of Mineworkers and its role in the struggle against white minority rule Organise or Die Democracy and Leadership in South Africa s National Union of Mineworkers NUM is the first in depth study of one of the leading trade unions in the country Founded in 1982 the trade union played a key role in the struggle against white minority rule before turning into a central protagonist of the ruling Tripartite Alliance after apartheid Deftly navigating through workerist social movement and political terrains that shape the South African labour landscape this book sheds light on the path that led to the unprecedented 2012 Marikana massacre the dissolution of the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu federation and to fractures within the African National Congress ANC itself Working with the notions of organisational agency and strategic bureaucratisation Raphaël Botiveau shows how the founding leadership of NUM built their union's structures with a view to mirror those of the multinational mining companies NUM faced Good leadership proved key to the union's success in recruiting and uniting mineworkers and NUM became an impressive school for union and political cadres producing a number of South Africa's top post-apartheid leaders An incisive analysis of leadership styles and strategies shows how the fragile balance between an increasingly distant leadership and an increasingly militant membership gradually broke down Botiveau provides a compelling narrative of NUM's powerful history and the legacy of its leadership It will appeal to a broad readership including journalists students and social sciences scholars interested in South Africa's contemporary politics and labour history Global Africa Dorothy Hodgson, Judith Ann-Marie Byfield, 2017-08

Global Africa will complicate conventional views of Africa as a place of violence despair and victimhood a place and space that other people states and organizations act on and steal from Instead they aim to document some of the significant global connections circulations and contributions that African people ideas and goods have made in the world not just in the United States but in South Asia Latin America Europe and elsewhere They will showcase new framings of Africa but will not romanticize the conditions and circumstances in which too many people on the continent currently live The essays in this volume will amplify those voices that offer complex and insightful explanations strategies for solutions and inspiration for the future Provided by publisher The Archaeology of Southern Africa Peter Mitchell, 2024-06-06 Some of humanity's earliest ancestors lived in southern Africa and evidence from sites there has inspired key debates on human origins and the emergence of complex cognition Building on its rich rock art heritage archaeologists have developed theoretical work that continues to influence rock art studies worldwide with the relationship between archaeological and anthropological data central to understanding past hunter-gatherer pastoralist and farmer communities alike New work on pre-colonial states contests models that previously explained their emergence via external trade while the transformations wrought by European colonialism are being rewritten to emphasise Indigenous agency feeding into efforts to decolonise the discipline itself Inhabited by humans longer than almost anywhere else and with an unusually varied complex past southern Africa thus has much to contribute to archaeology worldwide In this revised and updated edition Peter Mitchell provides a comprehensive and extensively illustrated synthesis of its archaeology over more than three million years A

Dictionary of World History Thomas Edmund Farnsworth Wright, Edmund Wright, 2015 As well as over 4000 clear and concise entries this dictionary also contains biographies of key figures in world history Other useful features include subject entries on religious and political movements maps and full international coverage Between Time and Space Sulevi Riukulehto, 2015-05-13 In new regional history national states are not seen to play a special role Regions are understood as evolutionary processes in which time and space history and geography are connected in research questions To illustrate the entanglement of time and space in various forms and ages this volume explores regional history from around the globe The editor's review of the various works written under the heading of regional history serves as an introduction to this theme

This volume shows how historical events and changes have influenced the reproduction of regions in Czechia it will also highlight how regional identities were manifested in a cultural form in romantic operas of post Napoleonic Europe The historically rich West Wits Line gold mining region in the West Rand of South Africa is also examined within a regional history framework with the broad theme of ecohealth and well being Through case studies the volume also explores the history of governance and planning in New Zealand s largest city region Auckland as well as the recent economic history of the State of Mato Grosso in Brazil Finally it also brings the idea of regional history to the most personal level of historical consciousness by examining the experiential shaping of home in the broader meaning of Heimat as a question of belonging somewhere both in time and in space

Farmer's Weekly ,1923 South Africa Yearbook ,2009 Soil Degradation and Restoration in Africa Rattan Lal,B. A. Stewart,2019-07-09 Soil degradation is a widespread problem in Africa resulting in decreased agricultural productivity while demand for food continues to increase Degradation is caused by accelerated erosion acidification contamination depletion of soil organic matter and plant nutrients and salinization The major cause of soil degradation in Africa is uncontrolled and excessive grazing in the savanna regions followed by deforestation and the use of inappropriate and extractive farming practices Perpetual neglect of the health of soils in Africa can exacerbate the already serious problems of food and nutritional insecurity and environmental degradation Food and nutritional security of the growing population of Africa can only be achieved if degraded soils are restored and soils of agroecosystems are managed prudently and sustainably Ignoring soils and taking the fragile finite and precious soil resources for granted is the principal cause of poverty hunger and environmental degradation The downward spiral must be reversed through soil restoration measures based on translating science into action This book describes the soils of Africa processes of soil degradation extent and severity of soil degradation and the impacts of degradation processes on food and nutritional security Features Explores the extent and severity of soil degradation in Africa Analyzes the cause effect relationship between anthropogenic activities and soil degradation Reviews processes of soil degradation in Africa including erosion salinization nutrient depletion and decline of soil organic matter Addresses the effect of climate change on soil degradation in Africa Explains how soil degradation causes food and nutritional insecurity Part of the Advances in Soil Sciences series this volume is specifically devoted to the processes and factors that cause soil degradation and the challenges and potential for remediation and restoration of soil health in Africa

Rivers and Society Malcolm Cooper,Abhik Chakraborty,Shamik Chakraborty,2017-11-22 Rivers and their watersheds constitute some of the most dynamic and complex landscapes Rivers have sustained human communities and human societies have utilized and altered river flows in a number of ways for millennia However the level of human impact on rivers and on watershed environments has become acute during the last hundred years or so This book brings together empirical research and theoretical perspectives on the changing conditions of a range of river basin environments in the contemporary world including the history and culture of local societies living in these river basins It provides theoretical insights on the patterns and nature of the interaction between rivers and their use by human communities The chapters are written from a variety of positions including environmental science hydrology human ecology urban studies water management historical geography cultural anthropology and tourism studies The case studies span different geographical regions providing valuable insight on the multifaceted interactions between rivers and our societies and on the changing riverscapes in different parts of the world Specific detailed examples are included from Australia Brazil France India Iran Japan the Netherlands New Zealand South Africa UK and USA Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
