“STUDENT APPLICATION FORM” aims at developing student application form where we can easily store the details of a new student and retrieve the details of student thereby. When a student comes, we can enter the details of the student in the student application form and can easily update the details of the student when required. In this assignment, an additional facility is given where we can delete the details of a student when a need arises. The assignment is very useful and proper validation is given for each field and hopes that the computerization of the Student Application Form will not only improves the efficiency but will also reduce human stress thereby indirectly improving human recourses.

Creole Composition Vivette Milson-Whyte, Raymond Oenbring, 2019-08-13 Creole Composition is a collection featuring essays by scholars and teachers researchers working with students in from the Anglophone Caribbean Arising from a need to define what writing instruction in the Caribbean means Creole Composition expands the existing body of research literature about the teaching of writing at the postsecondary level in the Caribbean region To this end it speaks to critical disciplinary conversations of rhetoric and composition and academic literacies while addressing specific issues with teaching academic writing to Anglophone Caribbean students It features chapters addressing language approaches to teaching assessing writing administration and research in postsecondary education as well as professionalization of writing instructors in the region Some chapters reflect traditional Caribbean attitudes to postsecondary writing instruction other chapters seek to reform these traditional practices Some chapters interventions emerge from discussions in writing studies while other chapters reflect their authors primary training in other fields such as applied linguistics education and literary studies Additionally the chapters use a variety of styles and methods ranging from highly personal reflective essays to theoretical pieces and empirical studies following IMRaD format Creole Composition the first of its kind in the region provides much needed knowledge to the community of teacher researchers in the Anglophone Caribbean and elsewhere in the fields of rhetoric and composition writing studies and academic literacies In suggesting frameworks around which to build and further institutionalize and professionalize writing studies in the region the collection advances the broader field of writing studies beyond national boundaries Contributors include Tyrone Ali Annife Campbell Tresecka Campbell Dawes Valerie Combie Jacob Dyer Spiegel Brianne Jaquette Carmeneta Jones Clover Jones McKenzie Beverley Josephs Christine E Kozikowski Vivette Milson Whyte Kendra L Mitchell Raymond Oenbring Heather M Robinson Daidrah Smith and Michelle Stewart McKoy The Mental Health of Medical Students Andrew Molodynski, Sarah Marie Farrell, Dinesh Bhugra, 2024 Recent research has found high levels of stress and burnout amongst medical students leading to students dropping out or leaving the profession early This book explores burnout in medical students from across the globe and provides ideas for a model of care to help educators and individuals take steps towards better student wellbeing Disrupting Leadership in Entrepreneurial Universities Jill Blackmore, 2022-10-20 What is the future of the contemporary university and for those who lead them Considering leadership in the broadest sense including academic leadership teaching and research as well as leadership practices of those in formal management positions Jill Blackmore outlines how multiple pressures on universities have produced leadership practices in management and research which are more corporate than collegial and which discourage many academics from aspiring to leadership She uses a range of theoretical tools informed by critical and feminist organisational studies to unpack higher education and how it is being transformed in ways that undermine its core work of teaching and research Drawing from three Australian university case studies this book uses leadership as a lens through which to investigate the effects of restructuring of the higher education sector which have impacted differently on academic identities and careers Globalised re/gendering of the academy and leadership Jill Blackmore, Marita Sánchez-Moreno, Naarah Sawers, 2016-10-18 The significance of Higher Education to national knowledge based economies has made the sector the object of government policies international monitoring and corporatization This radical global restructuring of higher education is gendered in its processes practices and effects Exploring how the re organisation of the sector has redefined academic management and professional roles and identities this book considers the different impacts of structural change for men and women working at diverse levels of the academy Drawing from empirical studies undertaken in Europe North America Asia and Australasia the contributions offer a range of theoretical and methodological perspectives including large scale comparative data and case studies They inform what is a key policy issue in the 21st century the re positioning of women in the academy and leadership Despite a range of institutional equity strategies in which women learnt the rules of the game this book shows that structural and cultural barriers often conceptualised through metaphors such as sticky floors glass ceilings chilly climates or dead end pipelines have not disappeared as might be expected as the academy becomes numerically feminized Each chapter provides an insight into how historical legacies cultural contexts geographic locations modes of regional and institutional governance and national policies are mediated and vernacularized through practice by localized gender regimes and orders This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education Comprehensive Dissertation Index , 1984 Pursuing Social Justice Agendas in Caribbean Higher Education Talia R. Esnard, 2024-09-05 This book offers a treatment of social justice and higher education within small island developing states like the Caribbean This is a timely exploration of some of the global local structure actor policy practice debates that connect directly to the promise and the challenges of pursuing social justice agendas within and beyond Caribbean institutions of higher education In this book the key points of examination are the i changing patterns within the global higher education landscape emerging mandates for university systems ii the perspectives and challenges for diverse student and staff populations and iii the ways in which these collectively impact social justice agendas within institutions of higher education The contextualization and politicization of these issues within the broader discourse of small island developing states deepens the understanding of the prospects and challenges of addressing social injustices within the contemporary landscape but with some re engagement of existing conceptions and theorizations related to inclusivity diversity equity ontology coloniality postcolonial and critical race theory to inform how actors within these institutions can strategically respond It will be vital reading for scholars and educational researchers with interests in higher education social justice and small island developing states SIDS Mapping Research and Innovation in Jamaica UNESCO, 2025-01-09 Integrating Intellectual Property into Innovation Policy Formulation in Jamaica World Intellectual Property Organization, 2016-02-19 Part of a series of WIPO produced country reports reviewing IP in national innovation systems Each
