Marginalities and Mobilities among India's Muslims Tanweer Fazal, Divya Vaid, Surinder S. Jodhka, 2023-07-19 This book studies how marginality impacts the everyday lives of Indian Muslims. It challenges the prevailing myths and stereotypes through which Indian Muslims have come to be seen in the popular imagination. The volume engages with questions of citizenship, collective violence, and issues of civil and criminal jurisprudence. It explores the linkages between development, marginality, and citizenship, the three critical issues for modern democracies today. Going beyond the singular narrative of a community on a continuous slide, the chapters in this volume present diversities of the Muslim experience of exclusion and participation. It discusses themes such as violence and marginality among minorities, Indian Muslims, and the ghettoized economy, employment aspirations of low income Muslim men, intergenerational social mobility of Muslims, the nature of the middle class, and the question of Islam, development, and globalization to showcase the living conditions of Muslims in India. Part of the Religion and Citizenship series, this timely volume will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of political studies, sociology, political sociology, minority studies, public policy, religion, citizenship studies, diversity and inclusion studies, and social anthropology.

Vision 2025 Amir Ullah Khan, Abdul Azim Akhtar, 2018 Muslim Struggle for National Renaissance (1930 Onwards) Sukhbir Choudhary, 1996 The book deals with several important issues like Muslim personal law and other controversies, position of Muslim women, caste in Muslims, and other minorities. In fact, entire gamut of Muslim personal laws covering all aspects of marriage, divorce, and inheritance need be looked into. An utter educational backwardness, orthodoxy, traditionalism, communalism, economic backwardness, British administrative apathy, and selfishness of Maulvis and Maulanas precluded the question of social reforms among Muslims. Particularly, Muslim women today. The Indian Muslims are standing at the crossroads, pondering whether to move forward or stay where they are. On one side are the orthodox Muslim theologians, and on the other, the forward-looking Muslim intellectuals. The book discusses from 1930 onwards the Muslim struggle for national renaissance. It also covers latest problems like Babrimsajid, uniform personal laws, women status and conditions, and so on. The book will be useful for students and teachers of modern history, specially interested in Muslim history, culture, law, and philosophy. Income Tax Manual Pakistan, 1964
