In! College Admissions and Beyond: The Experts' Proven Strategy for Success Lillian Luterma,n,Jennifer Bloom,2011-07-05 An award winning step by step guide to college admissions that helps students through every aspect of the application process and gives them a proven approach to make their application stand out from the rest Two expert college admissions consultants a mother daughter team share their step by step proven strategy for creating an application that stands out and gets you IN College admissions has never been more stressful Not only is admission ruthlessly competitive with more and more qualified students applying each year but the application process has become more confusing than ever before Most parents and students feel anxious overwhelmed and confused by the choices and trade offs In is based on the authors 20 years of experience working privately on boarding college and graduate school admissions with students from all over the world While there is no shortage of college admissions guidebooks on the market In offers students and their parents a crucial element that none of the others do a clear step by step strategy that helps students not only compete academically with other qualified applicants but also develop a defining interest in incremental attainable steps that distinguishes them from their peers and gives them an edge with college admissions officers This strategy is summed up in a four word phrase be alike but spike This means that the applicant must perform on par with other students applying to similar colleges while also working to stand out from the pack like a spike on a graph in one area Ironically it s often the well rounded student an ideal many applicants strive for who gets rejected In shows students how to create that distinction by identifying and layering their passion showcasing their interest in many different ways and circumstances Enlivened with instructive case studies as well as entertaining New Yorker cartoons this book carefully guides students through the application process showing them how to rise to the top of an applicant pool of thousands And unlike most books about getting in In s lessons do not end at college acceptance Rather than viewing college admissions as a hurdle to be quickly and painlessly cleared mother daughter team Luterma,n and Bloom present it as an opportunity for students to mature expand their horizons and discover what makes them tick Not only does this book get you in it gives teenagers the tools and confidence they ll need for future success Be Alike How to optimize your GPA standardized tests extracurricular activities and more Spike How to develop a unique area of distinction that makes you stand out from your peers How to create a winning college application including personal essays activity chart letters of recommendation and more How to choose the right college for YOU and how to prepare to attend and afford your top choice school Reading, Writing And Reasoning Fairbairn, Gavin,Winch, Christopher,2011-09-01 Written by authors experienced in the subject this text aims to encourage the development of skills in reading and evaluating texts in the use of clear and effective writing style and in cogent argument Global Milton and Visual Art Angelica Duran,Mario Murgia,2021-03-18 Global Milton and Visual Art showcases the aesthetic appropriation and reinterpretation of the works and legend of the early modern English poet and politician John Milton in diverse eras regions and media book illustrations cinema digital reworkings monuments painting sculpture shieldry and stained glass It innovates an inclusive approach to Milton's literary art especially his masterpiece Paradise Lost in global contemporary aesthetics via intertextual and interdisciplinary relations The fifteen purposefully brief chapters 103 illustrations and 64 supplemental web images reflect the great richness of the topics and the diverse experiences and expertise of the contributors Part I Panoramas provides overviews and key contexts Part II Cameos offers different perspectives of the varied afterlives of the most widely circulating illustrations of Paradise Lost those by Gustave Doré Part III Textual Close ups focuses on a rich variety of book illustrations from centuries old elite engravings to a twenty first century graphic novel and Part IV A Prospect beyond Books explores visual media outside of books that manifest powerful connections direct and indirect with Milton's works and legend

Syntagmatia Dirk Sacré, Jan Papy, 2009 This collective volume has been dedicated to two distinguished scholars of Neo Latin Studies Both the rich variety of subjects dealt with and the international diversity of the contributors reflect the wide interests of the celebrated Neo Latinists and the contemporary status of the discipline itself In addition to studies of Petrarch Lorenzo Valla Erasmus Vives Thomas More Eobanus Hessus Lipsius Tycho Brahe Jean de la Fontaine and Jacob Cats it also includes contributions on Renaissance commentaries and editions of classical authors such as Homer Seneca and Horace on Neo Latin novels epistolography and Renaissance rhetoric on Latin translations from the vernacular and invectives against Napoleon on the teaching of Latin in the nineteenth century and on the present day didactics of Neo Latin

Imperial Institutions in Ancient Rome and Early China Michael Loewe, Michael Nylan, T. Corey Brennan, 2025-05-15 Written by the eminent sinologist Michael Loewe and edited for publication by T. Corey Brennan and Michael Nylan this book gives an overview of the considerations and practices of two major world empires that together ruled half of the earth's population in the first centuries BCE ancient Rome and Han China Approaching the historical material with a comparative perspective Loewe examines the strengths and weaknesses and the successes and failures which can be seen in the organisation and government of these two political systems Though each empire was largely ignorant of the other the problems they faced were similar given the rudimentary transportation and communication facilities of the time the high mortality rates and the low levels of literacy Yet each empire ruled its people in distinctly different ways with the Roman empire governed largely by military officials in contrast to the Chinese empire whose administration was well stocked with roughly 130 000 highly trained professionals The ten chapters of this book set out to compare the ways that these two contemporary regimes similar in size and population sought to control human activities and impose a set of regulated discipline over those who were ruled Each chapter concerns the degrees and methods of forming a united people the assumptions that lay behind such attempts the reliance that imperial authority placed on religious practices legal impositions and the structure of institutions and the bases of social cohesion and economic co operation The result is an engaging study of two remarkable empires whose rise and fall are contrasted in a way that deepens our understanding of empire and civilisation Legal Education in the Global Context Christopher Gane, Robin Hui Huang, 2017-05-15 This book discusses the opportunities and challenges facing legal education in the era of globalization It identifies the knowledge and skills that law students will require in order to prepare for the practice of tomorrow and explores pedagogical shifts legal education needs to make inside and outside of the classroom With contributions from leading experts on legal education from various jurisdictions across the globe the work combines theoretical depth with practical insights Seeking to understand the changing landscape of legal education in the era of globalization the contributions find that law schools can and must adopt educational strategies that at least present students with different understandings of what studying and practicing law is meant to be about They find that law schools need to offer their students choices a vision of practice that is not driven entirely by the demands of the marketplace or the needs of major international law firms Bridging the gap between theory and practice this book makes a significant contribution to the impact of globalization on legal education and how students and law schools need to adapt for the future It will be of great interest to academics and students of comparative legal studies and legal education as well as policy makers and practitioners
