Politics and Ideology in Canada Michael Ornstein, Michael Stevenson, 2003-02-18 Winner of the Harold Adams Innis Prize Politics and Ideology in Canada examines a period of crucial historical change in Canada beginning in the mid 1970s when the crisis of the Keynesian welfare state precipitated a transition to a new political order based on the progressive downsizing of state involvement in the economy and society Using class and ideology as key concepts Michael Ornstein and Michael Stevenson examine this transition in terms of the nature of hegemony and hegemonic crisis and the conditions of political order and instability These concepts guide the interpretation of three large surveys of representative samples of the Canadian public and two unique elite surveys conducted between 1975 and 1981 The surveys cover an exceptionally broad spectrum of political issues including social programs civil and economic rights economic policy foreign ownership labour relations and language issues and sovereignty A wide ranging analysis of public and elite attitudes reveals a hegemonic order through the early 1980s built around public support for the institutions of the Canadian welfare state But there was also widespread public alienation from politics Public opinion was quite strongly linked to class but not to party politics Regional variation in political ideology on a broad range of issues was less pronounced than differences between Quebec and English Canada Much deeper ideological divisions separated the elites with a dramatic polarization between corporate and labour respondents State elites fell between these two though generally more favourable to capital The responses of the business elites reveal the ideological roots of the Mulroney years in support for cuts in social programs free trade privatization and deregulation

The Final Journey: Larry D. Horton PhD, 2017-03-30 It is the summer of 2016 and the possibility that a dark world exists in the future is a theory no one wants to become a reality As signs of impending turmoil increase and a presidential election looms in the near future two married Christian survivalists begin preparations for a fifteen hundred mile journey to what they hope is a safe place Along the way they log their experiences in a diary while strictly adhering to the mantra to always be prepared for the worst As the couple creates the four Es criteria evaluate escape evade and endure that will dictate their journey they pledge to stay true to them hinged on a strong faith that they will be led by an eternal plan After evaluating their priorities and finalizing the details the couple finally sets out in January on their quest to survive within a different world As a new president is inaugurated and the country becomes more divided than ever the Christian survivalists rely on their faith scripture and inner strength as they transform into determiners of their own future But can they overcome their challenges and endure long enough to reach their destination In this fictionalized diary two Christian survivalists vividly describe their faith filled journey to begin a new chapter within a tumultuous post election world
