Travelling, Trawling and the Utterly Appalling Ant Anderson, 2011-11-30 Deep sea fishing trawling through a cyclone man handling some of the world most deadly sharks and a strange yellow van Travelling Trawling and The Utterly Appalling is a first hand account of a travellers fast paced and unpredictable lifestyle over three incredible action packed years The author details the life threatening dangers he faced hanging from a tree vine 150m above a rock face single handed in Thailand to the more humorous account of his adventures around Asia and Australia The people the author meets on his travels are almost as obscure as some of the situations he finds himself in From sharing a cabin with a self confessed gang member to living with a cougar from Australia The book reveals the true extent of the hard work on board a Gulf of Carpentaria prawn trawler Renowned as one of the hardest fishing seasons in the world the author describes the physical and mental torment of 52 hour shifts deadly sea snakes sting rays and crazy crew members In between his long stints at sea incident and intrigue are still very much at large The book shows the complete polarization of emotions in three years on the road and the water The ecstasy and joy of travelling some of the world s most beautiful places contrasts starkly to the vigorous relentless work at sea in minus 40 degree freezers and a plus 40 degree deck All in all this is a light hearted and inspiring story of the opportunities that arise while completely out the so called comfort zone
