God Matters Ronald P. Byars, 2022-10-14 We in mainline churches are uneasy maybe even scared Why are our voices not heard After all we are the reasonable Christians the updated Christians the respectable ones who have dominated the cultural landscape since colonial times This book presumes that trying to reverse the loss of our traditional status in society is both futile and beside the point What is called for when we find ourselves in a state of crisis is to rediscover the big picture the Christian hope projected on a large screen This requires the courage to revisit the sources from which all Christian hope springs rediscovering their life giving power That power rises from the counterintuitive affirmations of the gospel represented in Christ's incarnation his healing the afflicted his raising the dead his vulnerability his cross resurrection and universal restoration Acts 3:21 Preaching and worship that embodies and lifts up the hard parts the life giving parts is neither fundamentalist nor an exercise in nostalgia It is rather evidence of confidence in the triune God who makes the unknowable known The Good Shepherd promised My sheep hear my voice I know them and they follow me John 10:27 And when they do they will

In Days to Come George Hovaness Donigian, 2017-09-01 Many people end their celebration of Christmas on December 25 but George Donigian reminds us that the celebration is only beginning Donigian offers meditations that begin with Advent and continue through Epiphany January 6 also known as the 12th night of Christmas Like the surprises of an Advent calendar the meditations touch on many subjects Some topics include An Editor A Counting Song Prudence and Chrismons Instead of putting away your nativity scenes and other Christmas decorations on December 25 celebrate all the days to come In Days to Come offers devotional meditations based on a merger of several Christmas traditions Advent calendars ancient Advent prayers known as the O Antiphons the traditional celebration of Christmas on December 25 and the Armenian Orthodox celebration of Christmas on January 6 The meditations 4 per week count down from the first week of Advent to Epiphany While each reading stands alone the meditations are rooted in a weekly theme Donigian's writing style is conversational and given his diverse interests the conversation ranges widely In Days to Come encourages us to move with the Incarnation of Jesus Christ into the new year and into mission and ministry

2014 Advent Devotional CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform, Various Clergy, 2014-11-08 Daily Devotional Based on ADVENT Readings for the Year 2014 All I Really Want Quinn G. Caldwell, 2014-10-07 Sometimes the happiest and holiest time of the year is also the hardest for people to enjoy These daily readings offer the skeptic the over committed the opportunity to make room perhaps just enough room for God to show up The weeks leading up to Christmas can spark a strong spiritual longing for more Although it may never be articulated we sense beneath those longings is a yearning for an experience of God These brief writings address the challenges and realities of the season and include a simple action ritual or meditation designed to gently steer the reader toward the deeper meaning that underlies the season Smart witty edgy and always hopeful readings by Quinn Caldwell include a brief prayer for each morning and evening during the entire Christmas season This book takes seriously the modern person's hunger for meaning and import in a season that feels increasingly frivolous Includes a calendar with one easy task to do each day Setting the Spiritual Clock Paul Louis Metzger, 2020-11-15 Various Christian traditions mark their calendars to reflect the biblical and ecclesial narrative and enhance public worship Such efforts safeguard against secularization's encroachment in the church's life Setting the Spiritual Clock serves as a guide and traveling companion for the liturgical year which circles the glorious Son as he breaks through the secular eclipse God Is Not Fair, Thank God! George E. Thompson, 2014-02-05 Life is not fair What does this reality imply about the nature of God and the destiny of human beings In this engaging book Thompson asserts that fairness is not an expectation of the faithful within the Judeo-Christian Scriptures Biblical narrative discloses the mystery of a paradoxical deity that indwells with the suffering of creation and thereby provides a mercy that exceeds the evasive goal of fairness The process of healing and redemption of this cracked creation occurs through the tears and suffering of the biblical God whose authentic power is revealed within divine vulnerability and weakness The Jesus of history truly manifested the fullness of this paradoxical God for he disclosed the richness of the divine Being by emptying himself and taking the form of a redemptive servant When the church grasps for power and control avoids compassionate and costly ministries among the poor and powerless and renders primary focus upon gaining heavenly rewards it rejects its Christ-centered mission relinquishes its paradoxical purpose and ceases to strive toward becoming an extension of the incarnation Thompson explores various paradoxical facets of each person of the Trinity and richly illustrates with stories from his vast experience as a parish theologian The Best to the Guest Polly Riddle, 2014-09-09 In 2011 with the assistance of her family and friends at St Andrew's United Methodist Church and her senior living facility Ann's Choice author Polly Riddle took a memorable journey in response to a special call from God The Best to the Guest is her entertaining and inspiring diary of that journey to Liberia Her first mission trip to Liberia West Africa in 2010 was with Compassion Corps so naturally she asked them to handle her travel and work arrangements for this trip as well As her mission approached she particularly looked forward to spending extended time with her dear Liberian friend Marinda a school principal To insure that her trip was successful Polly prepared a curriculum and gathered supplies to take with her to Liberia Her call from God was to teach adults to read and enable them to do arithmetic on a second grade level In addition she taught the youngsters Sunday school songs Bible stories and phonemic awareness using games Once in Liberia she was always ready for an adventure rarely saying no to an invitation no matter what it was Whether it was going to the market exploring the many diverse churches or visiting a bamboo field Polly was intrigued by everything she saw and everyone she met in Liberia Sharing the humor of everyday life The Best to the Guest tells Polly's entertaining and inspiring three month story in diary form Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2000 Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1982 Light Upon Light Sarah Arthur,2014 This collection contains daily and weekly literary and inspirational readings to help the reader prayerfully experience God through the liturgical seasons of winter
