Alfred de Zayas, 2021-10-01 In 2011 the UN Human Rights Council created the mandate of the Independent Expert on the Promotion of a Democratic and Equitable International Order. This book based on the reports by Dr Alfred de Zayas the first mandate holder 2012-2018 offers a brilliant and comprehensive critique of the UN system addressing the changes that must be made in order to further the emergence of a democratic and equitable international order. De Zayas proposes concrete reforms of the UN system notably the Security Council. He advocates recognition of peace as a human right slashing military budgets and establishing the right of self-determination as a conflict prevention measure. As it concerns the global economy he calls for reversing the adverse impacts of World Bank and International Monetary Fund policies rendering free trade agreements compatible with human rights abolishing tax havens and ISDS alleviating the foreign debt crisis and criminalizing war profiteers and pandemic vultures. He denounces unilateral coercive measures economic sanctions and financial blockades because they demonstrably have led to hundreds of thousands of deaths. Alfred de Zayas is a gifted human rights lawyer who alongside Jakob Moller pioneered the development of UN human rights jurisprudence. He was a dynamic Special Rapporteur as is evidenced by his Principles for a Democratic and Equitable International Order. BERTRAND RAMCHARAN Acting UN High Commissioner for Human Rights 2002-2004. The 25 Zayas Principles of International Order are a modern Magna Carta. If implemented by the international community they would help ensure peace with social justice in the 21st century. Pursuant to the UN Charter member States bear responsibility for future generations. Hence they should take concrete measures to achieve this rules-based order in international solidarity. Maria Fernanda Espinosa President of the 73rd session of the UN General Assembly 2018-19. Zayas proposes a new functional paradigm of human rights for all. His elaboration on principles and on how to apply international law uniformly is a welcome contribution to a necessary debate on the foundations of a just international order. Professor Dr Carlos Correa University of Buenos Aires Executive Director of South Centre. The Politics of Personal Law in South Asia Partha S. Ghosh, 2018-05-11. The viability of the Uniform Civil Code (UCC) has always been a bone of contention in socially and politically plural South Asia. It is entangled within the polemics of identity politics minority rights women's rights national integration uniform citizenry and of late global Islamic politics and universal human rights. While champions of each category view the issue from their own perspectives making the debate extremely complex this book takes up the challenge of providing a holistic political analysis. As most of the South Asian states today subscribe to a decentralised view and share a common history this study is an excellent comparative analysis of the applicability of the UCC. In this work India figures prominently being the most plural and vibrant democracy as well as accounting for almost three-fourths of the region's population. This provides the backdrop for an analysis of the other states in the region. This second edition will be indispensable for scholars researchers and students of law political science and South Asian Studies. Handbook of Transnational Environmental Crime Lorraine Elliott, William H. Schaedla, 2016-07-27. Crimes associated with the illegal trade in wildlife timber and fish stocks pollutants and waste have become increasingly transnational organized and serious They warrant attention because of their environmental consequences their human toll their impacts on the rule of law and good governance and their links with violence corruption and a range of crossover crimes This ground breaking multi disciplinary Handbook brings together leading scholars and practitioners to examine key sectors in transnational environmental crime and to explore its most significant conceptual operational and enforcement challenges Human Dignity and Human Security in Times of Terrorism Christophe Paulussen, Martin Scheinin, 2019-12-09 In this book it is explained that despite a current drop in the number of deaths terrorism should still be considered a serious and widespread problem However the responses to this phenomenon are often more problematic from a long term perspective With the human rights framework under serious pressure this edited volume offers a timely important and critical in depth analysis of human dignity and human security challenges in the lead up and in the responses to current forms of terrorism It aims to map how human dignity and human security can be secured and how law can constitute a source of trust at a time when Europe and the rest of the world continue to be plagued by terrorism The authors are both established names and upcoming talent in this fastchanging and exciting field of law They thoroughly analyse a variety of topical subjects in more conceptual chapters for example calling for the humanisation of the security discourse and in highly practical contributions in which for instance the Kafkaesque situation in which rendition and torture victim Abu Zubaydah still finds himself today is considered This book which focuses on but is not limited to the situation in Western countries aims to inspire not only academics through further theorisation on the sometimes elusive but important concepts of human dignity and human security but also practitioners working in the field of countering terrorism It will hopefully convince them even more that following a human rights approach will be indispensable in securing human dignity and human security for all Even or in fact especially in times of terrorism Christophe Paulussen is a Senior Researcher in the Research Department of the T M C Asser Instituut in The Hague The Netherlands and Martin Scheinin is Professor of International Law and Human Rights in the Department of Law of the European University Institute EUI in Florence Italy

International Law, Security, and Military Power Howard Hensel, Carlos Alberto Leite da Silva, 2025-09-01 This book contributes to our understanding and appreciation of the contemporary relevance of international humanitarian law and international human rights law by analyzing and assessing the foundational norms principles and provisions contained within these bodies It also explores the ways in which they inform and condition military doctrine and the planning and the execution of military operations in the land air cyber and space domains as perceived through the lens of two of the most important military establishments in the Western Hemisphere the United States and Brazilian militaries The expert contributors promote a better awareness and comparative understanding of the rapidly changing diverse traditional and non traditional challenges and demands of the 21st century This volume will be useful to both scholars whose research focuses on international law and military professionals Report of the Preparatory Commission Under Paragraph 11 of Resolution I of

The EU, World Trade Law and the Right to Food Giovanni Gruni, 2018-08-09

In recent years the European Union has developed a comprehensive strategy to conclude free trade agreements which includes not only prominent trade partners such as Canada the United States and Japan but also numerous developing countries. This book looks at the existing WTO law and at the new EU free trade agreements with the Caribbean and sub Saharan Africa through the lens of the human right to adequate food. It shows how the clauses on the import and export of food included in recent free trade agreements limit the capacity of these countries to implement food security policies and to respect their human rights obligations. This outcome appears to be at odds with international human rights law and dismissive of existing human rights references in EU founding treaties as well as in treaties between the EU and developing states. Yet the book argues against the conception in human rights literature that there is an inflexible agenda encoded in world trade law which is fundamentally conflictual with non economic interests. The book puts forward the idea that the European Union is perfectly placed to develop a narrative of globalisation considering other areas of public international law when negotiating trade agreements and argues that the EU does have the competences and influence to uphold a role of international leadership in designing a sustainable global trading system. Will the EU be ambitious enough? A timely contribution to the growing academic literature on the relation between world trade law and international human rights law this book imagines a central role for the EU in reconciling these two areas of international law A Darkly Radiant Vision Gary Dorrien, 2023-01-01
