Peters,Benjamin J. Green,Olivera Kamenarac,Petar Jandrić,Tina Besley,2025-11-03 This volume examines the evolving role of education in contemporary geopolitical landscapes where technological innovation global networks and national interests redefine its purpose Moving beyond territorial geopolitics it explores education as a critical asset in postdigital societies embedded in techno nationalist agendas and global power structures In AI genomics nanotechnology and quantum technologies education serves dual functions shaping epistemic authority and underpinning knowledge economies These developments challenge paradigms of truth consciousness and equitable knowledge access The chapters engage with discourses on digital sovereignty postdigital privilege democracy and resistance illustrating how education restructures global power relations Synthesizing perspectives from geopolitics digital transformation and postdigital educational development it underscores understanding education as a contested terrain where global equity inclusion and ethical technological governance are negotiated This book is particularly suited for researchers of postdigital education The Geopolitics of Postdigital Educational Development is complemented by Postdigital Education for Development also edited by Michael A Peters Olivera Kamenarac Ben Green Petar Jandri and Tina Besley Transformations of Higher Education in BRICS Nicholas Sun-Keung Pang,Ewelina K. Niemczyk,2025-09-30 This book aims to study the current transformations of higher education in the Brazil Russia India China and South Africa BRICS countries The conditions imposed by the Covid pandemic exposed many vulnerabilities in higher education systems but also provided valuable lessons that led to the implementation of effective changes Educational changes are being applied to programmes projects practices and policies with varying degrees of success depending on the context the needs of students and staff have changed and considerable attention has been given to the effective continuation of all academic activities through the use of technology often the nature of higher education and its role in society are being contemplated and ways of sustainable development are being debated Therefore contributors from the five BRICS member states present research findings and critical views on the recent development of higher education in their own countries providing an opportunity for a unified effort and collective input to explore the transformation and reform of higher education This book is intended for researchers policymakers and postgraduate students in higher education educational governance and comparative education Publishing from the South Sarah Nuttall,Isabel Hofmeyr,2024-11-01 In 2022 Wits University Press marked its centenary making it the oldest most established university press in sub Saharan Africa While in part modelled on scholarly publishers from the global North it has had to contend with the constraints of working under global South conditions marginalisation within the university budgetary limitations small local markets unequal access to international sales channels and the privileging of English language publishing over indigenous languages This volume explores what the Press has achieved and what its modes of reinvention might look like In widening and deepening our understanding of the Press as an example of a global South scholarly publisher this volume asks how publishing can contribute to a broader understanding of Southern knowledge production Featuring contributions from scholars publishers and authors this multi voiced volume showcases the history of the Press s publishing activities over 100 years from documenting its evolution through book covers and giving credence to some of the leading black intellectuals and writers of the early 20th century and the success of those works in spite of their authors racial marginalisation to the role of women both in publishing and in the spaces afforded to women s writing on the Press s list The collection concludes with essays by contemporary authors who detail not only their experiences of working with Southern publishers but also the politics and influences governing their decisions to choose the Press over a Northern publisher Publishing from the South shows the strategies deployed by the Press to professionalise Southern knowledge making and in the process demonstrating how university presses in the global South support the scholarly missions of their universities for both local and global audiences Pan-African Aesthetics Lena Dallywater,2025-11-17 Pan Africanism has been a global project aiming to unite people of African descent since the late nineteenth century Notions of Black and African arts and aesthetics have functioned as a bridge and brought positive identification across national ethnic or class divides even when rifts have appeared unbridgeable They were able to mediate Africanity positively both prior to and during the struggle for liberation and at times when the dream of a unified African nation died This study explores central aspects proponents and opponents of Pan African aesthetics and shows that conceptualizations of Black African and Afrocentric aesthetics form a kaleidoscope that is constantly changing Based on historical sources in depth reading and qualitative interviews the study illustrates what happened to the discussions in the postcolonial era The story of unfolds along the life paths and approaches of four intellectuals from Anglophone and Francophone Africa Their framings can tell us more about the underlying themes contestations and contradictions of emancipatory projects in the mid twentieth century and show us that the study of Pan Africanism is not yet exhausted neither is the history of the idea and the movement Anchored in Place Leslie Bank,Nico Cloete,2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system

What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges Smart Cities and Smart Spaces: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources,2018-09-07 As populations have continued to grow and expand many people have made their homes in cities around the globe With this increase in city living it is becoming vital to create intelligent urban environments that efficiently support this growth and simultaneously provide friendly and progressive environments to both businesses and citizens alike Smart Cities and Smart Spaces Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is an innovative reference source that discusses social economic and environmental issues surrounding the evolution of smart cities Highlighting a range of topics such as smart destinations urban planning and intelligent communities this multi volume book is designed for engineers architects facility managers policymakers academicians and researchers interested in expanding their knowledge on the emerging trends and topics involving smart cities Pentecostalism and Human Rights in Contemporary Zimbabwe Francis Machingura,Lovemore Togarasei,2018-06-11 This volume offers updated accounts of Pentecostalism in Zimbabwe and explores most of the dominant themes in contemporary Pentecostalism including leadership competition gender youth and prosperity In addition some chapters investigate emerging themes in studies on Pentecostalism such as disability Contributors to this volume situate Zimbabwean Pentecostalism within the larger continuum of global Pentecostalism and reflect on Pentecostal biblical interpretation the interface between Pentecostalism and African Traditional Religions the use of titles in Zimbabwean Pentecostalism and Pentecostalism s engagement with HIV AIDS The book will appeal to scholars in religious studies and theology religious education disability studies social sciences history political science development studies gender cultural studies and anthropology as well as general readers Youth Exclusion and Empowerment in the Contemporary Global Order Oláyínká Àkànle,2022-08-10 The first volume of Youth Exclusion and Empowerment in the Contemporary Global Order focuses particularly on contexts of economic educational and governance concerns that confront youths globally the complex consequences of these issues their experience of exclusion and sustainable pathways forward An Ambulance on Safari Melissa Diane Armstrong,2020-10-22 During the apartheid era thousands of South African political activists militants and refugees fled arrest by crossing into neighbouring southern African countries Although they had escaped political oppression many required medical attention during their period of exile An Ambulance on Safari describes the efforts of the African National Congress ANC to deliver emergency healthcare to South African exiles and in the same stroke to establish political legitimacy and foster anti apartheid sentiment on an international stage Banned in South Africa from 1960 to 1990 the ANC continued its operations underground in anticipation of eventual political victory styling itself as a government in waiting In 1977 it created its own Health Department which it presented as an alternative medical service and the nucleus of a post apartheid healthcare system By publicizing its own democratic policies as well as the racist practices of healthcare delivery in South Africa the Health Department won international attention for its cause and provoked widespread condemnation of the apartheid state While the global campaign was unfolding successfully the department s provision of healthcare on the ground was intermittent as patients confronted a fledgling medical system experiencing various growing pains Still the legacy of the department would be long as many medical professionals who joined the post apartheid Department of Health in South Africa had been trained in exile during the liberation struggle With careful attention to both the international publicity campaign and on the ground medical efforts An Ambulance on Safari reveals the intricate and significant political role of the ANC s Health Department and its influence on the anti apartheid movement Africa and the Sustainable Development Goals Maano Ramutsindela,David Mickler,2019-06-13 The book draws upon the expertise and international research collaborations forged by the Worldwide Universities Network Global Africa Group to critically engage with the intersection in theory and practice of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and Africa s development agendas and needs Further it argues that and demonstrates how the SDGs should be understood as an aspirational blueprint for development with multiple meanings that are situated in dynamic and contested terrains As the SDGs have substantial implications for development policy and resourcing at both the macro and micro levels their relevance is not only context specific but should also be assessed in terms of the aspirations and needs of ordinary citizens across the continent Drawing on analyses and evidence from both the natural and social sciences the book demonstrates that progress towards the SDGs must meet demands for improving human well being under diverse andchallenging socio economic political and environmental conditions Examples include those from the mining industry public health employment and the media In closing it highlights how international collaboration in the form of research networks can enhance the production of critical knowledge on and engagement with the SDGs in Africa The Guide to COIL Virtual Exchange Jon Rubin,Sarah Guth,2023-07-03 This is the authoritative guide to implementing COIL Virtual Exchange conceived and co edited by one of the originators of this innovative approach to internationalization Jon Rubin COIL the acronym for Collaborative Online International Learning is a central modality of what has come to be known as virtual exchange Since its first iteration in 2002 it has gradually established itself as a mature pedagogy that is being increasingly implemented across the world and is validated by a growing body of research COIL Virtual Exchange at its most essential is a bi lateral online exchange involving the integration of existing courses across two or sometimes more institutions that are geographically and or culturally distinct To launch a COIL VE course the instructor of a class at a higher education institution in one location links online with a professor and his or her class in another region or country Together their students engage and develop joint projects usually over a continuous five to eight week period Compared to the limited number of students worldwide who can engage in study abroad COIL VE potentially opens up more equitable and inclusive participation in international education and intercultural experiences to all students involves them in rigorous disciplinary and interdisciplinary studies and promotes close and constructive engagement with students with different cultural perspectives While many COIL courses are launched by individual instructors based on their research connections and online outreach they are being increasingly supported and led by dedicated COIL Coordinators who facilitate virtual exchanges and provide professional development This comprehensive guide covers COIL VE pedagogy provides examples of what takes place in the COIL classroom and explores what instructors and staff need to know to facilitate and support a variety of COIL courses across the curriculum It addresses how institutional stakeholders especially those in leadership positions can develop and embed a successful COIL initiative at their institution It offers varied perspectives of COIL viewed from different institutional and cultural vantage points from research universities community and technical colleges and university systems and describes how COIL VE is developing in five different world regions presenting eleven case studies The book concludes with a guide to thirteen global organizations that support COIL and other forms of VE Additionally the book provides links to the COIL Connect for Virtual Exchange website https coilconnect org which includes an updated directory of organizations an expanding database of faculty and institutions participating in COIL and looking for partners course templates survey data and case studies This book offers faculty and administrators across the world whether formally involved in international education in service learning and community engagement or wanting to incorporate a cross cultural perspective in their disciplinary courses theoretical foundations guidance on effective collaboration and the strategic and pedagogical considerations to develop robust COIL VE courses and programs Educational Leadership in Becoming Nuraan Davids,Yusef Waghid,2016-08-25 Educational Leadership in Becoming reconsiders educational leadership in its current forms and presents a more plausible form of educational leadership to contend with the complexities currently found in universities and schools Much of the literature in vogue concerning educational leadership ranges from transactional to transformative representations of the concept in relation to educational management and policy curriculum inquiry and pedagogical action The primary aim of this book is to revisit some of the dominant understandings of educational leadership and to offer an extended view of the practice along the lines of potentiality and becoming Davids and Waghid argue that all current forms of educational leadership are insufficient to enact responsible human action particularly when it comes to addressing the combined issues of globalisation and equitable redress and transformation whether in relation to leading schools or universities The primary objective of the book is to draw on the Agambian notion of becoming in order to show that an educational leadership in becoming is better placed to not only address the myriad challenges besetting education but to also enhance the potential of leadership in action The book addresses an international audience by analysing conceptions of transformative leadership and should be read by anyone who is interested in education and educational leadership as well as the impact of neoliberal agendas on education and society It should also appeal to those interested in the philosophy of education Cold Pressed Oils Mohamed Fawzy Ramadan,2020-07-23 Cold Pressed Oils Green Technology Bioactive Compounds Functionality and Applications creates a multidisciplinary forum of discussion on recent advances in chemistry and the functionality of bioactive phytochemicals in lipids found in cold pressed oils Chapters explore different cold pressed oil focusing on cold press extraction and processing composition physicochemical characteristics organoleptic attributes nutritional quality oxidative stability food applications and functional and health promoting traits Edited by a team of experts the book brings a diversity of developments in food science to scientists chemists nutritionists and students in nutrition lipids chemistry and technology agricultural science pharmaceuticals cosmetics nutraceuticals and many other fields Thoroughly explores novel and functional applications of cold pressed oils Shows the difference between bioactive compounds in cold pressed oils and oils extracted with other traditional methods Elucidates the stability of cold pressed oils in comparison with oils extracted using other traditional methods Democracy and Education in Namibia and Beyond Amukugo, Elizabeth M.,2017-07-19 The Namibian constitution makes full provision for education as a fundamental human right and freedom Three years into independence as part of the government s educational policy the Education for All Policy was launched as a stepping stone to free quality education However inequities have become widely pronounced within the Namibian educational system Democracy and Education in Namibia and beyond debates the education democracy nexus in Namibia and the southern African context It defines and explores the meaning of democracy and related concepts It also looks at what democracy means in the context of human rights and access to education The ten chapters in this collection interrogate the strengths and limitations of education as an instrument of social change and question whether or not the Namibian educational objectives and practices do develop and help to sustain a democratic culture in Namibia The authors in the collection have drawn material from their own teaching and research experience across the fields of education and social science in Namibia and beyond and present their findings in a pedagogical framework suitable as a challenging text for tertiary students At a time when education is in crisis especially in South Africa where strident calls for free tertiary education and Africanisation of the curriculum are spreading like wildfire this book gives scholarly insight into the history and social conditions that gave rise to our current predicament Routledge Handbook of Critical Indigenous Studies Brendan Hokowhitu,Aileen Moreton-Robinson,Linda Tuhiwai-Smith,Chris Andersen,Steve Larkin,2020-12-30 The Routledge Handbook of Critical Indigenous Studies is the first comprehensive overview of the rapidly expanding field of Indigenous scholarship The book is ambitious in scope ranging across disciplines and national boundaries with particular reference to the lived conditions of Indigenous peoples in the first world The contributors are all themselves Indigenous scholars who provide critical understandings of indigeneity in relation to ontology ways of being epistemology ways of knowing and axiology ways of doing with a view to providing insights into how Indigenous peoples and communities engage and examine the worlds in which they are immersed Sections include Indigenous Sovereignty Indigeneity in the 21st Century Indigenous Epistemologies The Field of Indigenous Studies Global Indigeneity This handbook contributes to the re centring of Indigenous knowledges providing material and ideational analyses of social political and cultural institutions and critiquing and considering how Indigenous peoples situate themselves within outside and in relation to dominant discourses dominant postcolonial cultures and prevailing Western thought This book will be of interest to scholars with an interest in Indigenous peoples across Literature History Sociology Critical Geographies Philosophy Cultural Studies Postcolonial Studies Native Studies M ori Studies Hawaiian Studies Native American Studies Indigenous Studies Race Studies Queer Studies Politics Law and Feminism

The ^AOxford Handbook of Global South Youth Studies ,2021-09-23 The Oxford Handbook of Global South Youth Studies offers a contribution from Southern scholars to remake Youth Studies from its current state that universalises Northern perspectives into a truly Global Youth Studies It foregrounds Southern youth s life worlds and realigns theory with contemporary youth practices in to a more just and egalitarian epistepraxis A Bold Profession Leslie Anne Hadfield,2021-05-11 In rural South African clinics Black nurses were charged with administering life saving health care measures despite a lack of equipment and personnel often while navigating the intersections of traditional African healing practices and changing gender relations A Bold Profession is an homage to their dedication to the well being of their communities Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a Monopolised World Munyaradzi Mawere,2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africas development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies Shadow Libraries Joe Karaganis,2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan s Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan s story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief universalist in principle and unequal in practice Shadow Libraries is a study of that tension in the digital era Contributors Bal zs Bod Laura Czerniewicz Miroslaw Filiciak Mariana Fossatti Jorge Gemetto Eve Gray Evelin Heidel Joe Karaganis Lawrence Liang Pedro Mizukami Jhessica Reia Alek Tarkowski
