Preparing for the Future of HIV/AIDS in Africa Institute of Medicine, Board on Global Health, Committee on Envisioning a Strategy to Prepare for the Long-Term Burden of HIV/AIDS: African Needs and U.S. Interests, 2011-04-28 HIV AIDS is a catastrophe globally but nowhere more so than in sub Saharan Africa which in 2008 accounted for 67 percent of cases worldwide and 91 percent of new infections The Institute of Medicine recommends that the United States and African nations move toward a strategy of shared responsibility such that these nations are empowered to take ownership of their HIV AIDS problem and work to solve it University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece, 2017-07-13

This book offers a conceptual re think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities While having a specific focus on the South African context it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university Places of Privilege , 2018-07-19 Places of Privilege examines dynamics of privilege and power in the construction of place in a period of the rapid social transformation of places borders and boundaries Drawing on inter disciplinary perspectives the book examines place as a site for the making and re making of privilege while considering new meanings of community and examining spaces for cultural identity and resistance Chapters point to a range of conceptual resources that can be utilised to produce critical analyses of place making As the authors point out power and privilege shape place but these dynamics are in turn shaped by the specific place based histories and social dynamics within which they are located Contributors are Lutfiye Ali Alison M Baker Paola Bilbrough Tony Birch Jora Broerse Sally Clark Josephine Cornell Yon Hsu Lou Iaquinto Karen Jackson Shose Kessi Rebecca Lyons Chris McConville Nicole Oke Amy Quayle Alexandra Ramirez Kopano Ratele Christopher C Sonn and Ram n Spaaij Toxic Belonging? Identity and Ecology in Southern Africa Dan Wylie, 2009-03-26 Southern Africa s literatures brim with references to the natural world its landscapes and its animals Both fictional and non fictional works express ongoing debates often highly politicised concerning its various groups senses of identity and belonging in relation to the land and its denizens This often involves a pervasive tension between Western settler societies conceptions of modernity and indigenous world views each complicating the often simplistic binarisms drawn between them In this selection of papers from the 2006 Literature and Ecology Colloquium held in Grahamstown South Africa the complexities of forging imaginative and pragmatic senses of belonging in Southern Africa are explored from a variety of disciplinary perspectives philosophical historical botanical and anthropological as well as literary Their subject matter ranges widely from Bushmen testimonies to Berlin missionaries from prehistoric cave dwellers to Schopenhauer from white Batswana to lion tamers but find themselves echoing one another in intriguing and illuminating ways These are highly localised meditations on age old questions What does it mean to be human within a natural environment Why do we appear to be so damaging to the ecology that sustains us Is our presence inevitably toxic to our planetary fellow travellers How do we forge an ecologically sound sense of belonging in this post colonial post apartheid post modern era If this collection has a single most prominent question binding it together it is this What are the limits and potentialities of human compassion towards the natural world Ethnographies of Power Sharad Chari, Mark Hunter, Melanie Samson, Jennifer A Devine, Michael Ekers, Jennifer Greenburg, Bridget Kenny, Stefan Kipfer, Alex Loftus, Zachary Levenson, Ahmed Veriava, 2022-08 In our time of rampant inequality imperial capitalist plunder violence and ecocide when radical concepts from the past seem inadequate how do researchers and students of ethnographic work decide what concepts to work with or renew Gillian Hart is a key thinker in radical political economy geography development studies agrarian studies and Gramscian critique of postcolonial capitalism In Ethnographies of Power each contributor engages her work and applies it to their own field of study A major contribution of this collection is the merging of theory with praxis resulting in invaluable research tools for postgraduate students These include applying gendered labour practices among workers in South Africa reading racial capitalism through agrarian debates using relational comparison in an ethnography of schooling across Durban reworking multiple socio spatial trajectories in Guatemala s Maya Biosphere Reserve critiquing the notion of South Africa s second economy revisiting development processes and Development discourses in US military contracting reconsidering Gramsci s conjunctures geographically finding divergent articulations in Cape Town land occupations and exploring nationalism as central to revaluing recyclables at a Soweto landfill Together the chapters show how important the ongoing reworking of radical concepts is to ethnographic critiques of power Ethnographies of Power offers an invaluable toolkit for activists and scholars engaged in sharpening their critical concepts for social and environmental change towards a collective future Footprints McLean Sibanda, 2021-09-06 Footprints is a captivating story about intellectual property IP It speaks to its role in society trade industry and economy and expounds on the actual meaning of IP The book lays a solid foundation for innovators entrepreneurs businesses and nations to realise their full potential through IP policy legislation use and practices McLean Sibanda shares his personal story together with stories and testimonies of fellow travellers taking us through their journey into the field of IP He meticulously recounts South Africa s path in transforming the management of IP emanating from publicly financed research and development R D development of critical human capital and other infrastructure to ensure effective IP commercialisation and technology transfer Footprints is a timely masterpiece given IP issues in Africa s scramble for Covid 19 vaccines and implementation of the agreement establishing the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA The book provides strategies of how African countries can use IP and innovation to develop industries to ensure health security and trading of goods that can benefit from the AfCFTA Narrated through a series of significant moments Footprints demonstrates the importance of vision solid foundation collaboration champions and intentional steps for economic transformation With glimpses into how countries such as China and Korea used IP to develop their economies this book makes a compelling case for embracing IP increased R D investment relevant human capital and appropriate use of IP in the development of new products and services necessary for knowledge based and industrialised economies Footprints is a must read for any academic aspiring intellectual property scholar policy maker economist development activist entrepreneur researcher innovator professional and technology transfer specialist Intellectual property is everywhere around us and impacts our lives For entrepreneurs and businesses alike intellectual property is about value creation it is the insurance you need for when you succeed McLean Sibanda Handbook of Research on Administration, Policy, and Leadership in Higher Education Mukerji, Siran, Tripathi, Purnendu, 2016-09-27 The creation of a sustainable and accessible higher education systems is a pivotal goal in modern society Adopting strategic frameworks and innovative techniques allows institutions to achieve this objective The Handbook of Research on Administration Policy and Leadership in Higher Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on contemporary management issues in educational institutions and presents best practices to improve policies and retain effective governance Addressing the current state of higher education at an international level this book is ideally designed for academicians educational administrators researchers and professionals Indigenous Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-10-11 Global interest in indigenous studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact indigenous communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of indigenous knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving Indigenous Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of indigenous peoples from around the world as well as how contemporary issues impact these indigenous communities on a local national and global scale Highlighting a range of topics such as local narratives intergenerational cultural transfer and ethnicity and identity this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, 2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa s geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future

Region-Building in Africa Daniel H. Levine, Dawn Nagar, 2016-05-19 This landmark book is the first of its kind to assess the challenges of African region building and regional integration across all five African sub regions and more than five decades of experience considering both political and economic aspects Leading scholars and practitioners come together to analyze a range of entwined topics including the theoretical underpinnings that have informed Africa s regional integration trajectory the political economy of integration including the sources of different waves of integration in pan Africanism and the reaction to neo liberal economic pressures the complexities of integration in a context of weak states and the informal regionalization that often occurs in borderlands the increasing salience of Africa s relationships with rising extra regional economic powers including China and India and comparative lessons from non African regional blocs including the EU ASEAN and the Southern Common Market A core argument of this book running through all chapters is that region building must be recognized as a political project as much as if not more than an economic one successful region building in Africa will need to include the complex political tasks of strengthening state capacity including states capacity as developmental states that can actively engage in economic planning resolving long standing conflicts over resources and political dominance improving democratic governance and developing trans national political
