Louis A. Picard, Thomas M.
Mogale, Caitlin C. Corrigan

University Of Limpopo 2015:

University on the Border Lis Lange, Vasu Reddy, Siseko H. Kumalo, 2021-08-27 The volume explores and thinks through the process of decolonising the South African higher education system by examining MustFall. The text offers theoretical insights from a historical contemporary and multidisciplinary lens while examining the embedded meanings of the university as an institution, idea and set of practices to show the shifts and changes that were inaugurated by MustFall along with the historicities that define the university both locally and globally. The retro and prospective insights presented in the book surface the crisis of authority that places the university in a state of precarity which is framed in the book as the border. The volume proposes the concept of the border recognising its conceptual and analytical dynamism as a generative space that can facilitate new imaginaries and articulations of this social institution, the university.

ECSM2015-Proceedings of the 2nd European Conference on Social Media 2015 Dr Paula Peres, Dr Anabela Mesquita, 2015-07-06 Complete proceedings of the 2nd European Conference on Social Media Porto Portugal. Published by Academic Conferences and Publishing International Limited.

African Language Media Abiodun Salawu, 2020-11-16 This edited volume considers why the African language press is unstable and what can be done to develop quality African language journalism into a sustainable business. Providing an overview of the African language journalism landscape, this book examines the challenges of operating sustainable African language media businesses. The chapters explore the political economy and management of African language media and consider case studies of the successes and failures of African language newspapers as well as the challenges of developing quality journalism. Covering print and digital newspapers and broadcast journalism, this book will be of interest to scholars of media and journalism in Africa.

The South African State Transformed? Louis A. Picard, Thomas M. Mogale, Caitlin C. Corrigan, 2024-09-10 This book examines the nature of the 1994 political transition in South Africa and its impact on post-apartheid South Africa. Specifically, it examines the failures of liberalism within the context of the transitional process that led to the institution, if not the practice, of a non-racial state in 1994. The term liberal is an eclectic term defining a several of views political and economic. We use the term here within context but essentially define it as a commitment to open views, the willingness to consider change and to value basic human rights. The nature of institutional change in South Africa as it moved towards a democratic state would influence whether South Africa would succeed as a newly industrializing pluralist democratic country or collapse into yet another African failed state. As South Africa moves toward its fourth decade of majority rule, the view towards the future is much less promising than it was in 1994.

Reconciliation and Justice in Africa Sipho Mahokoto, Christo Thesnaar, 2025-07-31 The world is groaning beneath a seemingly endless cycle of oppression and injustice. This is particularly evident in Africa where colonization, racism and violent conflicts have left deep scars on both nations and peoples. In this collection of essays, theologians from across Africa draw from their nations' painful histories to grapple with the complex questions of reconciliation, forgiveness and healing.

Using examples of religious ethnic and tribal conflicts across the continent these essays explore reconciliation and justice in the context of liberation theology biblical studies ecclesiology and pastoral care An excellent resource for peacemakers and academics alike this book offers a powerful and contextualized vision of the gospel s power to restore justice and offer true hope to a wounded world Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu, 2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change As a result student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape Individually and through the student councils students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship Through student activism and citizenship students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education s decision making processes Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth Campus Student Activism Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives academia public private and civil society sectors It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers Family Therapy - Recent Advances in Clinical and Crisis Settings Oluwatoyin Olatundun Ilesanmi, 2023-10-25 Family Therapy Recent Advances in Clinical and Crisis Settings explores the processes and practices of family systems therapy as conducted in humanitarian situations across the globe It provides readers with a comprehensive overview of the current state of the art innovative advances in family counselling and psychotherapies for families and couples in humanitarian crises conflicts and disasters It also reviews recent advances in strengths based therapies and contemporary models such as solution focused narrative and conversational therapies for family relationships It is a useful resource for a wide range of readers including professionals clients and patients policymakers decision makers in healthcare delivery and representatives of public and private health insurance schemes Urban Agriculture and City Sustainability II S. Mambretti, J.L. Miralles i Garcia, 2020-12-07 As urban populations continue to increase it is essential to consider ways of reducing their impact in terms of the use of natural resources waste production and climate change The increasing number of people in cities requires new strategies to supply the necessary food with limited provision of land and decreasing resources This will become more challenging unless innovative solutions for growing and distributing food in urban environments are considered The scale of modern food production has created and exacerbated many vulnerabilities and the feeding of cities is now infinitely more complex As such the food system cannot be considered secure ethical or sustainable In the last few years there has been a rapid expansion in initiatives and projects exploring innovative methods and processes for sustainable food production The majority of these projects are focused on providing alternative models that shift the power back from the global food system to communities and farmers improving social cohesion health and wellbeing It is therefore not surprising that more people are looking towards urban farming initiatives as a potential solution These initiatives have demonstrated that urban agriculture has the potential to transform our living environment towards ecologically sustainable and healthy cities Urban agriculture can also contribute to energy natural resources land and water savings ecological diversity and urban management cost reductions The impact urban agriculture can have on the shape and form of our cities has never been fully addressed How cities embed these new approaches and initiatives as part of new urban developments and a city regeneration strategy is critical The 2nd International Conference on Urban Agriculture and City Sustainability addressed these challenges and the search for new solutions The presented papers which form this volume detail research works looking at how urban agriculture can contribute to achieving sustainable cities

ECCWS 2018 17th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security V2 Audun Jøsang, 2018-06-21 Research Universities in Africa Nico Cloete, Ian Bunting, 2018-11-09 From the early 2000s a new discourse emerged in Africa and the international donor community that higher education was important for development in Africa Within this zeitgeist of converging interests a range of agencies agreed that a different collaborative approach to linking higher education to development was necessary This led to the establishment of the Higher Education Research and Advocacy Network in Africa Herana to concentrate on research and advocacy about the possible role and contribution of universities to development in Africa This book is the final publication to emerge from the Herana project The project has also published more than 100 articles chapters reports manuals and datasets and many presentations have been delivered to share insights gained from the work done by Herana Given its prolific dissemination it seems reasonable to ask whether this fourth and final publication will offer the reader anything new This book is certainly different from previous publications in several respects First it is the only book to include an analysis of eight African universities based on the full 15 years of empirical data collected by the project Second previous books and reports were published mid project This book has benefited from an extended gestation period allowing the authors and contributors to reflect on the project without the distractions associated with managing and participating in a large scale project For the first time some of those who have been involved in Herana since its inception have had the opportunity to at least make an attempt to see part of the wood for the trees Different does not necessarily mean new An emphasis on the newness of the data and perspectives presented in this book is important because it shows that it is more than a historical record of a donor funded project Rather each chapter in this book brings to a lesser or greater extent something new to our understanding of universities research and development in Africa

Utilisation of South African Research on Higher Education Jan Botha ,Gabriele Vilyte,2021-10-26 The relationship between research on the one hand and policy practice on the other hand is complicated and collaboration between scholars in research on higher education RHE and institutional research IR practitioners is often lacking This book marks a collaborative effort of a diverse range of South African RHE and IR scholars and asks the overarching questions What do we know about the utilisation of South African research on higher education SARHE and its subset of research known as Institutional Research How and by whom is this research used The book begins by looking at the historical underpinnings of SARHE and delineating the shape and size of this body of research This is followed by a series of case studies on South African Higher Education institutions and governmental bodies investigating how when and by whom are research on higher education and institutional research used in the decision making of these organisations This book is the first of its kind in South Africa and sets out to lay the groundwork for further research into the use uptake and utilisation of RHE and IR in this country Information and Communication Technology for Development for Africa Fisseha Mekuria, Ethiopia Enideg Nigussie, Waltenegus Dargie, Mutafugwa Edward, Tesfa

Tegegne, 2018-07-04 This book constitutes the proceedings of the First International Conference on Information and Communication Technology for Development for Africa ICT4DA 2017 held in Bahir Dar Ethiopia in September 2017 The 31 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 72 submissions The papers address the impact of ICT in fostering economic development in Africa In detail they cover the following topics e services natural language processing intelligent systems mobile and wireless communication privacy and security Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions Why do some universities seem to be in a constant state of turmoil and dysfunction Jonathan Jansen explores the root causes of chronic instability in a sample of South African universities Through scrutiny of investigatory reports and interviews with more than 100 university managers and government officials Jansen finds that at the heart of the dysfunction in universities is an intense and sometimes deadly competition for resources especially on campuses located in impoverished communities It is not the lack of institutional resources but their concentration in a university that draws a mix of corrupt actors from local politicians and taxi operators to members of council and management into a never ending run on the material such as money for infrastructure and symbolic namely graduation certificates for sale assets of these institutions Jansen argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Jansen makes an important intervention to understanding the root causes and offers interventions to produce stabilities such as the depoliticisation of university councils and appointing academics of integrity and capacity in the management and leadership of these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly
