Social Media and Gender in Africa Shepherd Mpofu, Kealeboga Aiseng, 2024-10-08 The images of men women and individuals across the gender spectrum on African social media platforms are socially culturally and politically embedded with ideologies that continue to shape our understandings of gender Social Media and Gender in Africa Discourses on Power and Politics of Everyday Life explores gender debates expressed through social media and the political social and cultural discourses surrounding them The book addresses issues of gender based violence gender in political and economic spaces gender activism challenges faced in the LGBTQIA community and gender harassment It looks at how gender issues such as misogyny gender based violence and sexism on African social media are products of African political social and cultural conundrums It is through these platforms that sexual and gender identities are being freely expressed political expressions are made without fear or favor and political participation is achieved Organized into four thematic parts Shepherd Mpofu Kealeboga Aiseng and the contributors use case studies from countries such as Kenya South Africa Nigeria and Zimbabwe to engage in further discussions on gender on African social media Making Education Inclusive Sharon Moonsamy, Elizabeth Walton, 2015-09-18 Exclusionary pressures and practices are pervasive in education despite the clamour for more inclusive education Even as classrooms worldwide become more diverse education is unlikely to become inclusive without deliberate efforts to dismantle exclusion and enable inclusion This book is a compilation of contributions to the conversation about what these efforts might entail The conversation has its origins in the Making Education Inclusive Conference held in 2013 which brought together academics and practitioners from Southern Africa and other countries Given the expectation that teachers should play a key role in promoting inclusion it is not surprising to find significant interest in teacher education from many of the contributing authors Their concerns range from explicit teacher development for pedagogical responsiveness to learner diversity to overcoming the epistemological marginalisation that learners experience where teachers are not fully confident of their subject content and how to teach it Access to education is clearly not enough and other contributors to this book concern themselves with ways in which structures and systems could be reconstituted to enable meaningful inclusion This might mean looking at how teachers might use tiered systems of behaviour support and various metacognitive strategies how physical access can be promoted on a university campus and understanding how parents think about disability Each chapter represents a different perspective on what it might mean to resist educational exclusion in its many forms and each offers possible ways to make education more inclusive What Politics? , 2017-11-06 What Politics Youth and Political Engagement in Africa examines the diverse experiences of being young in today's Africa It offers new perspectives to the roles and positions young people take to change their life conditions both within and beyond the formal political structures and institutions The contributors represent several social science disciplines and provide well grounded qualitative analyses of young people's everyday engagements by critically examining dominant discourses of youth politics and ideology Despite focusing on Africa the book is a collective effort to better understand what it is like to be young today and what the making of tomorrow's yesterday means for them in personal and political terms Contributors are Ehaab Abdou Abebaw Yirga Adamu Henni Alava Pivi Armila Randi Rnning Balsvik Jesper Bjarnesen ra Bj rnsd ttir J n na Einarsd ttir Tilo Gr tz Nanna Jordt J rgensen Marko Kananen Sofia Laine Naydene de Lange Afifa Ltifi Ivo Mhike Claudia Mitchell Relebohile Moletsane Danai S Mupotsa Elina Oinas Henri Onodera Eija Ranta Mounir Saidani Mariko Sato Loubna H Skalli Tiina Sotkasiira Abdoulaye Sounaye Leena Suurp and Mulumebet Zenebe What Politics Youth and Political Engagement in Africa is now available in paperback for individual customers

Transforming Ethnomusicology Volume II Beverley Diamond, Salwa El-Shawan Castelo-Branco, 2021 For decades ethnomusicologists across the world have considered how to affect positive change for the communities they work with Through illuminating case studies and reflections by a diverse array of scholars and practitioners Transforming Ethnomusicology aims to both expand dialogues about social engagement within ethnomusicology and at the same time transform how we understand ethnomusicology as a discipline The second volume of Transforming Ethnomusicology takes as a point of departure the recognition that colonial and environmental damages are grounded in historical and institutional failures to respect the land and its peoples Featuring Indigenous and other perspectives from Brazil North America Australia Africa and Europe this volume critically engages with how ethnomusicologists can support marginalized communities in sustaining their musical knowledge and threatened geographies

Transforming Ethnomusicology Volume I Beverley Diamond, Salwa El-Shawan Castelo-Branco, 2021-03-09 This two volume collection transforms our understanding of the discipline of ethnomusicology by exploring how ethnomusicologists can contribute to positive social and environmental change within institutional frameworks The first volume focuses on ethical practice and collaboration and offers strategies for promoting institutional and methodological change

Genetic Afterlives Noah Tamarkin, 2020-09-11 In 1997 M E R Mathivha an elder of the black Jewish Lemba people of South Africa announced to the Lemba Cultural Association that a recent DNA study substantiated their ancestral connections to Jews Lemba people subsequently leveraged their genetic test results to seek recognition from the post apartheid government as indigenous Africans with rights to traditional leadership and land retheorizing genetic ancestry in the process In Genetic Afterlives Noah Tamarkin illustrates how Lemba people give their own meanings to the results of DNA tests and employ them to manage competing claims of Jewish ethnic and religious identity African indigeneity and South African citizenship Tamarkin turns away from genetics researchers results that defined a single story of Lemba peoples true origins and toward Lemba understandings of their own genealogy as multivalent Guided by Lemba people's negotiations of their belonging as diasporic Jews South African citizens and indigenous Africans Tamarkin considers new ways to think about belonging that can acknowledge the importance of historical and sacred ties to land without valorizing autochthony borders or other technologies of exclusion

Routledge Handbook of Food Waste Christian Reynolds, Tammara Soma, Charlotte Spring, Jordon Lazell, 2020-01-13 This comprehensive handbook represents a definitive state of the current art and science of food waste from multiple perspectives. The issue of food waste has emerged in recent years as a major global problem. Recent research has enabled greater understanding and measurement of loss and waste throughout food supply chains, shedding light on contributing factors and practical solutions. This book includes perspectives and disciplines ranging from agriculture, food science, industrial ecology, history, economics, consumer behaviour, geography, theology, planning, sociology, and environmental policy, among others. The Routledge Handbook of Food Waste addresses new and ongoing debates around systemic causes and solutions, including behaviour change, social innovation, new technologies, spirituality, redistribution, animal feed, and activism. The chapters describe and evaluate country case studies, waste management, treatment, prevention, and reduction approaches, and compares research methodologies for better understanding food wastage. This book is essential reading for the growing number of food waste scholars, practitioners, and policy makers interested in researching, theorising, debating, and solving the multifaceted phenomenon of food waste.

Handbook of Cultural Studies and Education Peter Pericles Trifonas, Susan Jagger, 2018-11-15 The Handbook of Cultural Studies in Education brings together interdisciplinary voices to ask critical questions about the meanings of diverse forms of cultural studies and the ways in which it can enrich both education scholarship and practice. Examining multiple forms, mechanisms, and actors of resistance in cultural studies, it seeks to bridge the gap between theory and practice by examining the theme of resistance in multiple fields and contested spaces from a holistic, multi-dimensional perspective, converging insights from leading scholars, practitioners, and community activists. Particular focus is paid to the practical role and impact of these converging fields in challenging, rupturing, subverting, and changing the dominant socio-economic, political, and cultural forces that work to maintain injustice and inequity in various educational contexts. With contributions from international scholars, this handbook serves as a key transdisciplinary resource for scholars and students interested in how and in what forms Cultural Studies can be applied to education.
