Celebrity Humanitarianism and North-South Relations Lisa Ann Richey, 2015-08-20 Discussion over celebrity engagement is often limited to theoretical critique or normative name calling without much grounded research into what it is that celebrities are doing the same or differently throughout the world Crucially little attention has been paid to the Global South either as a place where celebrities intervene into existing politics and social processes or as the generator of Southern celebrities engaged in do gooding This book examines what the diverse roster of celebrity humanitarians are actually doing in and across North and South contexts Celebrity humanitarianism is an effective lens for viewing the multiple and diverse relationships that constitute the links between North and South New empirical findings on celebrity humanitarianism on the ground in Thailand Malawi Bangladesh South Africa China Haiti Congo US Denmark and Australia illustrate the impact of celebrity humanitarianism in the Global South and celebrityization participation and democratization in the donor North By investigating one of the most mediatized and distant representations of humanitarianism the celebrity intervention from a perspective of contextualization the book underscores the importance of context in international development This book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of development studies celebrity studies anthropology political science geography and related disciplines It is also of great relevance to development practitioners humanitarian NGOs and professionals in business CSR fair trade who work in the increasingly celebrityized field

Extreme and Systemic Risk

Analysis Stefan Hochrainer-Stigler, 2020-04-06 This book is about how extreme and systemic risk can be analyzed in an integrated way Risk analysis is understood to include measurement assessment as well as management aspects Integration is understood as being able to perform risk analysis for extreme and systemic events simultaneously The presented approach is based on Sklar's theorem which states that a multivariate distribution can be separated into two parts one describing the marginal distributions and the other describing the dependency between the distributions using a so called copula It is suggested to reinterpret Sklar's theorem from a system or network perspective treating copulas as a network property and individual including extreme risk as elements within the network In that way extreme and systemic risk can be analyzed independently as well as jointly across several scales The book is intended for a large audience and all techniques presented are guided with examples and applications with a special focus on natural disaster events Furthermore an extensive literature and discussion of it are given in each chapter for the interested reader

From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review Mechanisms? Nhemachena, Artwell, Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2019-04-22 Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabe's refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and ontology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a facade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy
