Social Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Ndangwa Noyoo, 2019-11-01 This book critically examines the current social policy in post apartheid South Africa and proposes an alternative social policy agenda to create a new development pathway for the country Taking social policy as a vehicle that will facilitate the creation of a new society altogether namely the Good Society the author argues for the adoption of policy that will socially re engineer South Africa The author shows how the policy tools and development interventions which were undertaken by the post apartheid state in driving South Africa s transformation agenda failed to emancipate many individuals families and communities from the cycle of intergenerational poverty and underdevelopment He contends that social policy interventions that foster the social re engineering of South African society must take place to untangle the inherited colonial apartheid social order This book includes comparative analyses on the Global South and Global North to present the ways in which countries such as post Second World War Great Britain and Sweden and post independence Zambia of the 1960s and 1970s were able to use social policy to create new societies altogether or places similar to the Good Society The conceptual and methodological issues that form the basis for this book reside in public policy making and the public good and will be of interest to scholars of social policy social development and South African society

Disability and Media - An African Perspective Tafadzwa Rugoho,2023-11-27 This book seeks to expand some of the existing often western and

Global North facing scholarship in the area of Disability and Media Studies to include African perspectives Featuring predominantly Africa based contributors it studies an array of topics on disability and media in Africa including issues of social media media ethics including marginalised voices in the media and disability representation in the media Domains of Freedom Thembela Kepe, Melissa Levin, Bettina von Lieres, 2016-09-12 After more than 20 years of freedom in South Africa we have to ask ourselves difficult questions are we willing to perpetuate a lie search for facts or think wishfully Freedom has been enabled by apartheid's end but at the same time some of apartheid's key institutions and social relations are reproduced under the guise of democracy This collection of essays acknowledges the enormous expectations placed on the shoulders of the South African revolution to produce an alternative political regime in response to apartheid and global neo liberalism It does not lament the inability of South Africa's democracy to provide deeper freedoms or suggest that since it hasn't this is some form of betrayal Freedom is made possible and/or limited by local political choices contemporary global conditions and the complexities of social change This book explores the multiplicity of spaces within which the dynamics of social change unfold and the complex ways in which power is produced and reproduced In this way it seeks to understand the often non linear practices through which alternative possibilities emerge the lengthy and often indirect ways in which new communities are imagined and new solidarities are built In this sense this book is not a collection of hope or despair Nor is it a book that seeks to situate itself between these two poles Instead it aims to read the present historically critically and politically and to offer insights into the ongoing iterative and often messy struggles for freedom Non-State Actors in Education in the Global South Prachi Srivastava, Geoffrey Walford, 2019-10-23 Fuelled by social equity concerns there have been vigorous debates on the appropriateness of certain non state actors particularly those with commercial and entrepreneurial motives to meet universal education goals There are further questions on the relative effectiveness of government and private schooling in delivering good learning outcomes for all Within this debate several empirical questions abound Do students from poorer backgrounds achieve as well in private schools as their advantaged peers What are the relative out of pocket costs of accessing private schooling compared to government schooling Is fee paying non state provision affordable to the poorest households What is the nature of the education market at different levels What are the relationships between different non state actors and the state and how should they conduct themselves The chapters in this volume present new empirical evidence and conduct critical analysis on some of these questions This book was originally published as a special issue of the Oxford Review of Education Prophecy and Politics in South African Pentecostalism Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, 2023-12-28 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the relationship between prophecy and politics in South African Pentecostalism The role and the power of prophecy in enhancing the presence of politicians in the church square are unpacked through historical examples as well as case studies of contemporary prophets Solomon Kgatle argues that the influence of prophecy in politics has the potential to weaken the prophetic voice of the church in general and the Pentecostal movement in particular He proposes a Pentecostal political theology of prophecy This theology is developed by taking into cognizance the theoretical and theological frameworks of prophetic imagination and pneumatological imagination In addition this theology seeks a balance between prophecy and power and prophecy and sovereignty
