Library, 1962 Unsettled History Leslie Witz, Gary Minkley, Ciraj Rassool, 2017-02-27 An engrossing look at how history has been produced contested and unsettled in South Africa from Mandela's release to 2010 Catalog of the Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library (Evanston, Illinois) and Africana in Selected Libraries Melville J. Herskovits Library of African Studies, 1972 New Perspectives on the History of Gender and Empire Ulrike Lindner, Dörte Lerp, 2018-08-09 New Perspectives on the History of Gender and Empire an open access book extends our understanding of the gendered workings of empires colonialism and imperialism taking up recent impulses from gender history new imperial history and global history The authors apply new theoretical and methodological approaches to historical case studies around the globe in order to redefine the complex relationship between gender and empire The chapters deal not only with typical colonial empires like the British Empire but also with those less well studied such as the German Russian Italian and U S empires They focus on various imperial formations from colonies in Africa or Asia to settler colonial settings like Australia New Zealand and South Africa to imperial peripheries like the Dodecanese or the Black Sea Steppe The book deals with key themes such as intimacy sexuality and female education as well as exploring new aspects like the complex marriage regimes some empires developed or the so called servant debates It also presents several ways in which imperial formations were structured by gender and other categories like race class caste sexuality religion and citizenship Offering new reflections on the intimate and personal aspects of gender in imperial activities and relationships this is an important volume for students and scholars of gender studies and imperial and colonial history The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4.0 licence on bloomsburycollection.com Open access was funded by Knowledge Unlatched Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa Janet Remmington, Brian Willan, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-10-01 Sheds new light on Native Life appearing at a critical historical juncture and reflects on how to read it in South Africa's heightened challenges today First published in 1916 Sol Plaatje's Native Life in South Africa was written by one of the South Africa's most talented early twentieth century black leaders and journalists Plaatje's pioneering book arose out of an early African National Congress campaign to protest against the discriminatory 1913 Natives Land Act Native Life vividly narrates Plaatje's investigative journeying into South Africa's rural heartlands to report on the effects of the Act and his involvement in the deputation to the British imperial government At the same time it tells the bigger story of the assault on black rights and opportunities in the newly consolidated Union of South Africa and the resistance to it Originally published in war time London but about South Africa and its place in the world Native Life travelled far and wide being distributed in the United States under the auspices of prominent African American W E B Du Bois South African editions were to follow only in the late apartheid period and beyond The aim of this multi authored volume is to shed new light on how and why Native Life came into being at a critical historical juncture and to reflect on how it can be read in relation to South Africa s heightened challenges today Crucial areas that come under the spotlight in this collection include land race history mobility belonging war the press law literature language gender politics and the state Africana Faith James L. Conyers Jr.,2016-12-28 Essentially the study of black religion in America has been mysterious quarrelsome and paradoxical Repeatedly the reason in this primer aspires to make a concentric analysis of the function and capacity of spirituality and religiosity within the African American Muslim movement Recently there have been numerous volumes in the form of biographical or communal studies conducted on Black twentieth century religious figures Much of this discussion has exacerbated in hierarchy of religious values rather than a concentric analysis of the role and function of spirituality and religiosity Therefore this collection of essays places emphasis on the role and views of the missionary and voluntary spread of Islam among African Americans in the United States Dictionary Catalog Schomburg Collection of Negro Literature and History,1962 The Real Professor Higgins Beverley Collins,Inger M. Mees,1999 This volume presents a full scale biography of Daniel Jones a preeminent scholar and British phonetician of the early 20th century and the first linguist to hold a chair at a British university This book traces Jones life and career including his contacts with other linguists and with figures outside the linguistic world notably Robert Bridges and George Bernard Shaw State of Peril Lucy Valerie Graham,2015 Considering fiction from the colonial era to the present State of Peril offers the first sustained scholarly examination of rape narratives in the literature of a country that has extremely high levels of sexual violence Lucy Graham demonstrates how despite the fact that most incidents of rape in South Africa are not interracial narratives of interracial rape have dominated the national imaginary Seeking to understand this phenomenon the study draws on Michel Foucault s ideas on sexuality and biopolitics as well as Judith Butler s speculations on race and cultural melancholia Historical analysis of the body politic provides the backdrop for careful close readings of literature by Olive Schreiner Sol Plaatje Sarah Gertrude Millin Njabulo Ndebele J M Coetzee Zo Wicomb and others Ultimately State of Peril argues for ethically responsible interpretations that recognize high levels of sexual violence in South Africa while parsing the racialized inferences and assumptions implicit in literary representations of bodily violation Catalogue of the C. M. Doke Collection on African Languages in the Library of the University of Rhodesia University of Rhodesia. Library,1972 Sol Plaatje Peter Midgley,1997 The Essential Writings of Robert A. Hill Adam Ewing,2024-02-13 Bringing together Robert A Hill s most important writings for the first time this collection serves as a testament to Hill s legacy as a pioneering scholar activist archive builder and editor who shaped the study of Garveyism and pan Africanism Sol Plaatje Solomon Tshekisho Plaatje,1997 A comprehensive selection of Sol Plaatje s writings including letters to the press newspaper articles and editorials pamphlets political speeches evidence to government commissions of enquiry unpublished autobiographical writings and personal letters Empire, the National, and the Postcolonial, 1890-1920 Elleke Boehmer, 2005-01-06 This book explores the political and textual interrelations which linked anti colonialists nationalists and modernists in the years 1890 1920 Focusing on both canonical and less well known figures and interconnecting Europe India and South Africa the book considers how resistance to domination and nationalist processes of making new emerged not only in reaction to the colonizer but due to the interaction between colonial margins at the time The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin Shipway, 2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study
