University Of Forethare:

A History of the University College of Fort Hare, South Africa, the 1950s Donovan Williams, 2001 This book examines how staff and students opposed the legislation to place the college under government control and reduce its staff to civil servants The affairs of the college are discussed against the background of rapidly changing conditions in South Africa with campus disturbances and protests sometimes linked to the wider application of apartheid BOOK JACKET Brochure University College of Fort Hare, 1958 University of Fort Hare ... Autonomy ... University College of Fort Hare, 1970 Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa Fred M. Hayward, 2020-03-01 Analyzes twelve strategic planning efforts in higher education in eight countries in Asia and Africa Drawing on over fifty years of on the ground experience Fred M Hayward s Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa analyzes change processes in higher education in eight Asian and African countries The twelve cases range from the push to upgrade and transform higher education in Afghanistan in the midst of a war to the successful struggle against apartheid in South African institutions as well as thwarted efforts in Sierra Leone and Madagascar Providing both practical lessons learned and hope for communities globally Hayward demonstrates that higher education change and even transformation which is more fundamental and structural can occur even in the most difficult environments Successful transformation requires well crafted strategic and budget plans with careful implementation monitoring and effective leadership at multiple levels Yet also critical are a commitment to human development a desire for freedom and belief in democracy and recognition that high quality higher education is essential to national development This book provides detailed and informative accounts of system transformation policymaking leadership and development in several developing countries These areas are largely neglected in the literature It also provides an account of the value of coordination and planning in developing effective higher education systems and institutions It is clear that the author has long experience and expertise in the topics and regions addressed Brendan Cantwell Michigan State University Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa s foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar s cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa South African Urban Change Three Decades After Apartheid Anthony Lemon, Ronnie

Donaldson, Gustav Visser, 2021-06-10 This book provides an analysis of South African urban change over the past three decades It draws on a seminal text Homes Apart and revisits conclusions drawn in that collection that marked the final phases of urban apartheid It highlights changes in demography social as well as economic structure and their differential spatial expression across a range of urban sites in South Africa The evidence presented in this book points to a very complex set of narratives in urban South Africa and one that cannot be reduced to a singular statement so the conclusions of the various investigations are in many ways open As urban apartheid represented one clear outcome its post apartheid urban legacies varies greatly from city to city As such this book is a great resource to students and academics focused on urban change in South African cities since the demise of apartheid and scholars of urban policy making in South Africa and Southern urbanists generally Archives, Documentation, and Institutions of Social Memory Francis Xavier

Blouin, William G. Rosenberg, 2007-08-02 Essays exploring the importance of archives as artifacts of culture Livelihoods and Landscapes Paul Hebinck, Peter Lent, 2007-07-30 Drawing on original data secondary literature aerial photographs and archives this book analyzes changes in the use of the landscape and the nature of rural livelihoods in two South African villages Taking an interdisciplinary approach on how livelihoods and landscapes in the Eastern Cape link the text provides a comprehensive study of the patterns of land use over time Three separate chapters focus on cropping and cultivation practices livestock and foraging as well as the gathering of wild plants The book gives a vivid picture of the social dynamics and the interaction between urban and rural It depicts the steady deterioration in agricultural production and the corresponding increase in dependence on social grants and wages Despite this trend remnants of a peasantry do exist

Contemporary issues in South African education , 2025-09-01 South African education is widely regarded as being in crisis facing deep and persistent challenges This reality is starkly reflected in international assessments such as the 2021 Progress in International Reading Literacy Study PIRLS where South Africa ranked last among 43 countries and recorded the steepest decline of all participants This book brings together leading scholars to examine critical issues shaping South

African education today Each chapter focuses on a key topic offering authoritative insights into the system's weaknesses and potential pathways for improvement Employing qualitative research methods the authors provide in depth analyses that enrich scholars understanding of the country's educational landscape and point toward solutions for a more equitable and effective system

Can Themba Siphiwo Mahala, 2022-03-30 Mahala's biography gives insight into the life and writing of Can Themba 1924-1967 an iconic figure of the South African literary world and Drum journalist who died in exile This rich and absorbing biography of Can Themba iconic Drum era journalist and writer is the definitive history of a larger than life man who died too young Siphiwo Mahala's intensive and often fresh research features unprecedented archival access and interviews with Themba's surviving colleagues and family Mahala's biography takes a critical historical approach to Themba's life and writing giving a picture of the whole man from his early beginnings in Marabastad to his sombre end in exile in Swaziland The better known elements of his life his political views passion for teaching and mentoring family life and his drinking are woven together with an examination of his literary influences and the impact of his own writing especially his famous short story The Suit on modern African writers in turn Mahala a master storyteller deftly follows the threads of Themba's dynamic life showcasing his intellectual acumen scholarly aptitude and wit along with his flaws contradictions and heartbreaks against a backdrop of the sparkle and pathos of Sophiatown of the 1950s Can Themba's successes and failures as well as his triumphs and tribulations reverberate on the pages of this long awaited biography The result is an authoritative and entertaining account of an often misunderstood figure in South Africa's literary canon

Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Future of Africa and Policy Development Tshabangu, Icarbord, 2022-03-11 Despite several idealistic efforts towards a united Africa the term remains a hypothetical concept symbolizing a desired federal state on the continent While globalization and interconnectedness have brought prosperity in some parts of the world Africa has not generally benefited from global decisions These decisions policies and practices have tended to be wholly influenced by the rich and powerful countries and their transnational agencies and corporations in pursuit of their national interests Faced with such enormous external economic and political forces the divided and powerless African states have been unable to bargain for lucrative economic deals or pursue national interests for the benefit of their people hence the need to examine what exists in varied fields and the emerging trends for the future Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Future of Africa and Policy Development addresses critical issues and challenges in Africa and seeks to examine and understand the future trends in Africa through a deconstructive interrogation of present trends Covering a wide range of topics such as sustainability equality and democracy it is ideal for researchers academicians students economists policymakers political parties trade unions and NGOs

Herskovits Library of African Studies, 1972 Continuing Professional Development Ann Ritchie, Clare Walker, 2007 Focuses on the topic of leadership in the library and information

professions providing an overview of institutes programs and activities occurring around the world This title provides insights to those interested in workforce planning strategies aimed at addressing shortages of library leaders Nutrition, Sustainable Agriculture and Climate Change in Africa Gbadebo Odularu, 2020-09-19 In Sub Saharan Africa the rapidly evolving COVID 19 increasing population growth and exponential expansion in demand for agricultural commodities are putting pressure on available resources thereby posing immense challenges to the region s capacity to achieve nutritional security related to United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Although Sub Saharan Africa boasts vast fertile and uncultivated arable lands its capacity to contribute to feeding its current and future population is being seriously undermined by factors such as poor adoption and utilization of innovations and digital tools climate change impact environmental degradation weak political will limited interest in farming lack of government support and more In spite of these constraints sustainable agriculture food security and nutrition security in Sub Saharan Africa can be achieved by adopting a multi pronged approach which includes improved agricultural mechanization adoption of high yielding crop varieties use of information technology public investments in improved technologies and rural infrastructure funding This edited volume provides innovative policy tools for enhancing Sub Saharan Africa s capacity to achieve sustainable agriculture food security and nutrition security in the digital age and in the face of climate variability Furthermore this book presents smart strategies for increased agricultural production reduced food waste and enhanced nutritional outcomes by harnessing the latest discoveries in agricultural research education and advisory services Driving Change Gibbon, Trish, 2014-06-12 Driving Change tells a story that exemplifies a basic law of physics known to all the application of a relatively small lever can shift weight create movement and initiate change far in excess of its own size It tells a story about a particular instance of development cooperation relatively modest in scope and aim that has nonetheless achieved remarkable things and has been held up as an exemplar of its kind It does not tell a story of flawless execution and perfectly achieved outcomes it is instead a narrative that gives some insight into the structural and organisational arrangements the institutional and individual commitments and above all the work intelligence and passion of its participants which made the SANTED Programme a noteworthy success Treading the waters of history Kondlo, Kwandiwe, Saunders, Chris, 2014-12-10 This volume is an anthology of thought pieces about the ANC contributed by a variety of scholars and thinkers It gives voice to a variety of perspectives on the subject The fact that some authors disagree with each other is all part of what will we hope be an on going debate The book originated from a series of public dialogues that began before the centenary year and continued afterwards being held at the University of Free State The first section covers reflections on how knowledge of the history of the ANC has advanced and the position of that history in the general history of the liberation struggle This section aids a critical appraisal of the state of primary sources used in writing the history of the ANC Chapters in the second half of the book consider some of the various contexts in which the ANC has operated and continues to operate These include the evolution of the ANC's economic policy and how it has changed over time the kind of leadership the organisation provided in redefining gender relations and most importantly the ANC and international relations especially seen from the vantage point of progressive internationalism The last section examines the evolution of Pan Africanism in the ANC's ideological development The National Agricultural Directory 2009 ,2009 Debates of the Transkei Legislative Assembly Transkei (South Africa). Legislative Assembly,1965 Climate Action in Southern Africa Philani Moyo,2023-10-27 Using climate justice as an analytical tool this volume examines the role of local mitigation and adaptation actions in Southern Africa in furthering climate resilient development Climate Action in Southern Africa examines the intrinsic connection between local climate actions climate resilient development and strides towards a just transition The theoretical grounding in climate justice allows the authors to analyse whether current climate actions in Africa are truly effective for the poor and marginalised whose lives and livelihoods are impacted by a climate crisis largely not of their making The authors also question the extent to which pathways to net zero carbon emissions by 2050 are achievable in Africa and ask whether this can be attained without undermining livelihoods and human development Overall this book argues that for any transition to be a just transition it has to be aligned with the pursuit of sustainable development and climate justice for current and future generations on the African continent Drawing out key factors including politics gender and migration this volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change climate justice and African development
