Law and the Precarious Home Helen Carr, Brendan Edgeworth, Caroline Hunter, 2018-05-17 This book explores the emergent and internationally widespread phenomenon of precariousness specifically in relation to the home. It maps the complex reality of the insecure home by examining the many ways in which precariousness is manifested in legal and social change across a number of otherwise very different jurisdictions. By applying innovative work done by socio-legal scholars in other fields such as labour law and welfare law to the home, Law and the Precarious Home offers a broader theoretical understanding of contemporary precarisation of law and society. It will enable reflections upon differential experience of home dependent upon class, race and gender from a range of local, national and cross-national perspectives. Finally, it will explore the pluralisation of ideas of home in subjective experience, social reality and legal form. The answers offered in this book reflect the expertise and standing of the assembled authors who are international leaders in their field with decades of first-hand practical and intellectual engagement with the area.

Gender and Diversity: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2018-08-03. Today, gender inequality and diversity are at the forefront of discussion as the issue has become an international concern for politicians, government agencies, social activists and the general public. Consequently, the need to foster and sustain diversity and inclusiveness in the interactions among various groups of people is relevant today more than ever. Gender and Diversity: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools and Applications provides a critical look at gender and modern-day discrimination and solutions to creating sustainable diversity across numerous contexts and fields. Highlighting a range of topics such as anti-discrimination measures, workforce diversity and gender inequality, this multi-volume book is designed for legislators and policy makers, practitioners, academicians, gender studies researchers and graduate-level students interested in all aspects of gender and diversity studies.

The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2018-09-29. The ethical treatment of non-human animals is an increasingly significant issue directly affecting how people share the planet with other creatures and visualize themselves within the natural world. The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics is a key reference source in this area, looking specifically at the role religion plays in the formation of ethics around these concerns. Featuring thirty-five chapters by a team of international contributors, the handbook is divided into two parts. The first gives an overview of fifteen of the major world religions' attitudes towards animal ethics and protection. The second features five sections addressing the following topics: Human Interaction with Animals, Killing and Exploitation, Religious and Secular Law, Evil and Theodicy, Souls and Afterlife. This handbook demonstrates that religious traditions, despite often being anthropocentric, do have much to offer to those seeking a framework for a more enlightened relationship between humans and non-human animals. As such, The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Animal Ethics is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies, theology and animal ethics, as well as those studying the philosophy of religion and ethics more generally.

Handbook of Research on the Role of Tourism in Achieving Sustainable Development Goals Brandão, Filipa, Breda, Zélia, Costa, Rui, Costa, Carlos, 2020-09-25. Tourism, one of the world's leading industries, has propelled countries into recovery from economic recession As a multi disciplinary multi sectoral holistic and systemic industry tourism also uniquely placed to address the concerns of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs While the relationships between tourism sustainability and sustainable development are the subjects of deep study the direct positive effects of tourism on SDGs remain underdiscussed The Handbook of Research on the Role of Tourism in Achieving Sustainable Development Goals is a collection of innovative research that explores sustainable practices within the tourism industry While highlighting a broad range of topics including economic growth education and production patterns this book is ideally designed for engineers entrepreneurs policymakers executives advocates researchers academicians and students

Extreme and Systemic Risk Analysis Stefan Hochrainer-Stigler, 2020-04-06 This book is about how extreme and systemic risk can be analyzed in an integrated way Risk analysis is understood to include measurement assessment as well as management aspects Integration is understood as being able to perform risk analysis for extreme and systemic events simultaneously The presented approach is based on Sklar's theorem which states that a multivariate distribution can be separated into two parts one describing the marginal distributions and the other describing the dependency between the distributions using a so called copula It is suggested to reinterpret Sklar's theorem from a system or network perspective treating copulas as a network property and individual including extreme risk as elements within the network In that way extreme and systemic risk can be analyzed independently as well as jointly across several scales The book is intended for a large audience and all techniques presented are guided with examples and applications with a special focus on natural disaster events Furthermore an extensive literature and discussion of it are given in each chapter for the interested reader

Comparative Dispute Resolution Maria F. Moscati, Michael Palmer, Marian Roberts, 2020-12-25 Comparative Dispute Resolution offers an original wide ranging and invaluable corpus of chapters on dispute resolution Enriched by a broad comparative vision and a focus on the processes used to handle disputes this study adds significantly to the discourse around comparative legal studies Chapters present new understandings of theoretical comparative and transnational dimensions of the manner in which societies and their legal systems respond to difficulties in social relations From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review Mechanisms? Nhemachena, Artwell, Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2019-04-22 Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabe's refusal to be neoimperial penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and onticology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a fa ade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy
