Race, Gender and Violence on the Transatlantic Extreme Right, 1969-2009 Simon A. Purdue, 2022-10-20 This book explores the central role that gender has historically played in violent far right movements and groups in a time of increasing political polarisation and rising extremism The author examines the way neo Nazis and white supremacists have constructed gender and how this has impacted on the practical role of men and women on the global extreme right between 1969 and 2009 giving valuable insight into the inner workings of the extremist fringe today In the context of rising violent ultra nationalism in the UK Eastern Europe the USA India and Russia this transnational history of racist extremist movements offers a very necessary glimpse into the intimate personal politics of organised hate and into the ideological and organisational roots of our current moment In order to fully understand the extreme right it is essential to develop an awareness of the deep social foundations that underlie it By exposing the gendered basis of racist extremism in the USA and UK this book makes a necessary intervention in the field of far right studies shedding new light on the shadowy corners of the political spectrum and ultimately opening new avenues for countering hate on the personal political and academic level The book seeks to explain the intricate relationship between organised racist extremism and ideological misogyny and explores the fundamental contradictions and inconsistencies that underlie women s far right activism Offering historical context to the current social and political moment in which white supremacist and far right terror presents an immediate threat to security and stability in both the USA and the UK this book provides useful insights for those researching the history of fascism and the far right violent social movements and political activism as well as women s history and gender studies

South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa s leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90 10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people s future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI

Civil Strife against Local Governance Sethulego Matebesi, 2017-03-13 Hardly a day goes by without South Africans going on a rampage over the provision of basic municipal services such as water electricity sanitation and other municipal obligations This book connects the critical issue of community protests to the equally precarious issue of political trust in local governance in South Africa by using comparative analysis of grassroots activism in predominantly black communities and predominantly white communities

The Transformative Power of Language Russell H. Kaschula, H. Ekkehard Wolff, 2020-09-10 Language has played a pivotal role in societal transformation in postcolonial Africa towards the creation of globally competitive knowledge societies however so far this role has been under researched and under estimated This volume addresses this gap in the literature by bringing together a team of globally recognised scholars to explore the effect of language on African postcolonial societies and how it has contributed to achieving mental decolonisation A range of languages are explored both imported ex colonial and indigenous African and case studies from different spheres of public discourse are investigated from universities to legal settings Demonstrating that multilingualism is a resource for rather than barrier to successful transformation this book brings the intellectualisation and institutionalisation of African languages to the forefront of development discourse and provides an insightful snap shot of how current academic research public discourse political activism and social community engagement have contributed to societal transformation in South Africa

LGBTIQ+ people and

Pentecostals Marius Nel, 2020-01-01 This book provides Pentecostals with the necessary equipment and motivation to contribute to one of Africa's important ethical challenges LGBTIQ people and Africa's homophobic reaction to them. The study is aimed at Christian believers and pastors to empower them with relevant information about the issue. The issue is discussed in terms of existing biological, psychological, anthropological, sociological, philosophical, and queer theory knowledge along with a study of the biblical texts in order to answer the question: what should a responsible African Pentecostal response be towards the LGBTIQ issue and what should Pentecostals' attitude be towards such people. Handbook of Research on

Information and Records Management in the Fourth Industrial Revolution Chigwada, Josiline Phiri, Tsvuura, Godfrey, 2021-06-25 Information and records management has been an important part of society for establishing procedures to effectively manage information. As technology has increased in society, this essential function has been impacted as well. With the onset of technological tools brought upon by the fourth industrial revolution, technologies such as artificial intelligence, the internet of things, big data, and more have changed the face of information and records management. These technologies and tools have paved new ways for security, efficiency in timely processes, new ways to create and process records, and other beneficial traits. Along with these advancements come new contemporary issues leading to the need for research on how exactly information records management is functioning in modern times, the technologies brought on by the fourth industrial revolution, and both the benefits and challenges to this transition. The Handbook of Research on Information and Records Management in the Fourth Industrial Revolution showcases contemporary issues and demonstrates the value of information and records management in the fourth industrial revolution. The book provides a summary of the key activities undertaken by information and records managers as they seek to make records and information management more visible in the modern knowledge-driven society. The chapters highlight innovation, the use of information and communication technology in information and records management, best practices, challenges encountered, and how they are overcome. The target audience of this book will be composed of professionals, librarians, archivists, lecturers, and researchers working in the field of library and information science, along with practitioners, academicians, and students interested in information and records management in the 21st century. Migration in Southern Africa Pragna Rugunanan, Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama, 2022-05-30 This open access Regional Reader proposes new ways of theorizing migration in Southern Africa by arguing that traditional western forms of theorizing do not adequately fit the South-South migration context. It explores the existing definitions of a migrant with a view to conceptualise a definition which will speak to the complexities, envisioning a more inclusive Southern African region. The book investigates the various levels of migration, moving from the local rural to urban and urban to rural to cross border migration, middle class versus working class migrant household livelihoods, livelihoods procurement versus wage earning, social capital networks, and how they make meaning of their circumstances in a foreign space. It also acknowledges the intertwined issues of gender and class as important in analyzing migration processes.
