South African Medical Journal, 1999 A Turbulent South Africa Jérôme Tournadre, 2018-03-01 Frequently praised for its democratic transition South Africa has experienced an almost uninterrupted cycle of social protest since the late 1990s There have been increasing numbers of demonstrations against the often appalling living conditions of millions of South Africans pointing to the fact that they have yet to achieve full citizenship A Turbulent South Africa offers a new look at this historic period in the existence of the young South African democracy far removed from the idealistic portrait of the Rainbow Nation Jérôme Tournadre draws on interviews and observations to take the reader from the backstreets of the squatters camps to international militant circles and from the immediate infra political level to the worldwide anti capitalist protest movement He investigates the mechanisms and the meaning of social discontent in light of several different phenomena These include the struggle of the poor to gain recognition the persistent memory of the fight against apartheid the developments in the political world since the Mandela Years the coexistence of liberal democracy with a popular politics found in poor and working class districts and many other factors that have played a crucial part in the social and political tensions at the heart of post apartheid South Africa Soils of South Africa Martin Fey, 2010-02-16 Soils of South Africa is the first book in seventy years that provides a comprehensive account of South African soils The book arranges more than seventy soil forms into fourteen groups and then provides for each group maps showing their distribution and abundance throughout South Africa descriptions of morphological chemical and physical properties a detailed account of classification and its correlation with international systems a discussion of soil genesis which includes a review of relevant research papers appraisal of soil quality from a land use perspective as well as for its ecological significance illustrative examples of soil profiles with analytical data and accompanying interpretations There is also a fascinating account of the special relationship that exists between South African animals and soil environments Soils of South Africa should interest students and researchers in the earth environmental and biological sciences as well as environmental practitioners farmers foresters and civil engineers The Fluvial Imagination Colin Hoag, 2022-11-08 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminoso.org Landlocked and surrounded by South Africa on all sides the mountain kingdom of Lesotho became the world's first water exporting country when it signed a 1986 treaty with its powerful neighbor An elaborate network of dams and tunnels now carries water to Johannesburg the subcontinent's water stressed economic epicenter Hopes that receipts from water sales could improve Lesotho's fortunes however have clashed with fears that soil erosion from overgrazing livestock could fill its reservoirs with sediment In this wide ranging and deeply researched book Colin Hoag shows how producing water commodities incites a fluvial imagination Engineering water security for urban South Africa draws attention ever further into Lesotho's rural upstream catchments from reservoirs to the soils and vegetation above them and even to the social lives of herders at remote livestock posts As we enter our planet's water export era Lesotho exposes the possibilities and perils ahead Labour Beyond Cosatu Andries Bezuidenhout, Malehoko Tshoaedi, Christine Bischoff, 2017-07-01 Labour Beyond Cosatu is the fourth volume in the series Taking Democracy Seriously a ground breaking textured and nuanced study on workers and democracy which was established in the 1990s The series looks at members of trade unions affiliated to the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu and provides a rich database of trade union members and research conducted over the past twenty years It is one of the very few such resources available to researchers anywhere in the world Labour Beyond Cosatu paints a complex picture The 12 chapters of the volume explore various rebellions and conflicts in the trade union sector starting with the National Union of Mineworkers NUM and rivalries between Cosatu affiliates Unpacking the conflicts between state sector and private sector workers contributors look at the impact of generational and educational shifts seen by some commentators as proof that Cosatu is now middle class The book also raises the issue of gender in the unions by usefully locating the controversy around charges levelled at Zwelinzima Vavi in 2013 in the larger context of serious problems in the gender politics within parts of Cosatu Refuting the image of a union federation solidly committed to the ANC Labour Beyond Cosatu presents evidence of a sharp decline in support for the ANC within Cosatu and growing scepticism towards the Alliance It shows that attempts to understand the labour movement in South Africa in the future will need to include research of smaller independent unions and social movements The volume's contributors make a major contribution to key debates on labour and democracy providing new material that can potentially shift the discussion in important ways This book will be of great value to students and researchers in Industrial Sociology Political Studies Industrial Psychology and Economics and Management Towards the Environmental Minimum Stefan Theil, 2021-09-09 A practical human rights approach strengthens environmental protection without requiring radical departures from established protection regimes and legal principles Land, Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa William Beinart, Rosalie Kingwill, Gavin Capps, 2021-05-01 This edited collection illustrates contestations over land and political authority in South Africa's rural areas focusing on threats to popular rights and how they are being supported Who controls the land and minerals in the former Bantustans of South Africa chiefs the state or landholders Disputes are taking place around the ownership of resources decisions about their exploitation and who should benefit With respect to all of these issues the courts have become increasingly important The contributors to Land Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa capture some of these intense contestations over land law and political authority focussing on threats to the rights of ordinary people History and customary law feature strongly in most disputes and succession to chieftaincy is also frequently disputed Judges have to make decisions in a context where rival claimants to property or office assert their own versions of history and custom The South African constitution recognizes customary law and the courts are attempting to incorporate and develop this branch of jurisprudence as living customary law Lawyers community leaders and academics are called on to assist in researching cases around restitution land rights and customary law The chapters in this collection discuss legal cases and policy directions that have evolved since 1994 Some chapters analyze the increasing power of chiefs in the South African rural areas while others suggest that the courts are giving support to popular rights over land and supporting local democratic processes Contributors record significant pushback from groups that reject traditional authority These political tensions are a central theme of the collection and thus serve as vital case studies in furthering our understanding of rights and restitution in South Africa

Eating from One Pot Sarah Mosoetsa, 2011-04-01 As poverty and unemployment deepen in contemporary South Africa the burning question becomes how do the poor survive Eating from One Pot provides a compelling answer Based on intensive fieldwork it shows how many African households are on the brink of collapse That they keep going at all can largely be attributed to the struggles of older women against poverty They are the fulcrum on which household survival turns This book describes how households in two different areas in KwaZulu Natal are sites of both stability and conflict As one of the interviewees put it We eat from one pot and should always help each other Yet the stability of family networks is becoming fragile because of the enormous burden placed on them by unemployment and unequal power relations Through careful analysis the experiences of survival are discussed in relation to the restructuring of the country's welfare and social policies and the extension of social grants Mosoetsa argues that these policies shape the livelihoods that people pursue in order to survive under desperate conditions but fail to address the root causes of poverty and inequality New Histories of South Africa's Apartheid-Era Bantustans Shireen Ally,Arianna Lissoni,2017-06-26 This book features new research on the history of apartheid South Africa s former bantustans and their legacies in the modern world With an introduction by renowned historian William Beinart the individual chapters written by a new generation of scholars address a number of themes public administration health and education culture ethnicity and politics ethnic nationalism historiographical reflections and personal recollections by three former public servants This book was originally published as a special issue of the South African Historical Journal Emerging Infectious Diseases

,2018-07 Intersectionality of Race, Ethnicity, Class, and Gender in Teaching and Teacher Education Norvella P. Carter,Michael Vavrus,2018-04-16 In Intersectionality of Race Ethnicity Class and Gender in Teaching and Teacher Education the editors bring together scholarship that employs an intersectionality approach to conditions that affect public school children teachers and teacher educators Chapter authors use intersectionality to examine group identities not only for their differences and experiences of oppression but also for differences within groups that contribute to conflicts among groups This collection moves beyond single dimension conceptions that undermines legal thinking disciplinary knowledge and social justice Intersectionality in this collection helps complicate static notions of race ethnicity class and gender in education Hence this book stands as an addition to research on educational equity in relation to institutional systems of power and privilege Water Security Chrispin Kowenje,Samuel Paré,Bizuneh Asfaw,2017-07-31 Nowadays deterioration of global fresh water resources is the most challenging question and it has become one of the forefront scientific and political agenda in relation to global environmental changes in climate land use and bio diversity Water is not adequately available in required quantity and quality in many parts of the world especially in developing countries Water still remains to be an essential component of life and hence governments and other agents need to work on securing water to the society Water security is regarded as the capacity of a population to safeguard sustainable access to adequate quantities of acceptable quality of water for sustaining livelihoods human well being and socio economic development Thus finding solutions to water security and related problems through strong collaboration among researchers stakeholders governments non governmental organizations and the communities is required Therefore stakeholders need to meet in a discussion forum such as expert workshop to explore water security related problems and to develop mitigation measures The expert workshop also creates a co learning environment among different experts and knowledge exchange through experiences from different parts of the world The workshop in Mekelle Ethiopia of the Sub Saharan Regional Network of Exceed Swindon focused on a multidisciplinary approach to water security challenges and its solutions with special emphasis on distribution and availability of fresh and drinking waters water scarcity quality and pollution aspects of water water governance trans boundary water resources management and other related issues among which are the drivers land use systems and climatic conditions South African Language Rights Monitor 2003 Theo du Plessis,Johan Lubbe,Elbie Truter,2011-11-01 The South

Rural Wage Employment in Developing Countries Carlos Oya,Nicola Pontara,2015-05-22 There is a striking scarcity of work conducted on rural labour markets in the developing world particularly in Africa This book aims to fill this gap by bringing together a group of contributors who boast substantial field experience researching rural wage employment in various developing countries It provides critical perspectives on mainstream approaches to rural agrarian development and analysis of agrarian change and rural transformations from a long term perspective This book challenges the notion that rural areas in low and middle income countries are dominated by self employment It purports that this conventional view is largely due to the application of conceptual frameworks and statistical conventions that are ill equipped to capture labour market participation The contributions in this book offer a variety of methodological lessons for the study of rural labour markets focusing in particular on the use of mixed methods in micro level field research and more emphasis on capturing occupation multiplicity The emphasis on context history and specific configurations of power relations affecting rural labour market outcomes are key and reoccurring features of this book This analysis will help readers think about policy options to improve the quantity and quality of rural wage employment their impact on the poorest rural people and their political feasibility in each context

Mud to bricks: A review of school infrastructure spending and delivery Carmen Abdoll,Conrad Barberton,2014-07-04 The Centre for Child Law commissioned this study by Cornerstone Economic Research to track school infrastructure spending and delivery The report written by Carmen Abdoll and Conrad Barberton makes the concerning finding that the national Department of Basic Education has woefully underspent the School Infrastructure Backlog grant for two years running In 2011 2012 spending was a little over 10 per cent and only at 23 per cent in 2012 2013 at the end of the third quarter The ASIDI target for the number of schools to be built in 2011 2012 and 2012 2013 was 49 However only 10 had been completed by the end of the first year They predict that if the DBE continues at the same delivery rate a realistic timeframe for the eradication of schools with inappropriate structures is probably 2023 24 They make recommendations which if followed could shorten the delay significantly This study shows the importance of monitoring and evaluating progress against court orders and out of court settlements to ensure that the right to a basic education is made real
