A Legacy of Exploitation Susan Dianne Brophy, 2022-05-15 It is unlikely that buyers of the Hudson's Bay Company's iconic multistripe point blanket these days reflect on the historically exploitative relationship between the company and

Indigenous producers This critical re evaluation of the company s first planned settlement at Red River uncovers that history As a settler colonialist project par excellence the Red River Colony was designed to undercut Indigenous peoples troublesome autonomy and better control their labour Susan Dianne Brophy upends standard historical portrayals by foregrounding Indigenous peoples autonomy as a driving force of change A Legacy of Exploitation offers a comprehensive account of legal economic and geopolitical relations to show how autonomy can become distorted as complicity in processes of dispossession Ultimately this book challenges enduring yet misleading national fantasies about Canada as a nation of bold adventurers

The Gigantic Markagunt and Sevier Gravity Slides Resulting from Mid-Cenozoic Catastrophic Mega-Scale Failure of the Marysvale Volcanic Field, Utah, USA Robert F. Biek, Peter D. Rowley, David B. Hacker, 2019-12-31 The Markagunt and Sevier gravity slides are gigantic landslides that resulted from gravitationally induced catastrophic failure of the southern flank of the Oligocene to Miocene Marysvale volcanic field Each is nearly 100 km long with runouts over the former land surface 35 km together they span 7000 km² and rank among Earth s largest terrestrial landslides Basal cataclastic layers injectites pseudotachylyte deformed clasts and a variety of kinematic indicators demonstrate catastrophic emplacement which was preceded by slow gravitational spreading of the volcanic field This volume offers a history of their discovery our current understanding of the gravity slides and a guide to particularly instructive exposures for which the authors document their conclusions about the size age and significant structural features of these newly discovered features

Afghanistan and the Coloniality of Diplomacy Maximilian Drephal, 2019-09-25 This book offers an institutional history of the British Legation in Kabul which was established in response to the independence of Afghanistan in 1919 It contextualises this diplomatic mission in the wider remit of Anglo Afghan relations and diplomacy from the nineteenth to the twenty first century examining the networks of family and profession that established the institution s colonial foundations and its connections across South Asia and the Indian Ocean The study presents the British Legation as a late imperial institution which materialised colonialism s governmental practices in the age of independence Ultimately it demonstrates the continuation of asymmetries forged in the Anglo Afghan encounter and shows how these were transformed into instances of diplomatic inequality in the realm of international relations Approaching diplomacy through the themes of performance the body and architecture and in the context of knowledge transfers this work offers new perspectives on international relations through a cultural history of diplomacy

Form and Substance in the Law of Obligations Andrew Robertson, James Goudkamp, 2019-11-28 This volume explores the relationship between form and substance in the law of obligations It builds on the rich tradition of legal thought that deploys the concepts of form and substance to inform our understanding of the common law The essays in this collection offer multiple conceptions of form and substance and cover an array of private law subjects scholarly approaches and jurisdictions The collection makes it clear that the interplay between form and substance is a key element of the dynamism that characterises this area of the law

Alternative Iron Ages Brais X. Currás, Inés Sastre, 2019-09-09 Alternative Iron Ages examines Iron Age social formations that sit outside traditional paradigms developing methods for archaeological characterisation of alternative models of society In so doing it contributes to the debates concerning the construction and resistance of inequality taking place in archaeology anthropology and sociology In recent years Iron Age research on Western Europe has moved towards new forms of understanding social structures Yet these alternative social organisations continue to be considered as basic human social formations which frequently imply marginality and primitivism In this context the grand narrative of the European Iron Age continues to be defined by cultural foci which hide the great regional variety in an artificially homogenous area This book challenges the traditional classical evolutionist narratives by exploring concepts such as non triangular societies heterarchy and segmentarity across regional case studies to test and propose alternative social models for Iron Age social formations Constructing new social theory both archaeologically based and supported by sociological and anthropological theory the book is perfect for those looking to examine and understand life in the European Iron Age We are so grateful to the research project titled Paisajes rurales antiguos del Noroeste peninsular formas de dominación romana y explotación de recursos Ancient rural landscapes in Northwestern Iberia Roman dominion and resource exploitation HAR2015 64632 P MINECO FEDER directed from the Instituto de Historia CSIC and also to the Fundação para a Ciência e a Tecnologia Foundation for Science and Technology postdoctoral project SFRH BPD 102407 2014

LC-MS/MS in the Mycotoxins Studies Laura Gámiz-Gracia,Ana M. García-Campaña,Natalia Arroyo-Manzanares,2020-06-17 Mycotoxins are secondary metabolites produced by the fungi of different species mainly Aspergillus Fusarium and Penicillium with toxic effects for humans and animals These mycotoxins can contaminate food and feed The European Union EU has established the maximum permitted or recommended levels for well known mycotoxins in different foodstuffs However there are other mycotoxins that are not included in the regulations the emerging mycotoxins whose toxicity is still not clear and the modified or masked mycotoxins produced as a consequence of a detoxification strategy of the host plant of the fungus or during food processing These mycotoxins could pose a risk and should also be taken into account In order to assure consumers health analytical methods for the accurate determination of mycotoxins in different food matrices and feeds are required In this sense liquid chromatography tandem mass spectrometry LC MS MS is a powerful tool for their unique identification and quantification Moreover the use of high resolution mass spectrometry HRMS allows one to identify novel mycotoxins and targeted untargeted approaches for study This Special Issue compiles recent applications of LC MS MS in mycotoxin studies as well as the development and validation of new analytical methods for their identification and quantification in different food matrices and feed occurrence studies and the biomonitoring of mycotoxins and their metabolites in biological fluids

Modern Architecture and the Sacred Ross Anderson, Maximilian Sternberg, 2020-11-26 This edited volume Modern Architecture and the Sacred presents a timely reappraisal of the manifold engagements that modern architecture has had with the sacred It comprises fourteen individual chapters arranged in three thematic sections Beginnings and Transformations of the Modern Sacred Buildings for Modern Worship and Semi Sacred Settings in the Cultural Topography of Modernity The first interprets the intellectual and artistic roots of modern ideas of the sacred in the post Enlightenment period and tracks the transformation of these in architecture over time The second studies the ways in which organized religion responded to the challenges of the new modern self understanding and then the third investigates the ways that abstract modern notions of the sacred have been embodied in the ersatz sacred contexts of theatres galleries memorials and museums While centring on Western architecture during the decisive period of the first half of the 20th century a time that takes in the early musings on spirituality by some of the avant garde in defiance of Sachlichkeit and the machine aesthetic the volume also considers the many varied appropriations of sacrality that architects have made up to the present day and also in social and cultural contexts beyond the West
