University Of North West 2016 S Prospectus:

Handbook on Green Infrastructure Danielle Sinnett, Nick Smith, Sarah Burgess, 2015-11-27 Green infrastructure encompasses many features in the built environment. It is widely recognised as a valuable resource in our towns and cities and it is therefore crucial to understand, create, protect and manage this resource. This Handbook sets the context for green infrastructure as a means to make urban environments more resilient, sustainable, liveable and equitable. Including state of the art reviews that summarise the existing knowledge as well as research findings, this Handbook provides current evidence for the beneficial impact of green infrastructure on health, environmental quality and the economy. It discusses the planning and design of green infrastructure as a strategic network down to the individual features in a neighbourhood and looks at the process of green infrastructure implementation, emphasising the importance of collaboration across multiple professions and sectors. This comprehensive volume operates at multiple spatial scales from strategic networks at the regional level to individual features in neighbourhoods with international case studies used throughout to illustrate key examples of good practice. This collection of expert contributions will be invaluable to students and academics in the fields of planning, urban studies and geography. Practitioners and policy makers will also find the policy discussion and examples enlightening. The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History, c. 1550-1750, 2018-12-10 William A. Pettigrew and David Veevers put forward a new interpretation of the role Europe's overseas corporations played in early modern global history, recasting them from vehicles of national expansion to significant forces of global integration. Across the Mediterranean, Atlantic, Indian Ocean and Pacific, corporations provided a truly global framework for facilitating the circulation, movement and exchange between and amongst European and non-European communities, bringing them directly into dialogue, often for the first time. Usually understood as imperial or colonial commercial enterprises, The Corporation as a Protagonist in Global History reveals the unique global sociology of overseas corporations to provide a new global history in which non-Europeans emerged as key stakeholders in European overseas enterprises in the early modern world. Contributors include Michael D. Bennett, Aske Laursen, Brock Liam D. Haydon, Lisa Hellman, Leonard Hodges, Emily Mann, Simon Mills, Chris Nierstrasz, Edgar Pereira, Edmond Smith, Haig Smith and Anna Winterbottom. Finance Law, Stephen Connelly, 2025-06-16 For the student who wishes to understand law as it is practised in a modern financial context, Finance Law offers the only up-to-date university level textbook which explains legal principles as they are applied in today's advanced financial transactions. Essential for any student or researcher seeking an introduction to this complex and fast-moving world, this text is based on the author's extensive teaching experience. In finance law, covering the modern form of credit facilities, agreements, security, syndication, securities and securitization, derivatives and payment and clearing systems, is packed with interesting case studies including the Mozambique Tuna Bond Scandal, the takeover of Manchester Utd plc and the securitization of student loans. It motivates study with theoretical discussions and historical contextualisation, explaining key transaction structures such as investment

Reconstructing the Landscapes of Slavery Dale W. Tomich, Rafael de Bivar Marquese, Carlos Venegas Fornias, Reinaldo Funes Monzote, 2021-03-19

Assessing a unique collection of more than eighty images this innovative study of visual culture reveals the productive organization of plantation landscapes in the nineteenth century Atlantic world These landscapes from cotton fields in the Lower Mississippi Valley to sugar plantations in western Cuba and coffee plantations in Brazil's Paraíba Valley demonstrate how the restructuring of the capitalist world economy led to the formation of new zones of commodity production By extension these environments radically transformed slave labor and the role such labor played in the expansion of the global economy Artists and mapmakers documented in surprising detail how the physical organization of the landscape itself made possible the increased exploitation of enslaved labor Reading these images today one sees how technologies combined with evolving conceptions of plantation management that reduced enslaved workers to black bodies Planter control of enslaved people's lives and labor maximized the production of each crop in a calculated system of production Nature too was affected the massive increase in the scale of production and new systems of cultivation increased the land's output Responding to world economic conditions the replication of slave based commodity production became integral to the creation of mass markets for cotton sugar and coffee which remain at the center of contemporary life

Vanguard Martha S. Jones, 2020-09-08 The epic history of African American women's pursuit of political power and how it transformed America In the standard story the suffrage crusade began in Seneca Falls in 1848 and ended with the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment in 1920 But this overwhelmingly white women's movement did not win the vote for most black women Securing their rights required a movement of their own In Vanguard acclaimed historian Martha S Jones offers a new history of African American women's political lives in America She recounts how they defied both racism and sexism to fight for the ballot and how they wielded political power to secure the equality and dignity of all persons From the earliest days of the republic to the passage of the 1965 Voting Rights Act and beyond Jones excavates the lives and work of black women Maria Stewart Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Fannie Lou Hamer and more who were the vanguard of women's rights calling on America to realize its best ideals
