Dialogue Lu Xiao 晓晓, 2010-06-01

What forces continue to oppress and restrain women artists in contemporary China Some powerful answers are provided in this fictional memoir of Xiao Lu who played an important role in the avant garde cultural scene during the tumultuous early months of 1989 The acclaimed China AvantGarde exhibition organized by Gao Minglu at the National Art Museum in Beijing was shut down after about three hours from its opening Feb 5 1989 when Xiao Lu shot live bullets into her mock up of two telephone booths turning an edgy installation work into an over the edge performance piece and an icon of the modern Chinese art movement Many questions were left unanswered from where she got the gun to what she meant by all this As it turns out the man and the woman pictured in these two phone booths were specific people and she was one of them the daughter of the director of a provincial art academy Her father helped her get into the Central Academy in Beijing where she was abused in various ways In the 1989 exhibition symbolically she shot her nemesis then went outside to a public telephone
