Upholder Class Seal Manual:

Foreign Commerce Weekly United States. Department of Commerce,1942 Human Sciences Jens

Hoyrup,2000-06-08 Human Sciences assesses the importance and value of the humanities historically and philosophically and makes the case for treating them as sciences Through careful examination of the characteristics they share with the natural and social sciences as well as what distinguishes them from other scientific fields the book argues that the humanities may be seen to correspond with the German Latin Wissenschaft scientia that is as systematic organized bodies of knowledge rather than as branches of knowledge that should necessarily emulate the quantitative and experimental approach of the natural sciences After analyzing the humanities from historical and philosophical perspectives the book presents a general philosophy of science that results from an analysis of the features that are shared by the humanities and the natural and social sciences and then applies some of these insights to philosophical problems of particular relevance for the humanities such as moral philosophy and the relation between art and cognition Ornament T. L. J. Howard,Michael Snodin,Maurice

Howard,1996-01-01 In a wide ranging and richly illustrated book the authors begin by tracing the ways ornament has been used over the last five centuries the rules of decorum and etiquette associated with it and the social moral and spiritual values it has represented They examine how architecture set the agenda for ornament in the Renaissance and how printed images carried a common vocabulary of ornament throughout the Western world They survey the personal side of ornament both in dress and in the domestic interior a private expression of the self and a public statement of social and cultural status They look at ornament in the public domain from the lavish decoration and symbolism of a town pageant to the logos of today s corporate industry and show how the ever evolving role of ornament is to invent and embody the collective spirit of communities at work and at leisure They conclude by discussing how the Western tradition of ornament has responded to and absorbed exotic African and Asian motifs Moresque motifs of the Near East and such familiar designs as the Paisley and Willow patterns “The” Illustrated London News ,1860 Spirit of the Times and the New York Sportsman ,1864
