was the creation of a new society separate from the United States dedicated to the preservation and expansion of slavery into Latin America The KGC existed in almost every state in the Union but nowhere was it as powerful and successful as it was in Texas Several governors many senators and military leaders were members having taken an oath to support the organization and their fellow members Most of the documents generated by the KGC were destroyed after the war ended as its members feared execution for treason Not everything was destroyed though This book relies on documents created by the organization and its members that have not previously been used by researchers Many members of this organization remained in positions of authority in state affairs after the abolition of slavery This book goes far beyond previous published work in establishing the identities of the members of this organization who promoted and encouraged the most disastrous war in American history Randolph W Farmer is a native Texan from a family whose ancestors first came to Texas as early as 1817 when it was still a Spanish possession He is the author of two previously published books on Texas history The Reference Librarian's Bible Steven W. graduation to fight with US troops during the Spanish American War After the war he worked as a draftsman ran a veneers business patented and manufactured a parking brake for horse drawn delivery wagons taught school and ran a lumber yard In his early thirties he bought some farmland north of Denver and began raising Guernsey cattle which he advertised for sale in the local paper When an interested buyer eager to see his calves couldn't find his farm Plato realized that an RFD postal address was only good for delivering mail Farmers had started buying cars and trucks but without adequate maps and signage townsfolk couldn't visit them and they couldn't easily find each other Plato's solution was a map and directory combo that used direction and distance from a local business center to give farmers a real address just like city folk He patented his invention and tried to sell it to the Post Office which took a pass their business was delivering mail not facilitating travel Because the clockface's hours provided the directions he called his strategy the Clock System Some Chicago promoters became intrigued but after their plans failed to gel he decided to produce the maps himself Rural sociologists at Cornell who considered the Clock System an antidote for rural isolation encouraged him to start a business in Ithaca where he mapped a dozen New York counties until the Great Depression intervened and he left to work as a government mapmaker in Washington Between 1936 after his patent had expired and 1940 some Ithaca businessmen validated the concept by making Compass System maps for half the state's counties
