GALE, 2016 Valley Song Athol Fugard, 1996-04-01 Rarely has a playwright been so closely identified with his country and his people as Athol Fugard has with South Africa Valley Song is a work of healing and of envisioning the future This coming of age story about a young girl seeking the courage to embrace the future while her grandfather searches for the wisdom to let go of the past A Literary Guide to the Eastern Cape Jeanette Eve, 2003 The Eastern Cape is a country of great natural beauty and tourist potential and has produced a wealth of writers and writings that have responded to the landscape in a variety of interesting and enjoyable ways The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Klopper, Craig Mackenzie, 2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945 The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim, 2000-09-22 Albert Wertheim's study of Fugard's plays is both extremely insightful and beautifully written This book is aimed not only at teachers students scholars and performers of Fugard but also at the person who simply loves going to see a Fugard play at the theatre Nancy Topping Bazin Eminent Scholar and Professor Emerita Old Dominion University Athol Fugard is considered one of the most brilliant powerful and theatrically astute of modern dramatists The energy and poignancy of his work have their origins in the institutionalized racism of his native South Africa and more recently in the issues facing a new South Africa after apartheid Albert Wertheim analyzes the form and content of Fugard's dramas showing that they are more than a dramatic chronicle of South African life and racial problems Beginning with the specifics of his homeland Fugard's plays reach out to engage more far reaching issues of human relationships race and racism and the power of art to evoke change The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard demonstrates how Fugard's plays enable us to see that what is performed on stage can also be performed in society and in our lives how inverting Shakespeare Athol Fugard makes his stage the world

The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2015-11-19 South Africa has a uniquely rich and diverse theatre tradition which has responded energetically to the country's remarkable transition helping to define the challenges and contradictions of this young democracy This volume considers the variety of theatre forms and the work of the major playwrights and theatre makers producing work in democratic South Africa It offers an overview of theatre pioneers and theatre forms in Part One before concentrating on the work of individual playwrights in Part Two Through its wide ranging survey of indigenous drama written predominantly in the English language and the analysis of more than 100 plays a detailed account is provided of post apartheid South African theatre and its engagement with the country's recent history Part One offers six overview chapters on South African theatre pioneers and theatre forms These include consideration of the work of artists such as Barney Simon Mbongeni Ngema Phyllis Klotz the collaborations of William Kentridge and the Handspring Puppet Company the work of Magnet Theatre and of physical and popular community theatre forms Part Two features chapters on twelve major playwrights including Athol Fugard Reza de Wet Lara Foot Zakes Mda Ya l Farber Mpumelelo Paul Grootboom Mike van Graan and Brett Bailey It includes a survey of emerging playwrights and significant plays and the book closes with an interview with Aubrey Sekhabi the Artistic Director of the South African State Theatre in Pretoria Written by a team of over twenty leading international scholars The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre is a unique resource that will be invaluable to students and scholars from a range of different disciplines as well as theatre practitioners

My Life and Valley Song Athol Fugard, 1996 My Life is based on the diaries of five South African girls who were growing into womanhood in 1994 The perspective of each young woman on her country and her people is conveyed with a mixture of naivety exuberance warmth and humour A small Karoo town provides the setting for Valley Song which explores the theme of youth in search of itself and provides a lyrical metaphor for the new South Africa in which it was set and has been termed one of Fugard's most endearing plays

The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head, 2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without African Theatre Martin Banham,James Morel Gibbs,James Gibbs,Femi Osofisan,2002 The contributions to this volume in the African Theatre series make clear that the role of women in the theatre across the continent has changed as control is mainly held by literate elites and women s traditional standing has been lost to men G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,2000 Communication Catalog 2005 Neil Thomson,2004-09 From Page to Stage Rosemary Ingham,1998 What steps are involved in making the jump from a script s text to an engaging imaginative stage From Page to Stage explores the relationships between text analysis imagination and creation The Undergraduate's Companion to African Writers and Their Web Sites Miriam E. Conteh-Morgan,2005-10-30 Now a firmly established part of world literature course offerings in many general education curricula African literature is no longer housed exclusively with African Studies programs and is often studied in English French Portuguese Women s Studies and Comparative Studies departments This book helps fill the great need for research materials on this topic presenting the best resources available for 300 African writers These writers have been carefully selected to include both well known writers and those less commonly studied yet highly influential They are drawn from both the Sub Sahara and the Maghreb the major geographical regions of Africa The study of Africa was introduced into the curriculum of institutions of higher learning in the United States in the 1960s when the Black Consciousness movement in the United States and the Cold War and decolonization movements in Africa created a need for the systematic study of other regions of the world Between 1986 and 1991 three Africans won Nobel literature prizes Soyinka Mahfouz and Gordimer and the visibility of African writers increased They are now a firmly established part of world literature courses in many general education curricula throughout North America African Writers is meant to serve as a resource for introductory material on 300 writers from 39 countries These writers were selected on the basis on two criteria that there is material on them in an easily available reference work and that there is some information of research value on free Web sites Each writer is from the late 19th or 20th century with the notable exception of Olaudah Equiano an 18th century African whose slave narrative is generally considered the first work of African literature All entries are annotated Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America,2008 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 Storyscapes Hein Viljoen,C. N. Van der Merwe,2004 In Storyscapes we listen carefully to what South African writers reveal about themselves and their relations to South African space since the democratic transition of 1994 One main focus is the power of stories to uncover contradictory processes and investments of identity and to point readers toward a more meaningful life Another main focus is the complexities of the post colonial understanding of South African land landscape and space Space in relation to race class and gender identity figures prominently in analyses and comparisons of diverse South African texts such as Breyten Breytenbach's Dog Heart Andr Brink's Imaginings of Sand as well as the important South African subgenre of the farm novel Questions of black or hybrid identity are highlighted by confronting older texts with new ones by black and women writers such as A H M Scholtz and E K M Dido These texts and a number of Afrikaans texts that are less well known in the English speaking world are set in the wider frameworks of postcolonial criticism and global issues of cultural identity
