Working from Within Luis Urrieta,2010-01-30 Combining approaches from anthropology and cultural studies Working from Within examines how issues of identity agency and social movements shape the lives of Chicana and Chicano activist educators in U S schools Luis Urrieta Jr skillfully utilizes the cultural concepts of positioning figured worlds and self authorship along with Chicano Studies and Chicana feminist frameworks to tell the story of twenty four Mexican Americans who have successfully navigated school systems as students and later as activist educators Working from Within is one of the first books to show how identity is linked to agency individually and collectively for Chicanas and Chicanos in education Urrieta set out to answer linked questions How do Chicanas and Chicanos negotiate identity ideology and activism within educational institutions that are often socially culturally linguistically emotionally and psychologically alienating Analyzing in depth interviews with twenty four educators Urrieta offers vivid narratives that show how activist identities are culturally produced through daily negotiations Urrieta s work details the struggles of activist Chicana and Chicano educators to raise consciousness in a wide range of educational settings from elementary schools to colleges Overall Urrieta addresses important questions about what it means to work for social justice from within institutions and he explores the dialogic spaces between the alternatives of reproduction and resistance In doing so he highlights the continuity of Chicana and Chicano social movement the relevance of gender and the importance of autochthonous frameworks in understanding contemporary activism Finally he shows that it is possible for minority activist educators to thrive in a variety of institutional settings while maintaining strong ties to their communities
