Roughhouse Friday Jaed Coffin, 2019-06-18 A beautifully crafted memoir about fathers and sons masculinity and the lengths we sometimes go to in order to confront our past A lucidly written memoir Coffin s triumph lies in ridding the language of his father a language that compelled him to dwell in a house he did not recognize Matthew Janney The Los Angeles Review of Books While lifting weights in the Seldon Jackson College gymnasium on a rainy autumn night Jaed Coffin heard the distinctive whacking sound of sparring boxers down the hall A year out of college he had been biding his time as a tutor at a local high school in Sitka Alaska without any particular life plan That evening Coffin joined a ragtag boxing club For the first time he felt like he fit in Coffin washed up in Alaska after a forty day solo kayaking journey Born to an American father and a Thai mother who had met during the Vietnam War Coffin never felt particularly comfortable growing up in his rural Vermont town Following his parents prickly divorce and a childhood spent drifting between his father's new white family and his mother's Thai roots Coffin didn't know who he was much less what path his life should follow His father's notions about what it meant to be a man formed by King Arthur legends and calcified in the military did nothing to help After college he took to the road working odd jobs and sleeping in his car before heading north Despite feeling initially terrified Coffin learns to fight His coach Victor the Savage invites him to participate in the monthly Roughhouse Friday competition where men contend for the title of best boxer in southeast Alaska With every successive match Coffin realizes that he isn't just fighting for the championship belt he is also learning to confront the anger he feels about a past he never knew how to make sense of Deeply honest and vulnerable Roughhouse Friday is a meditation on violence and abandonment masculinity and our inescapable longing for love It suggests that sometimes the truth of what's inside you comes only if you push yourself to the extreme

The Saga of the Lion and the Lamb JZ Z Greiner, 2018-05-17 Erik Christian Denman was a youthful genius general in the Royal Danish Army who went rogue after the Danish occupation by Nazis in WWII Leading a group of elite saboteurs and assassins to uncountable and legendary victories in the final months of 1944 he made a series of strange decisions that seemingly put him and his men in mortal danger With him as a brilliant militarist and fearsome combatant coveted by nation states across Europe his men wondered if Danish General Denman was a gifted warrior who would lead them to continued victories or a genius madman who would get them killed With questions haunting him about life that man had yet to answer and might never answer General Denman was not certain he was the godsend saint people believed him to be or the spawn of Satan he feared he might be In December of 1944 in the midst of battle his men realized that they had a very very dangerous man on their hands Deliberately idealized and idyllic to depict his diametrically opposed selves graphically General Denman's cast of characters are likeable men and women to be enjoyed and admired as they live through his saga with him often pulling him in opposing directions or supporting him lovingly Plagued by remorseful doubt and whipped to the core body and soul General Denman struggled to continue to do his dirty job While he performed superbly like us he was unaware of how he had impacted their lives General Erik Christian Denman made his way among people who did not understand him with his God Who did not understand him in a world that did not understand him like the rest of us Eventually the disconnected pieces of the puzzle of his life formed a complete picture Though he was once tormented by the unwelcome assaults of despair and resignation his end of days was an affirmation of hope and a celebration of his virtue

Death in 2000 in Maine of Kassidy Bortner and the Wrongful Conviction of Chad Evans in New Hampshire Morrison Bonpasse,2011-08-17 Chad Emery Evans was wrongfully convicted in December 2001 in New Hampshire of the murder of Kassidy Bortner the 21 month old daughter of his girlfriend Amanda Bortner The causes of her death and her injuries are mysterious and disputed but Chad was convicted of second degree murder On June 2 2000 Chad met Amanda and their relationship grew rapidly By early July Amanda and Chad were living together Chad s three year old son Kyle also lived in the home several days a week through shared custody with Chad s former wife On the morning of November 9 2000 Amanda took Kassidy to the Kittery Maine home of her sister Jennifer Bortner and her sister s boyfriend Jefferey Marshall for babysitting for the day Kassidy had a new bruise on one eye due to an accident the previous night when Chad was giving Kyle some batting practice with a brown plastic bat in Kyle s bedroom just before bedtime While wiffle balls were usually used for such fun the ball that Kyle hit into Kassidy s eye was a Tee ball The resulting bruise to Kassidy s left eye was the latest of a series of bruises which had been observed by many people during the fall of 2000 In a time of growing sensitivity to child abuse most of the responsible adults close to Kassidy chose to believe that the bruises and injuries were unfortunate accidents and that they didn't require medical care right away. The life-threatening severity of the injuries was not known or suspected by anyone. Tragically, those adults including Chad Evans were unaware that there was something very wrong with Cassidy because of the accidents or perhaps because of a chronic condition, disease, or toxin. Chad Evans never spanked nor hit Cassidy Bortner. He loved and cared for her. Shortly after Noon on the 9th, Jeff Marshall checked on Cassidy and recognized that she was in trouble and seemingly lifeless, and he made several phone calls for help. The EMTs and Kittery Police arrived quickly, but Cassidy was dead when they arrived. As the man living with Cassidy's mother, Amanda Bortner, Chad Evans was an initial suspect. By the time of Chad's 7:10 p.m. interview with the police and within about seven hours of Cassidy's death, the police were focused entirely on Chad and worked thereafter to build the case against him. At his December 2001 trial, Chad took his attorneys' advice not to testify, and his attorneys decided to call only one defense witness. They called the nationally renowned forensic pathologist Dr. Michael Baden, as they thought his testimony was sufficient to establish the reasonable doubt needed for a not guilty verdict. However, their assessment was wrong, and the jury found Chad guilty of most of the charges. In November 2002, Amanda Bortner was tried and found guilty of two counts of child endangerment and sentenced to two years in jail. In 2011, Chad Evans began his tenth year in the New Hampshire State Prison for crimes he didn't commit. He passed a lie detector test given in July 2010. In September 2010, a report was discovered of a DNA test conducted by the Maine State police in March 2001. The test on blood found underneath all ten of Cassidy Bortner's fingernails showed that the blood belonged to Cassidy. The DNA test on the substance on a paper towel found where Cassidy was sitting on the day she died showed saliva that belonged to a male. Prior to Chad's trial, the existence of the blood was in a report available to his defense lawyers, but it was not mentioned by anyone on either side at the trial. The DNA test and report was never disclosed to the defense. Also not disclosed was information about Cassidy's medical appointments in August and September 2000. The jury also did not know about a family gathering four days before Cassidy died, where only one bruise was seen on her right cheek. Eye Contact tells the story of the wrongful convictions of Chad and Amanda and the campaign for exoneration.
