'Gypsies' in Nineteenth-Century Children's Books Jean Kommers, 2023-03-06 This literary analysis of the representation of Gypsies in juvenile literature is unique in its comparative scope as well as in the special attention to rare pre 1850 narratives the period in which juvenile literature developed as a specific genre Most studies on the subject are about one national literary tradition or confined to a limited period In this study Dutch English French and German texts are analysed and discussed with reference to main academic publications on the subject Emphasis is on the rich variation in narrative presentations rather than on an inventory of images or prejudices An important topic is the fundamental difference between early English and German narratives Important because of the wide dissemination of German stories

The Stolen Bones of St. John of Matha A. Katie Harris, 2023-11-03 On the night of March 18 1655 two Spanish friars broke into a church to steal the bones of the founder of their religious institution the Order of the Most Holy Trinity This book investigates this little known incident of relic theft and the lengthy legal case that followed together with the larger questions that surround the remains of saints in seventeenth century Catholic Europe Drawing on a wealth of manuscript and print sources from the era A Katie Harris uses the case of St John of Matha s stolen remains to explore the roles played by saints relics the anxieties invested in them their cultural meanings and the changing modes of thought with which early modern Catholics approached them While in theory a relic s authenticity and identity might be proved by supernatural evidence in practice early modern Church authorities often reached for proofs grounded in the material human world preferences that were representative of the standardizing and streamlining of sixteenth and seventeenth century saint making Harris examines how Matha s advocates deployed material and documentary proofs locating them within a framework of Scholastic concepts of individuation identity change and persistence and applying moral

Women and Death Helen Fronius,Anna Linton,2008 Identifies and analyzes thematizations of women and death from the past five centuries illuminating the present and recent past The theme of women and death is pervasive in the German culture of the past five centuries With the conviction that only an interdisciplinary approach can explore a typology as far reaching and significant as this and in accordance with the feminist tenet that images are accountable for norms this volume investigates how iconic representations of women and death came about and why they endure Traditionally representations of women as agents of death when they have been considered at all have been considered separately from women as victims as though there was no shared thematic ground Here familiar depictions of female victims are examined alongside the more unsettling spectacle of women as killers exposing cultural assumptions Essays explore among others the themes of virgin sacrifice and female infanticides Death and the Maiden in art female vampires in literature and women killers in the media Others compare cultural practices such as female mourning across historical contexts examining change and the reasons for it The authors judgments eschew the simplistic and programmatic contributing not just to current research in German literature but also to understanding of cultural history in general Contributors Stephanie Knoll Ruth B Bottigheimer Anna Linton Bettina Bildhauer Mary Lindemann Helen Fronius Anna Richards Jürgen Barkhoff Lawrence Kramer Kathrin Hoffmann Curtius Clare Bielby Gisela Ecker Anna Linton is Lecturer in German at Kings College London and Helen Fronius is an AHRC Research Fellow and College Lecturer at Exeter College Oxford
