Bastardy Sébastien Lefait, Philippe Ortoli, 2012-03-15 Cinema may be called a bastard art in both meanings of the word because it is usually defined as a hybrid art form obviously but also and perhaps more importantly because it has been able to become formally as well as generically innovative mostly through adulterous relationships thus making illegitimacy its grounding principle by preferring a blurred lineage to a legible succession Trying to find what film is referred to in a sequence therefore amounts to establishing a clear family tree which takes no account of the illegitimate unions natural children and forgotten ancestors that are nevertheless part and parcel of film history If that quest should still be conducted its object it seems should not be one sole point of reference The aim of this book is to create the opportunity of studying and perhaps of rehabilitating those shadowy corners of cinematographic creation and film memory and to provide film studies but also literature and Arts studies altogether with a newly productive way of using such familiar notions as difference quotation reference blending hybridity miscegenation or crossbreeding Le cinéma d'animation - 3e éd. Sébastien Denis, 2017-04-12 Cet ouvrage fait le point sur les techniques les thématiques et les différents champs couverts depuis plus d'un siècle par le cinéma d'animation anime japonaise films en 3D films d'auteur fort investissement esthétique Vritable travail de synthèse et d'analyse il s'efforce de mettre en évidence l'extraordinaire potentiel de l'animation un potentiel à la fois narratif plastique et philosophique puisque l'imaginaire des cinéastes ne connaît pour ainsi dire aucune frontière un potentiel économique galement au risque de la standardisation et de la banalisation de l'imaginaire animé D'ailleurs Hayao Miyazaki en passant par Norman McLaren et Walt Disney ce sont autant d'univers différents qui s'ouvrent au spectateur et l'historien du cinéma More

Thought as Experience in Bataille, Cioran, and Rosset Joseph Acquisto, 2024-06-13 Examines how postwar French writers constitute the thinking subject and reshape its relation to the external social world Joseph Acquisto analyzes the writings of three thinkers during and shortly after the Second World War who address the question of what it means to think and what it means to constitute oneself as a thinking subject at a time that seems to come after everything with the ruins of attacked cities echoing the remains of a philosophical tradition that was confident in its establishment of human beings as rational of reason leading to progress and of both the self and the world as knowable What Georges Bataille calls inner experience and Emil Cioran labels thinking against oneself is something akin to a drama not a mere representation of the self in relation to the world but a process of remapping the relation of subject to object of thought dialectically Acquisto argues that both writers adopt an anti systematic approach to thinking that implicates fragmentary writing as a way of turning answers about subject object relations into questions Acquisto contends that this stands in contrast to the approach of Clement Rosset whose affirmation of the inaccessibility of the real leads to an anti intellectual grace filled affirmation of life as it is given under the guise of what he calls the tragic Bringing together thinkers that have seldom been discussed in a comparative light Thought as Experience in Bataille Cioran and Rosset examines the affective dimensions of thought as experience and considers the political stakes of postwar thought as out of order with the world from which it springs
