her children should hear nothing but fairy tales and the stories of nursery life now so popular But she could find nothing else fit to read to them There are indeed plenty of story books drawing their materials from history and professing to be intended for children But they are not suited to very young children They abound in words and ideas which a child of four or six years old not only does not understand but cannot be made to understand The writer however believed that it was quite possible to put portions of Livy and Plutarch into language which should need little or no explanation even to children of that age She accordingly made the experiment One story after another was written and read to her little boys Whenever she discovered that a word or idea was unintelligible to them she took pains to simplify it She found that they thoroughly enjoyed these old tales from Roman history and liked to hear them repeated again and again About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The City of the Seven Hills Caroline H.
