

AITA For Getting My Husband A Deep Tissue Massage For His Birthday?

This just happened, and I (30F) am FUMING. It's my husband's (32M) birthday. I've been so excited about his birthday because we recently decided to get each other presents. Before, we would acknowledge the day but not officially give presents.

So a week ago I asked him what he wanted, and he replied, "I don't know." So, one night, I saw an Instagram ad for a chiropractic clinic. It was a video of a deep-tissue massage. I sent it to him like, "Hey, this looks cool," and he replied, "Wow, OMG, I would give anything to have a massage. I've been needing one for so long." Then, cue his "I need a massage" comments every day for the next 3 days.

So I decided to seek out a really good remedial massage therapist and book him a 1 hr massage that cost me $100. I was really happy with this gift. I thought he would appreciate it, and it's a useful gift.

The next few days, I kept telling him I got him something, and he kept asking what. I wanted to surprise him. He kept saying, "I don't like surprises. Just tell me, in case it's something I don't want." But, in my head, I'm thinking, "You 100% want this!" because he's been going on nonstop about how much he wants a massage. Well, how wrong I was.

So it's the morning of his birthday. I'm so excited. I told him I booked him a deep tissue massage for 6 pm, and the following is our conversation.
