When I Was a Loser John McNally, 2007-03-06 For Anyone Who's Ever Been a Teenager Who's teenage years weren't terrible Remember the scary older kids The sadistic gym teacher The smelly kid who sat next to you in science class Your first fumbling kiss That time you threw up in the cafeteria Your first attempt at putting on a condom The period that arrived unexpectedly That awful fight with your parents The first time you got drunk That note you wrote that you shouldn't have written The day you forgot to zip your fly That monster zit When you wondered would it all end In When I Was a Loser John McNally author of the novel America's Report Card assembles twenty-five original essays often hilarious sometimes tenderhearted always evocative about defining moments of high school loserdom Brad Land Julianna Baggott Owen King Johanna Edwards and many more fresh talented writers explore their own angst humiliation heartache and other staples of teen life These essays perfectly capture what it was like to be in high school to experience so many things for the first time to assert independence while desperately trying to fit in to feel misunderstood and unable to articulate the wild swings between heartbreak anger and euphoria One writer recalls how his grandmother helped him with his home perm in preparation for the Senior Class picture another recounts her discovery sometime after hitting puberty of the power she held over boys and men while at the same time she felt herself at their mercy a third remembers the casual cruelties visited on him by the cooler kids and the cruelties he in turn inflicted on kids below him on the social ladder Utterly candid and compulsively readable these essays conjure up and untangle those raw and formative years The writers cringe and laugh at the teenagers they were but at the same time they honor their adolescence and the way it shaped their lives Because in truth beneath the layers of adult respectability we all still carry a little bit of our teenage selves around with us

The Poet of Tolstoy Park Sonny Brewer, 2006-03-28 The more you transform your life from the material to the spiritual domain the less you become afraid of death Leo Tolstoy spoke these words and they became Henry Stuart's raison d'être The Poet of Tolstoy Park is the unforgettable novel based on the true story of Henry Stuart's life which was reclaimed from his doctor's belief that he would not live another year Henry responds to the news by slogging home barefoot in the rain It's 1925 The place Canyon County Idaho Henry is sixty seven a retired professor and a widower who has been told a warmer climate would make the end more tolerable San Diego would be a good choice Instead Henry chose Fairhope Alabama a town with utopian ideals and a haven for strong minded individualists Upton Sinclair Sherwood Anderson and Clarence Darrow were among its inhabitants Henry bought his own ten acres of piney woods outside Fairhope Before dying underscored by the writings of his beloved Tolstoy Henry could begin to perfect the soul awarded him and rest in the faith that he and all people would succeed even if it took eons Human existence Henry believed continues in a perfect circle unmarred by flaws of personality irrespective of blood and possessions and rank and separate from organized religion In Alabama until his final breath he would chase these high ideas But first Henry had to answer up for leaving Idaho Henry s dearest friend and intellectual sparring partner Pastor Will Webb and Henry s two adult sons Thomas and Harvey were baffled and angry that he would abandon them and move to the Deep South living in a barn there while he built a round house of handmade concrete blocks His new neighbors were perplexed by his eccentric behavior as well On the coldest day of winter he was barefoot a philosopher and poet with ideas and words to share with anyone who would listen And mysteriously his last few months became years He had gone looking for a place to learn lessons in dying and studiously advanced to claim a vigorous new life The Poet of Tolstoy Park is a moving and irresistible story a guidebook of the mind and spirit that lays hold of the heart Henry Stuart points the way through life s puzzles for all of us becoming in this timeless tale a character of such dimension that he seems more alive now than ever The Alumni Grill Suzanne Kingsbury, William Gay, 2004 As the popular Blue Moon Cafe series moves to its third volume The Alumni Girl showcases award winning veterans from the first two Blue Moon Cafe collections handpicked by editors William Gay and Suzanne Kingsbury Stories from the Blue Moon Cafe Sonny Brewer, 2003 Thirty of today s finest Southern writers including Pat Conroy and Rick Bragg serve up an intoxicating blend of stories essays and poetry Best New American Voices, 2008 Richard Bausch, John Kulka, Natalie Danford, 2007 This year s volume featuring 17 new stories selected by award winning novelist John Casey continues the tradition of identifying the best young writers on the cusp of their careers Between Here and the Yellow Sea Nic Pizzolatto, 2010-05-22 A debut collection of short fiction from this National Magazine Award in Fiction finalist Set in a variety of Southern and Midwestern landscapes from Missouri s Ha Ha Tonka State Park to a crop circle at a Minnesotan farm the stories in Between Here and the Yellow Sea excavate the ambiguous terrain of the human heart With a forceful and compassionate voice Pizzolatto finds beauty in loneliness as his characters attempt to bridge the gulfs between themselves and others past and present and sometimes between their inner and outer selves In this both heartbreaking and humorous collection we meet a base jumping samurai park ranger who parachutes off the St Louis Arch a stained glass artist who struggles over his masterpiece and learns through great loss what his true subject will be and a religious elementary school teacher who tries to understand her rebellious militant son In the title story which first appeared in the Atlantic Monthly an orphaned young man and his former high school football coach set out to kidnap the coach s daughter from Los Angeles and bring her back to east Texas With an assured poignant voice Pizzolatto places us at the crossroads of memory and desire somewhere between here and the Yellow Sea Larry Brown Jean W. Cash, 2011-07-20 Winner of the 2011 Eudora Welty Prize Larry Brown 1951 2004 was unique among writers who started their careers in the late twentieth century Unlike most of them his friends Clyde Edgerton Jill McCorkle Rick Bass and Kaye Gibbons among others he was neither a product of a writing program nor did he teach at one

In fact he did not even attend college His innate talent his immersion in the life of north Mississippi and his determination led him to national success Drawing on excerpts from numerous letters and material from interviews with family members and friends Larry Brown A Writer s Life is the first biography of a landmark southern writer Jean W Cash explores the cultural milieu of Oxford Mississippi and the writers who influenced Brown including William Faulkner Flannery O Connor Harry Crews and Cormac McCarthy She covers Brown s history in Mississippi the troubled family in which he grew up and his boyhood in Tula and Yocona Mississippi and in Memphis Tennessee She relates stories from Brown s time in the Marines his early married life which included sixteen years as an Oxford fireman and what he called his apprenticeship period the eight years during which he was teaching himself to write publishable fiction The book examines Brown s years as a writer the stories and novels he wrote his struggles to acclimate himself to the fame his writing brought him and his many trips outside Yocona where he spent the last thirty years of his life The book concludes with a discussion of his posthumous fame including the publication of A Miracle of Catfish the novel he had nearly completed just before his death Brown s cadre of fans will relish this comprehensive portrait of the man and his work A Thin Difference Frank Turner Hollon,2005-09-16 A penny ante lawyer tries to free an innocent man while battling personal demons Life is a Strange Place Frank Turner Hollon,2003 After he is attacked by the angry father of a teenage girl he had seduced compulsive womanizer Barry Munday awakens in the hospital to find his most prized possessions his gonads have been surgically removed
