Stories From The Heartland:

Home Sweet Home ,2008 Short Stories from the Heartland Judi Wells,2006-03-29 What I Remember ...

Stories from the Heartland Wayne Christiansen,2025-03-15 This is a collection of short stories written over many years originally meant for the author s two daughters He wanted them to know what it was like growing up how when and where he did As a boy the author spent a great deal of time listening to the conversations of adults He was an observer who it turns out had a very good memory His family urged him to expand his audience and share this glimpse of life in small town Iowa during the 1950s and 1960s The stories are based in fact and actual events with some liberties taken regarding chronology and dialogue for effect Living in small towns in Iowa during the 50s and 60s had its advantages and disadvantages It was certainly isolated and protected from the world at large In a town where everyone knows everyone it s difficult to keep secrets hide misbehavior or act outside certain norms Friends and family made certain that its young residents were imbued with a sense of honor respect and pride for family hometown and state Stories from the Heartland David
