Notes and Queries: a Medium of Inter-communication for Literary Men, Artists, Antiquaries, Genealogists, Etc, 1897 Five Weeks at Humanitas Manfred Jurgensen, 2018-11-01 Manfred Jurgensen was born between Denmark and Germany in the coastal border town of Flensburg in 1940 a midnight child He has always been sensitive to boundaries and what's beyond the borders emotionally and physically He has chosen to reveal his life history to a very large extent dominated by World War II and its aftermath in a highly original and unusual form The protagonist and his lifetime experiences are wrapped within a semi-fictional presentation that he suggests might be called autofiction or perhaps a bio novel Throughout the narrative he philosophises about the nature of coincidence as a life force Switzerland formerly known as the excessively clean and prosperous neutral country of war-torn Europe is the symbolic present-day setting for this imaginative narrative It begins just after he suffers a nervous breakdown while delivering a doctoral seminar at the University of Basle In a luxurious sanatorium for mentally disturbed patients called Humanitas he is asked to write about his life experiences including his own awareness of the Nazi era and what it meant to be one of Hitler's children he is regularly interviewed by a Board of distinguished psychiatrists based on these accounts An involuntary prisoner he longs to achieve his freedom and be reunited with his wife H. G. Adler Peter Filkins, 2019-02-12 The biography of H G Adler 1910-88 is the story of a survivor of Theresienstadt Auschwitz and two other concentration camps who not only lived through the greatest cataclysm of the 20th century but someone who also devoted his literary and scholarly career to telling the story of those who perished in over two dozen books of fiction poetry history sociology and religion And yet for much of his life he remained almost entirely unknown A writer's writer a scholar of seminal pioneering works on the Holocaust a renowned radio essayist in postwar Germany a last representative of the Prague Circle of literature headed by Kafka a key contributor to the prosecution in the trial of Adolf Eichmann Adler was a man of his time whose times lived through him His is the story of many others but also one that is singularly his own And at its heart lies a profound story of love and perseverance amid the loss of his first wife Gertrud Klepetar who accompanied her mother to the gas chamber in Auschwitz and the courtship and extended correspondence with Bettina Gross a Prague artist who escaped to the Britain only to later learn that her mother had also been in Theresienstadt with Adler before her eventual death in Auschwitz His delivery of a lecture in Theresienstadt commemorating Kafka s sixtieth birthday and with Kafka s favorite sister present the nurturing of a younger generation of artists and intellectuals including the Israeli artist Jehuda Bacon and the Serbian novelist Ivan Ivanji the preservation of Viktor Ullmann s compositions and his opera The Emperor of Atlantis only to see them premiered decades later to world acclaim and the penury of postwar life while churning out the novels poetry and scholarship that would make his reputation all of these are part of a life survived in the moment but dedicated to the future and that of a man committed to helping human dignity survive in his time and that to come
