Stories Of Culture And Place An Introduction To Anthropology:

Stories of Culture and Place Michael Kenny, Kirsten Smillie, 2014-11-20 This original introduction to cultural anthropology is a textbook like no other Structured as a narrative rather than a compendium of facts about cultures and concepts it invites students to think of anthropology as a series of stories that emerge from cultural encounters in particular times and places These moments of encounter are illustrated with reference to both classic and contemporary ethnographic examples from Coming of Age in Samoa to Coming of Age in Second Life allowing readers to grasp anthropology's sometimes problematic past while still capturing the excitement and potential of the discipline

Stories of Culture and Place Michael G. Kenny, 2017 Stories of Culture and Place makes use of one of anthropology's most enduring elements storytelling to introduce students to the excitement of the discipline

Pilgrimage, Politics and Place-Making in Eastern Europe John Eade, Mario Katić, 2016-04-22 Since the beginning of the anthropology of pilgrimage scant attention has been paid to pilgrimage and pilgrim places in central eastern and south eastern Europe Seeking to address such a deficit this book brings together scholars from central eastern and south eastern Europe to explore the crossing of borders in terms of the relationship between pilgrimage and politics and the role which this plays in the process of both sacred and secular place making With contributions from a range of established and new academics including anthropologists historians and ethnologists Pilgrimage Politics and Place Making in Eastern Europe presents a fascinating collection of case studies and discussions of religious political and secular pilgrimage across the region Digital Material Ann-Sophie Lehmann,Joost Raessens,Mirko Tobias Schäfer,Marianne Boomen,2025-10-01 Three decades of societal and cultural alignment of new media have yielded a host of innovations trials and problems accompanied by versatile popular and academic discourse New Media Studies crystallized internationally into an established academic discipline and this begs the question where do we stand now Which new questions are emerging now that new media are being taken for granted and which riddles are still unsolved Is contemporary digital culture indeed all about you the participating user or do we still not really understand the digital machinery and how this constitutes us as you The contributors to the present book all employed in teaching and researching new media and digital culture assembled their digital material into an anthology covering issues ranging from desktop metaphors to Web 2 0 ecosystems from touch screens to blogging and e learning from role playing games and cybergothic music to wireless dreams Together the contributions provide a showcase of current research in the field from what may be called a digital materialist perspective A compelling study of the often controversial role and meaning of the new media and digital cultures in contemporary society Waste-Site Stories Brian Neville,Johanne Villeneuve,2012-02-01 Ours is a wasteful society consumed with care for its remains according to the contributors of Waste Site Stories Here scholars from around the world probe current notions of waste and the ways in which remains of different kinds recover value in the act of recollection and recycling In the wake of destructive experiences that continue to trouble memory there is something compelling about today s theoretical and artistic interest in waste and recycling The two terms provide a purchase on changing conditions of cultural memory on technological development and its sometimes toxic ecological and social fallout and on the legacy of personal and historical trauma They suggest new resources for the stories of our engagement with the things of the past and the sites where traces of history survive The Child in Post-Apocalyptic Cinema Debbie Olson,2015-03-06 The child in many post apocalyptic films occupies a unique space within the narrative a space that oscillates between death and destruction faith and hope The Child in Post Apocalyptic Cinema interrogates notions of the child as a symbol of futurity and also loss By exploring the ways children function discursively within a dystopian framework we may better understand how and why traditional notions of childhood are repeatedly tethered to sites of adult conflict and disaster a connection that often functions to reaffirm the rightness of past systems of social order This collection features critical articles that explore the role of the child character in post apocalyptic cinema including classic recent and international films approached from a variety of theoretical methodological and cultural perspectives Urban Change in Iran Fatemeh Farnaz Arefian,Seyed Hossein Iradj Moeini,2015-12-18 This book based on conference excerpts investigates various aspects of contemporary Iranian urbanism The topics covered range from the impacts of political developments on the cities rapid socio economic developments to the cities troubled relationship with the country s built environment history and their frequently ill managed exposure to Western notions of development and globalisation Last but not least the country s vulnerability to natural disasters in an age of increasing urban population densification is also considered Alongside more theoretically and artistically oriented debates the book s individual contributions turn their attention to the now much higher proportion of urban dwellers in the country s rising population It also discusses the policies designed in response to these demographic moves including those to develop new towns find housing for the excess population in existing cities renovate historic buildings and create new public spaces The practice policy oriented contributions also include those concerning the country s responses to natural disasters

The Routledge Handbook of Place Tim Edensor, Ares Kalandides, Uma Kothari, 2020-05-26 The handbook presents a compendium of the diverse and growing approaches to place from leading authors as well as less widely known scholars providing a comprehensive yet cutting edge overview of theories concepts and creative engagements with place that resonate with contemporary concerns and debates The volume moves away from purely western based conceptions and discussions about place to include perspectives from across the world It includes an introductory chapter which outlines key definitions draws out influential historical and contemporary approaches to the theorisation of place and sketches out the structure of the book explaining the logic of the seven clearly themed sections Each section begins with a short introductory essay that provides identifying key ideas and contextualises the essays that follow The original and distinctive contributions from both new and leading authorities from across the discipline provide a wide rich and comprehensive collection that chimes with current critical thinking in geography The book captures the dynamism and multiplicity of current geographical thinking about place by including both state of the art in depth critical overviews of theoretical approaches to place and new explorations and cases that chart a framework for future research It charts the multiple ways in which place might be conceived situated and practised This unique comprehensive and rich collection will be an essential resource for undergraduate and graduate teaching for experienced academics across a wide range of disciplines and for policymakers and place marketers It will provide an invaluable and up to date guide to current thinking across the range of disciplines such as Geography Sociology and Politics and interdisciplinary fields such as Urban Studies Environmental Studies and Planning

Learning Disability and Everyday Life Alex Cockain, 2024-03-29 Learning Disability and Everyday Life brings into conversation ideas from social theory with thick descriptions of the everyday life of a middle aged man with learning disabilities and autism This book is markedly ethnographic in its orientation to the gritty graininess of everyday life eating drinking walking cooking talking and so on in with and alongside learning disability However preoccupation with the small coexists with a gaze intent upon capturing a bigger picture to the extent that the things constituting everyday life are deployed as prisms through and with which to critically reflect upon the wider worlds of disability and everyday life Such attention to the small and the big the micro and the macro allows this book to explore the ordinary and everyday ways meanings about normalcy and abnormalcy ability and disability are put together enacted practised made up in the sense of constituting and fabricating and crucially accomplished through and between people in specific and invariably contingent sociocultural discursive and material conditions of possibility This book will be of specific interest not only to students and scholars of disability but also to persons with lived experiences of disability This book will also be of interest to students and scholars of anthropology and sociology

Urban Space and Cityscapes Christoph Lindner, 2006-04-18 From the verticals of New York Hong Kong and Singapore to the sprawls of London Paris and Jakarta this interdisciplinary volume of new writing examines constructions representations imaginations and theorizations of cityscapes in modern and contemporary culture With specially commissioned essays from the fields of cultural theory architecture film literature visual art and urban geography it offers fresh insight into the increasingly complex relationship between urban space cultural production and everyday life This volume draws on critical urban studies and moves beyond familiar cultural representations of the city by considering urban planning and architecture Organized under three inter related themes image text and form essay topics range from the examination of cyberpunk skylines pagan urbanism and the cinema of urban disaster to the analysis of iconic city landmarks such as the twin towers the London Eye and the Judisches Museum Berlin Covering a diverse range of cities including Berlin Chicago Jakarta Johannesburg Hong Kong London Los Angeles Paris and Venice this fantastic resource for students scholars and researchers alike works expertly at the intersections of visual material and literary culture
