However, if your business interests are currently less attractive to the public – but you think they will be in the future – you may want to consider a business sale or franchise based on its long-term earning potential. Before you begin your search for a business, however, you should be sure to do your homework. You can find out a lot about potential opportunities through the following steps:

1. Identify your interests. Before you start your search, you should know what you are looking for. Do you want to be involved in a business that is already established or do you want to start a new business? Do you want to be involved in a business that is already established or do you want to start a new business? Do you want to be involved in a business that is already established or do you want to start a new business?
