

Valedictory Speech 2007

As our theme song states, There's a reason we are here. Tonight, we gather together as one graduating class, one school community, to celebrate a journey. Good evening teachers, parents, special guests and fellow graduates. This journey began just over a decade ago. As I look around tonight at all the graduates, I am flooded with memories. Of course, the first that comes to mind is a reflection to 12 years ago where our school experiences began. Each one of us undoubtedly remembers that first day of school. While we all did not attend the same elementary school, I am sure that our individual experiences on that particular day were quite unique and resemble similar feelings of anticipation and anxiety. Who walked who to the bus stop, who walked who to the school doors that day? Looking back, we know now that there were indeed mutual feelings of not wanting to let go. Our parents came to help us carry our lunch boxes, our school bags and to let us go from the security of home into this new setting, this new world that they knew would be a challenge for us, as it would be for them. Once the bell rang and the journey began, there was wonder about this new place that would become like a second home for us.

When we walked through the school doors, we all saw many new faces. In fact, I believe what got us through those first days were those new faces- our peers, our acquaintances and our potential friends who were right there beside us, feeling and experiencing the same changes that we were feeling.

Tonight, we sit here as the Crescent Collegiate graduating class of 2007; a group of determined and devoted students ready to encounter another new world, with many new faces. As we look around, we do not see the little girls and little boys that mom and dad watched leave home for the first time, but rather the energetic young adults that we have grown to be. We are all here because we have a reason to dress in the spirit of celebration, both individually and as a

Words Were All We Had Maria de la Ruz Reyes, 2015-04-17 This engaging collection examines the personal narratives of a select group of well respected educators who attained biliteracy when they were young students and in the era before bilingual education These autobiographical accounts celebrate and make visible a linguistic potential that has been largely ignored in schools the inextricable and emotional ties that Latinos have to Spanish The authors offer teachers important lessons about the individual potential of their Latino students These stories of tenacity and resilience offer hope for a new generation of bilingual learners who are too often forced to choose between English and their native language The Cult Next Door Judith L. Carlone, Elizabeth R. Burchard, LSW, 2017-03-18 During Thanksgiving vacation of her freshman year at Swarthmore College 1977 Elizabeth at her mother's insistence attended a stress reduction session with a biofeedback technician on staff at a Manhattan psychologist's office During that first visit this man filled her ears with prophetic visions of a glorious future the inheritance of those fortunate few who might choose to accompany him His confidence and charisma entranced her and she soon recruited two of her college roommates When the psychologist fired his assistant two years later Elizabeth and her mother followed Over the next decade this man a malevolent genius and master of manipulating metaphysical concepts to benefit a self-serving agenda organized a small dedicated band of followers The Group evolved into an incestuous family a cult Their brainwashed minds became fused with a distinctive New Age doctrine A coterie of spiritual Navy Seals they scrambled in terror training to survive the inevitable cataclysm one man's divine vision of Armageddon Subsequent to a momentous event in August 1994 with the guru as high priest The Black Dog Religion was born Elizabeth sank into a pit of despair darker than she ever could have imagined was possible From the adolescent gullibility which seduced her astray to the enlightenment which led her to freedom you will travel an incredible journey For anyone who has ever been trapped by a person who would not let them go within this book lies a message of hope The Snake Charmer Milo Kensrue, Eighth Grade Trudy L.
