

Grade 2 Paragraph Writing

The image displays three overlapping worksheet templates for paragraph writing, set against an orange background. A cartoon illustration of a hamburger is positioned in the lower right corner of the worksheet area.

- Paragraph Structure: This worksheet includes a title, a small hamburger icon, and instructions on how to write a paragraph. It features a box for the topic sentence and a list for three details. The text reads: "Next, comes the details. The details are connected to the topic sentence. These are the yummy toppings on the burger. Paragraphs usually have at least two or three details. Details are important because they offer support for the main idea of the paragraph." It also includes a section for "Complete the topic sentence below:" with the example "When I am older, I would like to" and a section for "Write three details to support your topic sentence." with a numbered list.
- Arranging Text: This worksheet has a title and instructions: "Read the sentences below. Cut them out and decide the correct order to make a complete paragraph." It includes a section for "Arrange the sentences in the correct order" with a numbered list of sentences about a best friend named Jorge.
- Paragraph Organizer: This worksheet has a title and instructions: "Use this organizer to write a paragraph describing...". It includes a section for "Write a topic sentence" and a section for "Write three details" with a numbered list.
