

My virtual Child Reflection

1. As our use of the program ends, what pathways does your child appear to be on in terms of physical, cognitive, social, emotional and moral development? Choose three aspects of your child to discuss. To what extent could you have predicted these pathways based on what you knew of your child's earlier development?

---1 point for discussing each of two pathways and 1 point each for providing supporting documentation (4 points)

2. Describe one specific way in which you think your parenting mattered for your child's development, based on evidence from the course regarding the contributions of parents to child development. Describe one specific way in which your child developed that appeared to be influenced by factors outside your control, such as genes, random environmental events or the general influence of contemporary middle-class American culture.

--- 1 point each for describing a parenting and non-parenting influences and 1 point for each example for providing evidence from the course that supports your choice of this influence as important (4 points)

3. Please explain three personal connections you made during this semester long assignment. These might include better understanding of a decision your parents made, impact on how you might parent, how you are parenting, the supports you might provide in your future career. These can be framed using the language "prior to this assignment I believed/understood _____, now I believe _____." This is because _____.

- 2 points each for specific descriptions of your shift in belief and supporting evidence. (6 points)

5. Did this lab provide a good practical application opportunity of the course content? Why or why not? Please provide at least 2 examples.

---2 points for each example. (4 points)

Virtual Child Reflection Papers:

Child's Play Re-envisioned through Virtual Reality Rene Novak, 2025-06-12 In this book Dr Rene Novak reveals new ways of understanding children's play by liberating it from the constraints of standardised educational agendas Drawing on Heidegger's concepts of Enframing and poiesis and phenomenological inquiry this innovative study explores how immersive virtual reality VR videos can serve as metaphysical laboratories Through vivid embodied experiences early childhood educators cross the cybernetic looking glass to become one with play and discover transformative insights for holistic child development Dr Rene Novak investigates the potential of immersive pedagogy by merging visual pedagogy with embodiment theory to highlight the critical role of teacher presence in educational phenomena Educators become invisible observers stepping inside the flow of play while relinquishing preconceived enframed discourses and misconceptions The result is a reshaping of pedagogy and policy steering away from prescriptive goals toward play as a self actualising educational experience By reconceptualising how free play unfolds this book challenges educators policymakers and parents to embrace the true essence of play in early learning This book is an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand how to foster creativity social emotional growth and deeper engagement in a play based curriculum

Student Empowerment in Higher Education. Reflecting on Teaching

Practice and Learner Engagement Anjoom A. Mukadam ,2020-05-04 Student Empowerment in Higher Education brings together the accumulated knowledge and experience of many accomplished teachers and students from higher education institutions around the world and has much to offer those who are engaged in higher education as students teachers or support staff The authors offer personal reflections in teaching learning mentoring assessment hands on activities course design and student identities in higher education across the globe supported by academic research and scholarship Readers are provided with a window into tried and tested empowering practices in varying contexts enabling them to see what works and what does not alongside the challenges and possibilities A distinctive feature of this book and its paramount strength is that it explores best practices in student empowerment whilst reflecting on matters of teaching and learning that are familiar to students and teachers alike and also explores practices in a variety of disciplines The intention of these volumes therefore is not only to inform readers about the diverse learning and teaching approaches of the authors but most importantly to facilitate processes of student empowerment and promote reflection on teaching and learning practices In recent decades higher education policy discourse has persistently implied that a university education is delivered to students under the impersonal banner of the student experience Not only does this commodify the diverse individual experiences of students into one marketable product it also creates false barriers and power dynamics between students and their teachers In Student Empowerment in Higher Education the students and lecturers who collaborated to write this important volume have literally blown such misleading notions out of the window I highly recommend each varied and autonomous chapter to learn what really inspires confidence and success in university students Professor Sarah Hayes Professor of Higher Education Policy University of Wolverhampton The two volumes of Student Empowerment in Higher Education offer the reader rich and varied examples and understandings of student empowerment from around the world The authors provide reflective accounts of learning and teaching from diverse perspectives and disciplines which focus on many different areas of practice in higher education It is this variety that will appeal to many readers as the source of ideas and inspiration for numerous possible routes to empowerment With many chapters co authored by students and staff the book models the collective responsibility students and staff have for enhancing student empowerment Dr Catherine Bovill Senior Lecturer in Student Engagement University of Edinburgh Fulbright Scholar Elon University North Carolina USA Visiting Fellow Knowledge Exchange University of Winchester
