

Sound Pollution

Sound pollution has become one of the big problems in India. Excessive noise is harmful to the health and cause imbalance to the human or animal life. Common sources of the sound pollution are household gadgets, transport, vehicles, planes, industrial machines. Common problems caused by the sound pollution are stress, anxiety, hearing loss sleep disruption headache etc. General awareness should be increased among common people. All the rules should be followed by every one in order to control the sound level in the environment. We can reduce sound pollution by using all the solutions and can make a healthy and happier society. If we all reduce the pollution and make the plantation everywhere, then people breathe healthy on this planet.

The Translocal Island of Okinawa Shinnosuke Takahashi, 2024-06-13 The Translocal Island of Okinawa reveals the underrepresented memories, visions, and actions that are involved in the making of Okinawan resistance against its subordinated status under the US-Japan security system beyond the narrowly defined political, cultural, and geographical borders of locality. As Okinawa's base politics is a problem deeply rooted in the context of East Asia, so is the history of the people's protest movement. The issue examined in this book is the arbitrary distinction of scale between local, which tends to be employed for a particular territory demarcated by a cohesive culture, and regional, a larger area that consists of myriad localities. Locality, Shinnosuke Takahashi here argues, is neither self-evident, fixed, nor homogenous but is established through historical processes that involve interaction, conflict, and negotiation of individuals and communities across territorial and cultural boundaries. This book reveals the novel concept of Okinawa as a translocal island, which offers a way to understand locality in the context of Okinawan activism as a product of multiple cultural and human flows, as opposed to the conventional way of framing the local community as fixed, internally cohesive, and rigidly bordered. It makes an exciting contribution to the field of modern Japanese and East Asian studies by stimulating discussions on the richness and scale of local civic activism that is increasingly becoming a key political feature of the East Asian region.

Developing Creative Thinking to Improve Academic Writing Azza Abugharsa, PhD, 2018-01-23 Developing Creative Thinking to Improve Academic Writing Part One fosters skills of critical thinking needed in academia in which graduation papers and other kinds of research assignments are written. Moreover, the book enhances the abilities of intermediate and upper-intermediate level international students to reflect on their own metacognition in order to produce well-structured essays. The purpose of this book is to help the students develop a high level of cognitive skills in order to analyze, examine, verify, and develop ideas required to process topics from new and/or multiple unfamiliar standpoints and generate as many details as possible about it. Improving critical thinking skills encourages the students to create new mental thinking channels and promote their own philosophy in their writing to make it thoroughly sophisticated.

International and National Discourse of Business and Children's Rights. Bangladesh Perspective Syeda Jhuma, Sarwar Hossain, 2016-10-10 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject Politics: General and Theories of International Politics. Language: English. Abstract: The idea of business and human rights is an emerging concept of international law. Human rights are greatly influenced positively or negatively by the business activities of transnational corporations, industries, and business enterprises. Consequently, business and children's rights are comparatively new and evolving agenda in international human rights law. Children's rights, both as right holders and stakeholders, have been affected by business activities. This article focuses on two basic questions: Firstly, how business activities affect the rights of children, especially child labourers' rights in the context of Bangladesh, and secondly whether the laws and regulations of domestic and international law is sufficient to redress the violation of children's rights. The article's premise is to find what should be the role of different actors in connection to the rights of children affected by the activities of business. The article concentrates on the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, the UNICEF Global Compact and Save the Children Children's Rights and Business Principles known as CRB Principles (May 2012) and the Committee on the Rights of the Child General Comment no 16 which deals with the obligations of states in relation to business and children's rights. Convention on the Rights of the Child, ILO Convention on the Worst Form of Child Labour and ILO
