Achieving Nelson Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa,Denver A. Webb,2024-08-20 South Africa s higher education sector is rooted in the country s divided past A significant State driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities But just over two decades later for a variety of reasons the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process The university is in an ongoing state of evolution of becoming It developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth Port Elizabeth Technikon and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005 In 2017 it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm imbues its strategy public statements and practices The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar A cross section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose framing itself as a values based university on a journey to become something else In Achieving Nelson Mandela University the university attempts to give an account of itself The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go

Creating the New African University

,2023-05-25 Creating the New African University grapples with the existence of African universities particularly in post independent Africa where Higher Education Institutions HEIs are supposed to live up to the expectations of being adaptive in dealing with prevalent complex dynamic contemporary and future challenges facing African societies The book tackles the issue of what ought to be done for African universities to maintain a structure and identity that ensures their relevance in Africa s development through generating and transforming knowledge into actions for the common good It engages issues within the context of how post colonial transformative obligations have been managed in light of the prevalent epistemological and pedagogical underpinnings that form the foundations of these universities as they seek to break from the clutches of colonial legacies This book further highlights an urgent need to do away with silos and embrace a multidisciplinary interdisciplinary transdisciplinary and cross disciplinary dialogical approach towards knowledge generation Such an approach is essential in efforts aimed at enhancing the sustainable reconfiguration of university structures and functions whilst linking knowledge produced to diverse social economic and political facets of African societies in ways that promote and sustain competitiveness in a rapidly globalising world beset with technological advancements

Universities, Inclusive Development and Social Innovation Claes Brundenius,Bo Göransson,José Manoel Carvalho de Mello,2016-10-25 This book examines the ways in which universities can play a crucial role in inclusive development social innovation and social entrepreneurship It aims to prove the importance of inclusive development and inclusive innovation on economic growth and demonstrate the ways in which universities can be pioneers in this area through initiatives in social responsibility and social innovation For example providing access to a university education without discrimination of race gender income status or other factors would help to diminish the increasing income differentials currently being experienced in many countries especially in the developing world The research and studies included in this book provide insight into possible actions that can be taken by universities and public and private shareholders in inclusive development social innovation social entrepreneurship and overall regional economic and social development Innovation is currently considered to be the most important and dynamic factor explaining growth and development At the same time the traditional view considering innovation as having to be commercialized at any price is being challenged Lately there has been growing interest in innovation in the public sector particularly with respect to social innovations designed to reduce income inequality To address these concepts constant exchange of ideas and information between research groups became necessary UniDev Universities in Development the Evolving Role of Academic Institutions in Innovation Systems and Development is an international research group with researchers in twelve countries interested in the role of universities in development This book features the results of research performed by eleven research groups from UniDev country communities presenting in depth and comparative case studies from universities around the world including Latin America Northern and Eastern Europe and sub Saharan Africa This title will be of interest to students academics researchers and policy makers interested in the role of universities in development social innovation and social entrepreneurship Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa Pundy Pillay,2010 This nine country study of higher education financing in Africa includes three East African states Kenya Tanzania and Uganda five countries in southern Africa Botswana Lesotho Mozambique Namibia and South Africa and an Indian Ocean island state Mauritius Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa explores trends in financing policies paying particular attention to the nature and extent of public sector funding of higher education the growth of private financing including both household financing and the growth of private higher education institutions and the changing mix of financing instruments that these countries are developing in response to public sector financial constraints This unique collection of African country case studies draws attention to the remaining challenges around the financing of higher education in Africa but also identifies good practices lessons and common themes Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa Pundy Pillay,2010-07-12 This nine country study of higher education financing in Africa includes three East African states Kenya Tanzania and Uganda five countries in southern Africa Botswana Lesotho Mozambique Namibia and South Africa and an Indian Ocean island state Mauritius Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa explores trends in financing policies paying particular attention to the nature and extent of public sector funding of higher education the growth of private financing including both household financing and the growth of private higher education institutions and the changing mix of financing instruments that these countries are developing in response to public sector financial constraints This unique collection of African country case studies draws attention to the remaining challenges around the financing of higher education in Africa but also identifies good practices lessons and common themes Accessing Post-School Studies Venica McGhie,2017-12-01 This publication makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and Saeljoe The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment Homeschooling High School Shirley Erwee, 2014-08-28 Prospective homeschoolers are parents looking for an alternative to the mainstream educational system for their offspring But homeschooling children at high school level strikes fear into even the most dedicated of homeschoolers They need information and answers to their questions And with the current educational and unemployment problems in South Africa young people need clear direction and guidance to help them achieve their goals In addition to exploring the popular ways to gaining a recognised matric certificate outside the formal school system Homeschooling High School also challenges readers to rethink their values particularly the value they place on certification and to consider some unconventional or alternative paths to success In a clearly presented format the book includes advice on legal matters identifying appropriate courses sourcing study material tips on entrepreneurship financing tertiary studies and the testimonies of successful homeschooled graduates Homeschooling High School is a comprehensive guide to plotting a path through high school and beyond
