The Dominant Male:

The Dominant Male Sarah Holland, Natsue Ogoshi, 2014-12-30 Rhiannon Windmorr is a powerhouse in the ad industry and when Gabriel Stone CEO of the world renowned Chauvin line of watches decides he wants to make use of her advertising prowess he gets what he wants But when he decides he also wants her in his bed will Rhiannon have the strength to fight back or will she succumb to the dominating man who wants her mind body and soul The Dominant Male Sarah Holland, 1997 The dominance of the male gaze in Hollywood Films Isabelle Fol, 2006-03-16 Inhaltsangabe Abstract The way in which media systems reflect our social environment and specifically how they represent and disseminate gender role models and have a lasting effect on the construction of identity is of long standing interest both in Gender Studies and in the literary and the visual arts In order to examine in particular the representation of women in the visual art of popular cinema The Dominance of the Male Gaze in Hollywood Films will thus focus on the image of women in mainstream Hollywood films Although media and specifically television and films are often considered to act largely as a social mirror films in fact often distort social reality and continue to reflect traditional stereotypical gender constructions In fact these traditional gender images are not simply mirrors of real life but also ideological signifiers In many mainstream films that pretend to depict reality a time lag separates true social circumstances from the film reality the movie produces Consequently this time lag also manifest in filmic representations of gender roles means for the women s movement that feminists have hardly been able to enact new images of women outside the patriarchal context of popular films or change female stereotypes and incorporate feminist thought into mainstream films Thus mainstream films do not propagate an image of emancipated women quite the reverse women are subordinate objects of the male gaze This general assumption has led to this thesis which will deal with the question of whether Hollywood films as representative of mainstream culture still disseminate patriarchal images of women dominated by the male gaze even though feminist thought has been part of our society for some decades now Located at the intersection of Media Studies Cultural Studies Sociology and Gender Studies this thesis will mainly follow the theoretical approach of the feminist film critic Laura Mulvey who developed the concept of the male gaze in her essay Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema Mulvey s concept shall contribute to the analysis of the thesis that the images of women in Hollywood films still correspond to conservative patriarchal stereotypes Within the scope of this still valid thesis one of the major restrictions was to narrow down the film analysis to merely Hollywood film production The reason for this restriction is first of all that Hollywood films representative of popular taste are globally The Dominant Male Arnold Daly, 2023-07-18 In this collection of essays and plays Arnold Daly examines the concept of the dominant male and its role in society Using his experiences in the theatrical world as a backdrop Daly discusses the ways in which male dominance is reinforced and challenged both on and off stage This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly acceptance of unreality amongst humans is due to their preference to believe the lies of those who advocate for their own selfish reasons that everything is possible and that the security of all humanity can be assured by means of belief in intangible entities of gods multi dimensions and time It may appear improbable that the intentions of Existence what it is and what we think it is to dismantle any of the erroneous notions and self deceptions has much chance of success considering how ingrained these beliefs are in human self awareness Still it is possible that the disclosures and explanations provided in the book may lead some readers to realize that the future of mankind depends not on the usual attitudes of selfish wants and desires but on unrestricted understanding of physical reality with all its limitations which can teach humanity to carefully manage not just its future existence but that of all other inhabitants on Earth in its care
