Excerpt from The Divine Human in the Scriptures A True faith in the Scriptures must have its strength in the Scriptures themselves This would seem to be a proposition of the clearest reason If the Bible be the word of God with a human voice then must it speak to the human soul directly as no other word no other voice can speak Too much have we relied on outward helps Not casting away then but leaving behind our Apologies for the Bible our Philosophies of the Bible our Reconciliations of the Bible with Science we should come directly to the Scriptures with the rational as well as reverent belief that if they are divine they must contain within themselves their own strong self evidencing power We would say to the young man disturbed with scepticism Read your Bible We would say to all who have difficulties which they honestly wish removed Study the Scriptures meditate therein by day and by night Nocturna versate manu versate diurna It is the only true and lasting cure of scepticism whether for an individual or an age It might be thought that there is some risk in the prescription and doubtless it may be so with its first effects for the difficulties and stumbling blocks may show themselves before the deep verities have begun to arrest and amaze the soul but let there be perseverance and the divine medicine will reveal its power the sun of righteousness will at length arise with healing in its wings About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Story of Scripture Robert L. Plummer, 2013-03-26 An excellent primer for those who want to understand who the original writers of the Bible were how the books of the Bible came together how we can be sure that the Bible is authoritative and what the differences are between modern translations Author Robert Plummer writes with a warm style in an accessible big questions format

The Authority and Interpretation of the Bible Jack Rogers, Donald K. McKim, 1999-02-05 This book is a detailed and comprehensive study of attitudes toward biblical authority and interpretation held from the beginnings of the Christian era to the present day In clear and readable fashion the authors examine the writings of early church fathers the medieval exegetes and the leaders of the Protestant Reformation to locate the source of and refute the position of inerrancy

The Doctrine of Scripture Brad East, 2021-08-27 When Holy Scripture is read aloud in the liturgy the church confesses with joy and thanksgiving that it has heard the word of the Lord What does it mean to make that confession And why does it occasion praise The doctrine of Scripture is a theological investigation into those and related questions and this book is an exploration of that doctrine It argues backward from the church's liturgical practice presupposing the truth of the Christian confession namely that the canon does in fact mediate the living word of the risen Christ to and for his people What must be true of the sacred texts of Old and New Testament alike for such confession and the practices of worship in which they are embedded to be warranted By way of an answer the book examines six aspects of the doctrine of Scripture its source nature attributes ends interpretation and authority The result is a catholic and ecumenical presentation of the historic understanding of the Bible common to the people of God across the centuries an understanding rooted in the church's sacred tradition in service to the gospel and redounding to the glory of the triune God

The Inspiration and Authority of the Bible Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield, 2025-07-15T00:00:00Z If the Bible is written by fallible human beings how can its words convey divine revelation Perhaps the greatest challenge of Warfield's lifetime was the modernist skepticism of biblical inspiration and authority Warfield responded to modernist biblical critics by showing that intellect of the biblical authors not only remained fully operational and engaged but that God also worked through human words and texts to convey divine revelation

Theorizing Scriptures Vincent L. Wimbush, 2008 Historically religious scriptures are defined as holy texts that are considered to be beyond the abilities of the layperson to interpret Their content is most frequently analyzed by clerics who do not question the underlying political or
