The Fashion Of Architecture Bradley :

The Fashion of Architecture Bradley Quinn, 2003 Architecture is making its presence felt in cutting edge fashion The pliable metals membrane structures lightweight glasses and plastics used in building construction are creeping onto the catwalk As they do so their impact on recent textile developments has produced fabrics that enable clothing to act as individual climate controlled environments that can exchange information with embedded sensors resulting in wearable dwellings that act as both shelter and clothing At the same time architects are borrowing the techniques of pleating stapling cutting and draping from traditional tailoring to design buildings that are flexible interactive inflatable and even portable Although the relationship between architecture and fashion was recognized more than a century ago the connection between them has rarely been explored by historians designers or practicing architects The Fashion of Architecture is the first attempt to investigate the contemporary relationship between architecture and fashion in considerable depth by examining the ideas imagery techniques and materials used by visionaries such as Martin Margiela Issey Miyake Alexander McQueen Tadao Ando and Daniel Libeskind As mavericks ranging from Hussein Chalayan and Rei Kawakubo to Rem Koolhaas and Zaha Hadid describe architecture's role in the formation of fashion identities new readings of both areas emerge Probing and far reaching in its content The Fashion of Architecture is the most comprehensive study of this exciting area to date The Fashion Design Reference & Specification Book Jay Calderin, Laura Volpintesta, 2013-07-01 An essential primer for students and first stop reference for professionals The Fashion Design Reference Specification Book takes the fashion designer through the entire design process from conceiving a garment to marketing it This valuable handbook contains the information and ideas essential to planning and executing fashion projects of every scale and distills them in an easy to use format that is compact enough to slip into a tote Linking six central phases in the cycle of fashion research editing design construction connection and evolution The Fashion Design Reference Specification Book helps designers develop effective strategies for building a cohesive collection and communicating their vision The Reference Specification Book series from Rockport Publishers offers students and practicing professionals in a range of creative industries must have information in their area of specialty in an up to date concise handbook The Places and Spaces of Fashion, 1800-2007 John Potvin, 2013-01-11 The Places and Spaces of Fashion 1800 2007 brings together art design fashion and a much neglected concern for its spatial realities The spaces and places of fashion have often been overlooked in the writing of fashion history and visual culture More often than not however these environments mitigate control inform and enhance how fashion is experienced performed consumed seen exhibited purchased appreciated and of course displayed Space as this volume attempts to illustrate is itself a representational strategy on par with and influencing the visibility and visuality of fashion Innovative and challenging the essays in this volume explore various physical and conceptual spaces moving from physical environments to the two dimensional with paintings illustrations and photographs to chart similarities differences and complex nuanced relationships between environments fashion identities and visibility The volume also navigates various sites both permanent and temporary of production circulation exhibition consumption and promotion of fashion that define meaning and knowledge about a culture or individual by providing for a bond between embodied consumers spectators and fashion objects The Places and Spaces of Fashion 1800 2007 is a compelling project with a thematic theoretical and historiographic approach that is at once both focused yet far reaching and original in its implications The volume engages with questions attending to the modern condition by seamlessly weaving interdisciplinary discussions of the visual with material culture to explore the spatial dimensions of fashion Some of the essays explore new and exciting spaces while others offer compelling revisionary analyses of relatively known sources Fashion Jennifer Craik, 2024-07-25 Fashion is everywhere It is one of the main ways in which we present ourselves to others signaling what we want to communicate about our sexuality wealth professionalism subcultural and political allegiances social status even our mood It is also a global industry with huge economic political and cultural impact on the lives of all of us who make sell wear or even just watch fashion Fashion the key concepts presents a clear introduction to the complex world of fashion The aim throughout is to present a comprehensive but also accessible and provocative analysis Readers will discover how the fashion industry is structured and how it thinks the links between catwalk celebrity branding media promotion and mainstream retail how clothes mean different things in different parts of the world and how popular culture influences fashion and how fashion shapes global culture Illustrated with a wealth of photographs the text is further enlivened with over 30 detailed and rich case studies ranging across topics as diverse as the meaning of black in fashion the rise of celebrity branding the cult of thinness the politics of veiling the eroticism of shoes and the power of cosmetics Features Boxed chapter overviews open each chapter Bullet points summarizing key ideas conclude each chapter Chapter discussions are illustrated with integrated case material Each chapter is supported by extended Case Studies Key words are highlighted in chapters and defined in an extensive Glossary Further Reading guides the reader to other literature A timeline of Fashion Milestones provides a chronology of major events in the history of fashion Fashion Spaces Vésma Kontere McQuillan, 2020-12-17 This book sets out to define fashion spaces as an emerging area of research within architectural writing Social media has brought a new type of space into the world of fashion retail When architecture and fashion meet in the creation of ephemeral spaces for the immediate presentation of new collections for example these temporary but real spaces are brought into the realm of the everlasting digital space as they are shared and re shared on platforms like Instagram Fashion spaces can best be defined then as co created ever changing and prevailing metaspaces where the dialogue amongst designers consumers and industry leaders continues well after the real space has vanished Can these fashion spaces have a bigger impact on consumers than real time experience of space How may the dialogues developing within and as result of fashion spaces influence physical retail design Can designers use fashion spaces as sites for new cultural production These are but some of the questions tackled by Fashion Spaces A Theoretical View The book is created via a practice oriented approach to academic teaching and research through the collaboration of academics students and the retail industry Following an introductory essay by professor V sma Kontere McQuillan and assistant professor Kjeld Hansen which tackles the problematics of research in the field and presents a conceptual model for further research seven case studies developed by students of the retail design program at the School of Arts Design and Media at Kristiania University College explore possible applications of this model Features This book explores and defines fashion spaces as an emerging area of research within retail design It is created via a practice oriented approach to academic teaching and research through the collaboration of academics students and the retail industry Case studies developed by students of the retail design program at the School of Arts Design and Media at Kristiania University College explore possible applications of the conceptual model expounded by professor V sma Kontere McQuillan and assistant professor Kjeld Hansen

MIMED Forum IV Beyhan Bolak Hisarligil, Gülsün Sağlamer, 2014-08-11 This book is the outcome of one of the Forum Series on Architectural Education organized by the Architectural Education Association of Turkey MIMED on the theme of Flexibility in Architecture At Forum IV the architectural education platform was cross examined new ideas and experiences were shared and the potentials of regeneration were discovered The notion of flexibility in architectural education is the subject of fresh and vital debate which is based on whether it is achieved by the inner dynamics of architecture or the external dynamics However this debate seems null and void since the dynamics of both sides seem to necessitate flexibility in architectural education at almost the same level Hence the attitude that the prerequisite for creating flexibility according to the inner dynamics of architecture depends on the protection of architectural education from the coercive effects of external dynamics is no longer a relevant issue Furthermore architectural education as a role model in such a debate becomes more important not only in a monotyping global context but also in the local social context as well Herein lies a fundamental dichotomy arising from the fact that because of globalization curricula may face the risk of becoming uniform Any effort to overcome this dichotomy in such a debate seems vital Then the question arises whether such a dichotomy which turns architectural education from an autonomous discipline into a quasi autonomous one transforms architectural education into a rather political issue If the autonomous nature of architectural education resists globalization the question of the manner in which this resistance occurs and what impact it will have on architectural education seems of the utmost importance The volume begins with a preface by Gulsun Saglamer President of MIMED Contributors include Juhani Pallasmaa Kim Dovey Kojin Karatani Herman Neuckermans Conall Cath in Mark Olweny Ugur Tanyeli Ferhan Yurekli Gulsun Saglamer Fatma Erkok Rengin Unver Cigdem Polatoglu S Mujdem Vural Iris Aravot Acalya Allmer Sigrun Prahli Aslihan Senel Sevgi Turkkan Burcin Kurtuncu Sait Ali Koknar Ozlem Berber Funda Uz Sonmez Akin Sevinc Danelle Briscoe Kurt Gouwy Aydan Balamir Mine Ozkar Basak Ucar Semra Arslan Selcuk Arzu Gonenc Sorguc Sema Alacam Esra Gurbuz Urs Hirschberg and Ahu Sokmenoglu

Selvedge, 2004 Fashion Before Plus-Size Lauren Downing Peters, 2023-06-15 Shortlisted for the Association of Dress Historians Book of the Year Award 2024 In 2022 it was reported that plus sizes accounted for nearly twenty percent of all women's apparel sales in the United States and was one of the industry's few growth sectors. For many, this news seemed to herald a remarkably inclusive turn for an industry that long bartered in exclusivity. Yet the recent success of plus size fashion obscures a rather complicated history, one that can be traced back over a century and which illuminates the fraught relationship between fashion, fat, and weight bias in American culture. Although many regard fat as a malady of the present, in the early twentieth century it was estimated that more than one third of American women classified as overweight. While modern weight bias had yet to fully cement itself in the American imaginary, the limitations of mass garment manufacturing coupled with the ascendent slender beauty ideal had already relegated larger women to fashion's peripheries. By 1915, however, fashion forecasters predicted that so-called stoutwear was well positioned to become one of the most lucrative subsectors of the burgeoning ready-to-wear trade. In the years that followed, stoutwear manufacturers set out to create more space for the fat woman in fashion, but in doing so revealed an ancillary motivation: that of how to design fat out of existence altogether. Fashion Before Plus Size considers what came before plus size fashion while also shedding new light on the ways that the fashion industry not only perpetuates but produces weight bias. By situating stoutwear at the confluence of mass manufacturing, beauty ideals, standardized sizing, health discourse, and consumer culture, this book exposes the flawed foundations upon which the contemporary plus size fashion industry has been built. Visual Merchandising Louisa Iarocci, 2017-07-05 Situated at the crossroads of visual culture and consumerism, this essay collection examines visual merchandising as both a business and an art. It seeks to challenge that scholarly ambivalence that often celebrates the spectacle but denies the agenda of consumerism. The volume considers strategies in the imaging of selling from the mid-nineteenth century to the present in terms of the visual interaction that occurs between the commodity and the consumer and between body and space. Under the categories of Promotion, Product, and Place, contributors to the volume examine the strategies in the presentation of retail goods and environments that range from print advertising to product design to store display and architecture. Visual Merchandising: The Image of Selling is located directly at the nexus of business practice and cultural myth where the spectator never loses sight of their status as buyer and the object of desire is always still a commodity. Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan

Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus, the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World. The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011. This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies.
