The Framework Of Spiritual Hope:

The Framework of Spiritual Hope Michael T. Donohoe, 2014-12-12 The true stories within The Framework of Spiritual Hope paint a clear picture of real life divine experiences The author was awakened in the midst of the good and evil spiritual forces that are unceasingly struggling for control of our planet Earth The Framework of Spiritual Hope is a remarkable recounting of one individual's journey that demonstrates personal contact with God is very possible Today more than ever a real connection with your father God and with your brother Jesus is absolutely necessary in this age of powerless religious dogma A genuine heartfelt relationship with God and Jesus is your only hope if you desire to survive the evil that has at this time in our history outwardly unleashed itself upon our world The Framework of Spiritual Hope is not preachy Nor does it focus upon believing a certain religious philosophy Nevertheless it does attempt to help an individual who is truly searching for the truth build a framework of spiritual hope upon which they can secure their own spiritual future The Framework of Spiritual Hope is definitely not a book for the spiritually closed minded or for those who are hopelessly locked into man made religious doctrines If in your heart you've concluded there must be more to a relationship with God other than what you have been taught then this book is certainly for you

The Spirit of Hope Jürgen Moltmann, 2020-01-01 Famous theologian Jürgen Moltmann returns here to the theme that he so powerfully addressed in his groundbreaking work Theology of Hope In the twenty first century he tells us hope is challenged by ideologies and global trends that would deny hope and even life itself Terrorist violence social and economic inequality and most especially the looming crisis of climate change all contribute to a cultural moment of profound despair Moltmann reminds us that Christian faith has much to say in response to a despairing world In the eternal yes of the living God we affirm the goodness and ongoing purpose of our fragile humanity Likewise God's love empowers us to love life and resist a culture of death The book's two sections equally promote these affirmations yet in different ways The first section looks at the challenges to hope in our current world most especially the environmental crisis It argues that Christian faith and indeed all the world's religions must orient themselves toward the wholeness of the human family and the physical environment necessary to that wholeness The second section draws on resources from the early church the Reformation and the contemporary theological conversation to undergird efforts to address the deficit of hope he describes in the first section

Wholeness in Hope Care Daniel Johannes Louw, 2015 Throughout his life the apartheid activist Nelson Mandela Madiba maintained In the darkest moment there is always hope We must never give up Hope as a mode of the courage to be Paul Tillich points to what the Sociologist Peter Berger calls signals of transcendence Wholeness in Hope Care explores the rich tradition of hope in wisdom philosophy and Christian theology It connects non hope un hope Gabriel Marcel in espoir to a theology of compassion in soul care cura animarum Resurrection hope theologia resurrectionis points to the healing of life cura vitae and the preservation of land cura terrae In order to describe the helping and healing dimension in pastoral care giving the term promissiotherapy has been coined Daniel Johannes Louw was Dean of the faculty of theology at the University of Stellenbosch 2001 2005 President of the International Academy of Practical Theology IAPT 2003 2005 and President of the International Council for Pastoral Care and Counselling ICPPC 2011 2015 Series Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Series Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Vol 3 Subject Pastoral Studies Religious Studies Christianity God, the World, and Hope Harald Hegstad, 2018-10-31 Who is Jesus Christ What does it mean to say that we are created in the image of God What does salvation mean What is the meaning of baptism What characterizes the Christian fellowship What hope does a Christian faith give for the future These are only a few of the questions that this textbook on dogmatics takes up This book begins the discussion of the various topics by looking at what the Bible has to say Hegstad then examines how the church's doctrine has developed over the course of history and discusses how the Christian faith can best be formulated today This book understands the Christian faith as an answer to universal existential questions that challenge all religions and worldviews Dogmatics is understood here as the expression of a Christian interpretation of life Hegstad himself belongs to the Lutheran church tradition but his perspective is consistently ecumenical This introduction to dogmatics will interest not only students but everyone who is looking for a deeper insight into the Christian faith Jürgen Moltmann's Ethics of Hope Timothy Harvie, 2016-05-06 This book develops a thorough account of the sphere of human moral action in sustained dialogue with Jürgen Moltmann By examining God's role as promise giver particularly in the Christian understanding of resurrection this work describes the occupancy of both history and space in moral terms This leads to an understanding of Jesus' description of the kingdom of God to feature prominently in describing both the possibility and content of human moral action By offering an account of each of the main doctrines found in Moltmann's corpus the role of the future the Trinity the Holy Spirit and anthropology this book locates how each contributes to the understanding of ethics from a Christian perspective and subsequently applies these findings to the contemporary issue of poverty and global economics Theology as Hope Ryan A. Neal, 2009-01-01 Hope is the leitmotiv of Jürgen Moltmann's theology Not merely one aspect of his project hope is the whole of it the supreme doctrine interpenetrating all others Indeed hope is his method The present study is both historical and developmental while also being analytical and interrogative This chronological exploration seeks to show the nature composition and development of Moltmann's doctrine of hope as the distinctive doctrine of his theology implicating all others Part I establishes Moltmann's doctrine of hope as grounded in God's faithfulness in the cross and resurrection Part II investigates major doctrines in his project in light of this ground This design seeks to take advantage of the chronological approach while also integrating the best elements of a topical approach Textbook of Palliative Care Communication Elaine Wittenberg PhD, Betty R. An Unpromising Hope

Thomas R. Gaulke, 2021-09-21 Written in a theopoetic key this book challenges Christian reliance on the motif of promise especially where promise is regarded as a prerequisite for the experience of hope It pursues instead an unpromising hope available to the agnostic or belief fluid members and leaders of faith communities The book rejects any theological judgement about doubt and hopelessness being sinful It also rejects any hope which is grounded in a sense of Christian supremacy Chapter 1 focuses on Ernst Bloch s antifascist concept of utopian surplus putting Bloch in conversation with queer theorist Jose Esteban Munoz and womanist theologian M Shawn Copeland Chapter 2 explores the saudadic and theopoetic hope of Rubem Alves Chapter 3 turns to the womanist theologies of Delores Williams Emilie Townes and A Elaine Brown Crawford Finally chapter 4 engages the post colonial eschatology of Vitor Westhelle framing hope as nearby in space rather than nearby in time Each chapter offers an unpromising hope that may be tapped into by those who wish to affirm belief fluidity in their own communities and by those who wish to speak of hope honestly whether or not at any given moment they believe in God or in the promises of a god

Humankind Biblical Theology Prompted by Visions and Dreams from the Holy Spirit begins with a vision that came to Don Eckhart of two persons one a Spirit filled Christian and the other in the lake of fire The vision depicts Jesus saving the desperate one crying out for mercy Eckhart enrolled in seminary where he studied the Bible and the history of Christian theology especially eternal punishment a topic seldom examined since Augustine in the fifth century Uniquely unfolding in the book are visions and dreams prompting an insightful study of Scripture and a biblical theology developed as the hope of Christ mediated salvation for all The effects are far reaching but not complicated This coherent theology includes afterlife correction and purification for nonbelievers as well as for believers who never fully devoted to Jesus Christ This purification compares to Catherine of Genoa s vision in the early sixteenth century The book demonstrates how God s desire that all be saved can be accomplished according to Scripture God s sovereignty and human free will coalesce as every tongue joyfully confesses that Jesus Christ is Lord The Good News may be even better than we thought
